ROGERS HORNSBY HAS NATIONAL L. HONORS CINCHED

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—(By Associated Press.) Rogers Hornsby, leading the National league in individual batting and home run hitting, today is so far in advance of his challengers that any bid they may make to overtake him will not seriously threaten his drive for the 1-22 championship. In his last seven games Hornsby whaled out 13 hits, which shot his average up to .389. His string of 32 home runs is the best performance in the history of the National league.

Grimes of Chicago crowded Bigbee of Pittsburgh out of second place honors, holding an average of .364, as a result of bagging eight hits in his last six games. Bigbee is batting .358 with Hollocher of Chicago fourth with .356. The averages include games of Wednesday.

The race between Cobb and Sisler in the American league is dragging along with very little change as each is traveling at about the same pace. Sisler is out in front with an average of .413 while Cobb is trailing with .400. The St. Louis star smashed out 13 hits in his last seven games and Cobb, playing in only six games, poked 11.

Tillie Walker and Ken Williams are tied for the home run honors, each having cracked out 32. Walker smashed out a brace during the week, while Williams failed to increase his mark of a week ago. Babe Ruth also connected with a brace of homers and is only four behind the pair. With his 28th round trippers the Babe's admirers are confident he will overtake the pair before the windup.

Dodgers Going Strong
CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—(By Associated Press.) Four twirlers in each of the two preceding games have failed to check Brooklyn's onslaught, McGraw rushed five men to the firing line yesterday in an effort to check the Giants' slump but the Dodgers, one run behind in the tenth, hammered across two runs off Scott and made it three in a row from the champions, 8 to 7. The teams play a double-header today at the Polo Grounds.

The Giants had their lead over Chicago out to five games as the Cubs took advantage of Cincinnati errors and bagged a 7 to 4 victory. The other National league contenders, St. Louis and Pittsburgh, divided a double-header in which heavy hitting predominated. Red Russell of the Pirates led the sluggers with seven hits, including three home runs, which brought his season's total to twelve.

While the Yanks were idle the St. Louis Browns gained a half game on the American leaders and cut the margin separating them from the top to two games before defeating Ty Cobb's skidding team.

The White Sox took fourth place from Cleveland by defeating the Indians 2 to 0, in a five inning affair, while Eddie Rommel, Mack's twirling ace, chalked up his 21st victory of the season by defeating Boston 4 to 2 in 11 innings.

The Boston Braves took their second straight doubleheader from Philadelphia.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Mrs. Alice Ferguson and her two children came in Thursday of last week and engaged board and lodging for an indefinite length of time. They have been living on the Frank Rhodes farm but decided to make a change so went to Medford but could not secure a house to suit them so came back to Eagle Point and tried to rent a house and found that every house in town, fit to live in, was occupied and even the houses in the course of construction are already engaged as soon as they are ready to live in.

weeks ago and went out to Crater Lake Diamond lake, Fort Klamath, out to Bend, down the Deschutes over into Washington county and Wasco, back down the Columbia highway to Portland and back home, having one of the finest times of their lives, and all this time Thomas F. Nichols was taking his meals at the Sunnyside, and I understood him to say when he first came that his wife had gone up Butte creek to visit her parents. But the item was too good to leave out even if it was a little old—to think of the younger members of the company having such a time as that and not letting their friends know of it. I couldn't think of it.

I have another item of news and that is that one of our old veterans, M. S. Wood of the Civil war, who is now crowding along close to ninety, has had his pension raised to a hundred dollars a month to be kept up as long as he lives. His wife, who was formerly a veteran's widow when she married Mr. Wood, is now past eighty years of age and this increase in his pension will enable them to live in ease and comfort the rest of their days. The old vet said that he wanted all his old friends to know of his good fortune and if I put it in the Eaglets they would about all read it.

While I am on the subject of old people being fortunate, the reader will pardon me if I allude to my own case as a scribbler. With this letter I will have finished up my sixty-fourth year as a newspaper correspondent. As I wrote my first letter early in September, 1858, for the Pacific Methodist and edited by Dr. O. P. Fitzgerald, D.D. who later became one of the leading bishops of that church organization, that fall I was sent to the Eugene City circuit and soon became acquainted with the newspaper men of Eugene and Corvallis and gathered items for them, but continuing to write for the Pacific Methodist. Finally I was sent by the conference of the M. E. church, South, to the Oregon City circuit as a circuit rider and my circuit embraced the territory from a line a little south of Corvallis to about 40 miles above Eugene, taking all the country east of Eugene. My circuit embraced a territory 175 miles around and when I reached the field found 32 appointments to be filled once a month, but I soon consolidated them into sixteen and that kept me busy all the time, generally preaching three times on Sunday and riding on horseback twenty to twenty-five miles a day.

But this is another one of my digressions. I married while on the Oregon City circuit and was sent to the Yreka circuit where I served two years and was sent from there to Williamsburg and that year, 1867, located near where Eagle Point now stands and engaged in teaching school and have remained here ever since and have been to a greater or less extent in the position of correspondent and for the last forty-five years as a regular contributor to either the Jacksonville Times, the Valley Record, Medford Monitor, Medford Mail and last but not least the Medford Mail Tribune. For a few years I wrote once a week for the Roseburg Review under the management of R. J. R. N. Bell, and now I am thinking very seriously of taking a much needed rest, but I see that I have enough notes to fill another column and have almost a column already written.

Mrs. Harriet Allen, formerly Harriet Perry, one of the seven sisters who used to entertain the old vets of the Civil war, and hundreds of others, with their songs and company, and her sister-in-law, the wife of the only boy in the family, Wm. Perry, and Lizzie Perry were visiting during the day and in the early evening went home and brought Mrs. Perry back for supper.

E. H. Hurd, secretary of the Farm Loan association, and J. E. Williamson and Ed Dimick, loan committee of the Rogue River Loan association, were here for dinner Friday on their way out in the hills combining business with pleasure.

Lee Bradshaw and wife of Brownsboro were transacting business here the last of the week.

A man by the name of George Kiel and his son and three other men came in and called for supper and breakfast. They had struck camp on the Crater Lake highway in the lower end of town with their teams. They had been working on the road to the Oregon Caves on the Frank Rhodes contract and had finished this job and were then on their way up to go to work on another contract he has on the road from the top of Rocky hill to Butte Falls. The same evening but later, Ralph Peyton, Ira Carman, Ed Stillwell and Chester Roberts, all of Medford, came in for supper. They had been out to Huckleberry mountain and reported that they had gathered five gallons apiece, twenty gallons altogether, that the berries were plentiful and that they had had a very fine trip, except for the dust on the Crater Lake highway. After supper they went on to Medford.

Mrs. Ralph Kissling of Portland, was out here visiting her old friends, Rudolph Weidman and looking after her interests in this neighborhood. She owns the farm adjoining the John Rader farm near the Antelope school house.

Sam Harnish and his son Ray and family who have been out beyond Klamath Falls near Merlin to look after Mrs. Ray Harnish's interests there, returned last Sunday morning and report that hay is offered for four dollars a ton in the stack out in that country and no market.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Trowbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Royal G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clements were among the Sunday visitors at the Sunnyside for dinner.

Mrs. Cora O'Brien, formerly Mrs. Dr. Officer, and her daughter, Allison Officer and her husband, Mr. Boyle of Santa Barbara, came unexpectedly to visit Mrs. O'Brien and brothers, R. G., William and J. F. Brown, and her sister, Mrs. S. B. Holmes, friends and other relatives.
