

ELEVEN RACE HORSES QUARTERED AT FAIR

Eleven race horses are at present quartered at the Jackson county fair grounds and as soon as the construction of the new racing stables is completed, probably this week, several additional strings will be brought to the grounds.

The new stable is 240 feet long and will have twenty stalls. Water is being piped to the building and the accommodations will be in keeping with the balance of the fair ground equipment which is modern in every detail.

The couple left shortly after noon on their honeymoon trip to Crater Lake and through eastern Oregon to Portland and return via Pacific highway. After two weeks they will be at home in Central Point.

Ervin Hutchinson of Klamath Falls and Edna Peterson of Elk Creek were married Saturday evening by Rev. D. E. Millard at his residence on West Eleventh street. They were accompanied by the bride's mother, Mrs. V. E. Peterson and sister, Dorothy and Mr. Lowell W. Ash of Trull. The happy couple left by auto for the bride's home on upper Elk creek Saturday evening and expected to continue by auto to Fort Klamath on Sunday where they will make their home.

Both Mr. Adams and Miss Hurley are native born Oregonians and well known in Central Point. Mr. Adams is an ex-service man, having served overseas with a subchaser detachment at Corfu, Greece.

HOPE OF RESCUE FADING

—that they will be alive for five or six days to come.

JACKSON, Calif., Aug. 31.—The number of men entombed in the Argonaut mine has been definitely fixed at 47. The mine officials have given a corrected list, supplementing that issued Tuesday by the Red Cross, which contained but 43 names.

Twelve of the entombed men have wives. If all of the imprisoned miners perish, 26 children will become half orphans.

PACIFIC FRUIT GIVEN PRIORITY to push through shipments of food-stuffs, perishables and fuel.

The order was issued upon representations that unless railroads were allowed power to establish priority, the movement of fruit crops and other agricultural products might be greatly hampered. G. H. Hecke, director of agriculture for California; Frank P. Spinning, representing the governor of Washington, and Senator McNary, republican of Oregon, headed a Pacific delegation which urgently requested the commission to extend the priority system to the west along the same lines that have been in effect in the east.

tion were all safely nominated. On the prohibition ticket, Governor Stephens who sought the gubernatorial nomination, received 1209 votes and Mattison B. Jones, his opponent, 750. Both men ran on the prohibition ticket in addition to their own.

James P. Britt of Los Angeles, manager in southern California for Governor Stephens, early today conceded Richardson's nomination.

BONUS BILL CARRIES

service less the $50 paid at discharge. But in no event could the amount of the credit to the veteran who performed no overseas service exceed $500 and the amount of the credit of the veteran who performed any overseas service exceed $525.

Adjusted service certificates would have a face value equal to the sum of the adjusted service credit of the veteran, increased by 25 per cent, plus interest thereon for 20 years at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent a year, compounded annually.

Until January 1, 1925, any national bank or any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of any state, territory, possession or the District of Columbia, would be authorized to loan to any veteran upon his promissory note secured by his adjusted service certificate any amount not in excess of 50 per cent of the total of the adjusted service credit, plus interest thereon from the date of the certificate to the date of the loan, at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent a year.

Govt. Protects Bank.

Should the veteran fail to pay the principal and interest of the loan within six months after its maturity, the government would pay to the bank the amount of such principal and interest and take over the certificate. This would be restored to the veteran at any time prior to its maturity upon receipt of the amount paid by the government to the bank, plus interest on that amount at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent a year, compounded annually.

The rate of interest charged the veteran by the bank could not exceed by more than two per cent a year the rate charged at the date of the loan for the discount of commercial paper by the federal reserve bank for the federal reserve district in which the bank was located.

If a veteran died before the maturity of the loan, the government would pay to the bank the principal and interest and to the beneficiary named by, or to the estate of, the veteran, the face value of the certificate less the amount paid to the bank.

P. O. Applications.

After January 1, 1925, veterans holding certificates could make direct application through postmasters for government loans. If such loan were made at any time not more than three years after the date of the certificate, it could not exceed fifty per cent of the sum of the adjusted service credit of the veteran, plus interest at 4 1/2 per cent a year from the date of the certificate to the veteran.

If the loan were made at any time more than three years after and not more than six years after the date of the certificate, the sum could not exceed 25 per cent of the adjusted service credit, plus interest at 4 1/2 per cent from the date of the certificate to the date of the loan.

If the loan were made at any time more than six years after the date of the certificate, the sum could not exceed 75 per cent of the adjusted service credit, increased by 25 per cent plus interest at 4 1/2 per cent from the date of the certificate to the date of the loan.

Fashion Notes

Many a new fall suit fastens with but one button and a steadfast resolve to be the smartest garment on display. A suit of soft duvetyne is assured of this latter achievement by being collared and perhaps cuffed with rich fur.

The sleeves of fall cannot be judged by any rule—they go their own way blithely and confident of their success. And so startling and varied have they become that the rest of one's frock has been driven to utmost simplicity.

Aluminum trimmings give ample proof that metal holds a place on the fall fashion stage, very near the center. Metal fabrics, tinsel thread, metal motifs intrigue you on every side.

While we still concede the simpler, straight line silhouette its popularity, we do not admit it to the fall wardrobe unless accompanied by the very graceful and quite Grecian draped arrangement at one side—preferably left.

Fashion Notes

The very fact of its gradual acceptance might make us seriously consider the circular skirt. It is these modes that creep upon us stealthily that endure. Surely the new flaring panels are the forerunner of a return to this graceful mode.

The influx of Russian refugees to America has been evidenced in the quantities of gorgeous embroideries that band, girdle and cuff many of the new fall frocks.

A sleeve upon a dancing frock may be no sleeve at all. Second thought may call it a train. Yet it takes the French third thought to catch it at the wrist with a shower of pearls and call it a bracelet.

One is in a quandary as to whether one cuts or travels the newest color chart until comes the realization that one only wears it on all occasions. But the first thought may be excused when we read of the newest tints in browns—toast, tiffin, muffin—then spice, ginger and chutney and finally Hangoon, Mandalay and Hindu.
