MAYOR BAKER AND THE I. W. W.

THE PROMPT action of Mayor Baker in meeting the I. W. W. challenge in Portland is to be commended. There is only one way to meet this Wobblie menace, that is by force, by lawful force, and without wasting time in idle palaver. As every student of sociology knows, there are some harmless and some good but misguided people in the I. W. W. movement. But the organization, as a whole, is bad,—bad to the core. And only fear, fear of a force greater than their own force, can prevent the movement growing. The greatest aid for the I. W. W. is the sentimentalist, the parlor Bolshevik, who believes that a sympathetic policy of sweetness and light will in some mysterious fashion transform the Bolshevik into a good citizen. Experience has amply demonstrated the fallacy of this policy, as well as its danger. There is only one thing the typical I. W. W. respects and that is force. Give him an inch by conciliation and he will take a mile by the bomb. He doesn't want a better government, he wants no government at all except the government he can ruin and control. Therefore, when the Reds mark out a city for its oyster, as has apparently been done in the case of Portland, there is only one thing to do,—hit when the iron is hot. Mayor Baker has many faults, has made many mistakes no doubt, but regarding the I. W. W. he is right, and from the beginning of his administration he has been right. In his present aggressive action, he should receive the hearty support of the people of the state, as well as of Portland.

Oregon Is on Trial

Ben W. Olcott is not on trial in the people of Oregon who are on trial at the coming election. The question is whether the people of this state really appreciate a non-political administration that is honest, economical and above all, efficient. The efficiency is due to the quality and caliber of the Governor's appointees. The most capable men in Oregon were appointed, and were chosen regardless of politics. Will the voters of this state remember this and does it mean anything to them if they do remember it? The politicians are either against Olcott, or are lukewarm. Many are against him because he refused to play their game. They are supporting Pierce, just to get Olcott out, hoping that four years hence they can elect a republican governor who will play the game in a political way. Many republican politicians are simply lukewarm. They are supporting Olcott, not because they like him more, but because they like a democrat less, especially Pierce. They are also afraid lest Pierce will prove to be a bill in a china shop,—doing immense damage without any constructive good to make up for any part of the damage. This fear and dread of Pierce is real, and prompts feverish activity in the republican camp to reelect Olcott, but there is no love for Olcott behind their activity. No organization in Oregon today, and no great newspaper is behind Ben W. Olcott for re-election in any way that implies enthusiasm for Olcott. The reason is that Olcott has done the bidding of no organization and no newspaper. He has been governor for all the people, and a good governor for all the people, and a good governor, one of the best governors of any state. He has maintained his independence of politicians and has appointed men who would administer efficiently, asking no political support from them in return. He has conscientiously avoided dictating patronage to his appointees, or even recommending job-hunters to them. He has held them responsible, not for political or personal loyalty to the appointing power, but for results for the State of Oregon. Olcott is a marked contrast to the old type of governor who usually was a political spinster, a political boss or the creature of a political boss or machine. This is the type the people of every state have been familiar with. We have had several governors in Oregon who were not of that type, but none who was so entirely different from that type as Olcott has proven himself to be. Olcott has proven faithful to the whole people. He has proven to be an economical and able administrator who had the faculty of selecting the best men for appointments and inspiring them to realize that they were free to do their best for the whole people. He has not played politics. He has avoided building up a political or personal machine or organization. He has been on the square with the whole people. The question is, do the people of Oregon appreciate this high type of governor, or will they turn back to the old type of spinster, boss or political manipulator? It really is the people of Oregon who are on trial,—Oregon Voters.

Notice to Stockholders of the Central Point Cemetery Association. There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Central Point Cemetery Association, at the City Hall, Central Point, Oregon, at 7:30 p. m., Oct. 28th, 1922, for the purpose of considering and voting on transferring the said cemetery over to the I. O. O. F. Lodge of Central Point, Oregon. Also election of officers and other business. J. E. BOSWELL, Secretary.
To the Officers of the Central Point Cemetery Association, of Central Point, Oregon, County of Jackson, We, the undersigned committee, appointed and authorized by the Central Point Lodge No. 193, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, do hereby submit the following proposition to you for your approval in the matter of transferring the above mentioned Central Point Cemetery to Central Point Lodge No. 193, I. O. O. F., of Central Point, Oregon. Central Point Lodge No. 193, of Central Point, Oregon, hereby proposes that the Central Point Cemetery of Central Point, Oregon, be transferred to said Lodge No. 193, together with full power and authority, to maintain and operate same. Also that all money being at present in the hands of the Treasurer of the Central Point Cemetery be turned over to above mentioned Lodge No. 193, that it might be used in the improvement of said Cemetery. Central Point Lodge No. 193, I. O. O. F., agrees that in case Cemetery is transferred to the Lodge, that it will keep the Cemetery in good condition, and will improve, and make such improvements that might be possible for the Lodge to make from time to time. It is the desire and purpose of Central Point Lodge No. 193, that in case it is able to obtain the Cemetery, to have a good and well kept Cemetery which will be a credit to the community. A. C. WALKER, W. A. PYBURN, J. E. VINCENT, FRANK TOMPKINS, R. H. MOORE. Committee appointed at a regular meeting of Lodge on September 25, 1922.

