JOHNNY CARLSON TO BOX RICHIE G. HILL TONIGHT

Ad Gustavo, champion South American middleweight mat man, will grapple Ralph Hand, a Gold Hill contender for the middleweight belt, in a scheduled two-out-of-three-falls match at the Gold Hill Pavilion tonight. Police Gazette rules will govern the match and it promises to be one of the best wrestling goes of the season. Both Gustavo and Hand are in tip-top shape for tonight's fray.

Martin Bowers, who has arranged the match, promises a corking six-round scrap between "Fighting" Johnny Carlson and Battling Richie Grants Pass glove expert before the main event. It is rumored that both boys are anxious to decide an argument this evening and from every angle this promises to be a good fight. Johnny is fresh from a successful trip to Spokane where he fanned Soldier Walsh in the jaw, putting the battling doughboy to sleep forty seconds after the gong had opened the mix. The Spokane Spokesman Review, in reporting this fight, said:

"It took Johnny Carlson, former Mekos club pride, just 40 seconds to polish off Jim Walsh, Fort Wright soldier, and so neatly did he do the polishing that a squad of comrades was called to cart him away. Walsh opened as the aggressor. Johnny solved his line of maneuvering, mugged up his advance guard and then sounded taps when he shoved his left to the solar plexus and his right to the jaw. The soldier doubled up like a jackknife and called it a day."

Richie is also in fine shape and is confident that he can hang his mit on Johnny tonight.

Two good boxing preliminaries to the Gustavo-Hand and Carlson-Richie tilts will key the audience to the proper pitch for the main events. A large number of Medford people are planning to attend.

FAIR WEATHER IS PROMISED FOR THE GAME TOMORROW

Fair weather seems to be the promise for the opening game of the local high school football season between the Medford and Grants Pass eleven at the Holly street grounds tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

Since the recent rains the field is muddy but is expected to be in good shape by Saturday if no more rains occur. Wednesday afternoon the field was unusually slow and heavy and the scrimmage which coach Durso put the team through was tiring.

Klamath Falls meets the Ashland eleven at Ashland tomorrow afternoon and according to the Ashland Tidings the Ashland boys have been working hard. Local football fans will be interested to see what the Tidings has to say about the Red and White eleven which will invade Medford Armistice Day.

"Under the guidance of coach Walter R. Hughes the men have been put through a systematic course in tackling, blocking, punting and passing. Heavy scrimmage has been on the menu the entire week. The team this year will average close to 160 pounds and presents a well balanced line and backfield."

Evidently the Ashland team is not as heavy as in former years. Formerly Ashland football enthusiasts have been ashamed to make any statement as to the amount of beef on the eleven. Coach Hughes' statement that he does not expect his line to outplay Medford but that his backfield is where the strength lies, Beeson and Clark will occupy the half-back positions and Rush and Nelson full and quarter on the Ashland squad according to present indications.

Light practice, running sprints and kicking, being the main items, will be held this evening in preparation for the Grants Pass game tomorrow.
