Ye Smudge Pot By Arthur Perry.

If the Turks keep on, there will be one spot on earth, where two oceans meet, not controlled by Great Britain.

The New Brunswick, N. J., preacher-choir singer murder mystery, and the South Bend, Ind., scandal prove that something can happen without a chorus girl and millionaire from New York, being implicated.

JAZZ NEWS (Albany Democrat)

O. Shook went to Portland Saturday morning, stopping off on his return.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wriggle of Philomath were transacting business in Albany today. Mr. and Mrs. Wriggle are preparing to move to The Dalles in the near future.

(Eugene Guard)

Mrs. Arthur Shove was in the city shopping the latter part of the week from Franklin.

A careless deer was shot by an accidental hunter Thurs.

The mental handspings of Walter M. Pierce, Demo-Klano candidate for gov. so impressed Jess Winburn of Ashland, that he donated him $5000 to continue his gymnastics. This is the Pacific coast record for oratorical pocket clean-ups.

People who wonder why Southern Oregon is about like the Injuna left it, and marvel why Washington and California, excel in the development of natural resources, should buy a map and count the railroads. Such a census will show Southern Oregon cluttered up with one man-sized railroad, and the sister states with at least three each.

ONE AT A TIME (Harrisburg News)

Sunday morning at Sunday school the community is to be given an opportunity to aid the Near East in their line of suffering. If you cannot come to bring your donation send it by someone who is coming. Everyone is asked to have a hand in this special collection.

A Fable—Once upon a time, so it is said, a Jitney made a round trip without a goodlooking lady in the front seat with the driver. Instead she rode in the back seat with a drummer from Portland.

Things have come to a pretty pass, when parents are forced to quit tinkering with world affairs, to manage their own kids.

The situation was helped out immensely by the GOP, state central committee favoring the removal from the Rhineland of American soldiers.

A. S. V. Carpenter has gone to Pasadena, leaving the unused portion of the alphabet behind.

MAKE IT A NAIL (Marshfield News)

It was said that Inspector Melton declared he would take another tack to obtain the results he wants here.

"UKIAH POLICEMAN SHOT IN RUMPUS"—(Hdline Sacramento Bee) Cruel and unusual.

"WHERE IS THE OLD FASHIONED POLITICIAN"—(Hdline Bend Times). Probably at the week-end session of the Parent-Teachers association, or prayer meeting.

Wm. Hohenzollern, the ex-Kaiser, is going to be married. The Allied threat to hang him is now unnecessary.

A WORD TO THE WISE, ETC. (From Postcard)

Dear Sir, Gillman's peanut roaster has been squeaking for a month.

Other court officials may frown upon him, but the criminal can always count on old General de Lay.

We trust there is enough cash in the Greek treasury to buy Constantine a nice little place at Doorn.

The best treatment for a "terrible temper" is a hot shingle applied to the seat of the trouble.

About the only difference is that the bachelor has nobody to tell him about the dandruff on his coat collar.

Correct this sentence: "I know my ankles are a fright," said she, "but I am sorry to see long skirts coming back."

If the human race got all its faults from Adam, that old boy was so hard-boiled steel couldn't have dented him.

And yet the man whose name is in Who's Who doesn't receive as much flattering mail as the man whose name is on a sucker list.

An experienced business man is one who realizes that the chap who called six times while he was out isn't trying to give him anything.

EXTERNALS.

HE SAID, "Jemima is a prize gem among the girls; in vain the gifted artist tries to paint her golden curls, and when I contemplate her eyes, my heart within me whirls. She said, 'He is a fine young man, all wool and three feet wide; his whiskers are a dainty tan, with keopecks he's supplied, and in his handsome tin sedan I'll travel as his bride.' So they were wed, and pounds of rice came swishing through the air; the pastor said, 'I'm glad to splice so sumptuous a pair; I'm sure they'll put up lots of ice ere they have snowy hair.' But he was prone to pinch a dime when once that dime was won; to him the program most sublime was hoarding minted mon; he thought it was a low down crime to spend a groat for fun. And she regarded chickenfeed as something made to spend; to buy up junk she didn't need was her chief aim and end; she was inclined to give no heed to maxims bankers lend. Her tresses glimmered in the light, just as they did before; her husband's whiskers were as bright as in the days of yore; and yet each day they had a fight, and raging, walked the floor. It's well if brides, like roses blown, make ushers stand aghast; it's well for bridegrooms if they own a spread of whiskers vast; but sympathetic hearts alone will make a marriage last.

GIRLS! LEMONS BLEACH FRECKLES AND WHITEN SKIN Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan bleach, and complexion whitener. Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes bleach out and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. ADV.