How Are Your Kidneys?

Famous Kidney Specialist's Prescription No. 777, Known for Years as "Marshroot." Now Being Sold by All Good Druggists—Is Guaranteed. During his forty years of constant practice, Dr. Daniel G. Carey helped many thousands of despairing kidney diseased men and women in all sections of the country, so don't take any chances with your kidneys. If you have the faintest suspicion that your kidneys are weak or your bladder is irritated the wisest thing you can do is to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Prescription No. 777 at once. Remember, it is not a cure-all or patent medicine, but is Dr. Carey's own most wonderful prescription. Watch the symptoms. The tiniest signals often indicate that the kidneys are ailing and need attention. Dry skin for instance ad little specks floating before the eyes. Sometimes the feet feel heavy, as if your shoes were full of lead. Often the joints ache or you have quick, darting pains shooting through the back or side. Then again that frequent desire to empty the bladder, cold, clammy feet and just a little puffiness under the eyes. Occasionally the hands or feet swell slightly and the joints of the hands are moist. Don't neglect these signs—you can't afford to take any chances with your kidneys. No regular practicing physician devoted more time to the study of kidney and bladder diseases than Dr. Carey. He, himself asserted that many thousands of cases could have been helped by his prescription. It taken in time. Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription at all reliable pharmacists the country over. Keep in mind the name, Dr. Carey's Prescription No. 777. No other medicine can take its place. Ye Smudge Pot

Men's wearing apparel this winter, calls for the "corset effect" in pants and coats, and it has been a long time since there was a murder in this vicinity. The IWW's threaten an invasion of Portland, and the "capitalistic press" will start to howl against an organization that raises its hell in an orderly manner, and aims to make the Rose City the Moscow of America. CAUSE FOR ENTHUSIASM (Chico Enterprise)—Three full houses and enthusiasm yesterday marked the busiest day the Methodist church has seen for a long time. "Why Girls Leave Home" was divulged at the G. Hunt shrine of the silent art last eve. Junior Shieks were relieved to discover that not all the blame had been attached to them. The state of Kansas is poorly conducted. The DeWitt-Klano tear seeder says it only costs $8,500,000 per annum for it to operate, while the state treasurer, on the ground, is laboring under the hallucination that approximately $75,000,000 is expended. Kansas better have its books audited right away. "ESPEE MAY THWART UNION PACIFIC GRAB"—(Hidline Eugene Register). Let everybody hope so, as nothing will retard development like another railroad running indiscriminately through the sagebrush and the timber. The published letters of the New Brunswick, N. J., preacher to the charming choir leader, and vice versa, both departed, proves that a fountain pen is a dangerous weapon. As an arrest would disrupt the social status and serenity of the village, it is highly probable the pair killed themselves in a fit of remorse, after reading one of their own epistles. GOOD WORK, E. J. (Pilot Rock News)—A large part of the neighborhood attended the Hog and Dairy show at Hornistown Friday and Saturday. E. J. Jackson brought home three ribbons. Drummers have ceased distributing homebrew recipes and risque stories, to give the public authentic returns on the election to be held Nov. 7. Owing to the nippy morns, those who sleep are getting from the hay to the airhole, in a jump, instead of a nonchalant stroll. The former Oregon evangelist, now known as the "master criminal," and held in Los Angeles pending hanging, was not much of a force for good, as all the towns where he held revival meetings have recovered from them. ASKING TOO MUCH (Coos Bay Times)—WANTED AT ONCE—Man to dig clams and get crabs; experienced only. Apply Bay Front Market. THE PHEASANT A flash of red and gold and brown, The greedy hunter brings him down; O! gaudy bird no more to rise With whirr of wings and silver cries, Red blood bedims each brilliant feather; You'll fly no more in autumn weather. (Sub. DD.) There are several unexplainable things in this world, among them being how a gang of politicians can always inveigle the WCTU. Into mothering a recall election nobody else has the gall to back. (See Lane County papers.) Miss Billie Kallen Is four years old, And has a red sweater To keep out the cold. Lloyd-George has resigned as premier of England. This means a calamity for Europe, and a lecture tour for America. Auto veterinarians are going to do business on a standard Oil basis.

Quill Points

The bright side of the Near East situation is the outside. The only free air you find at a village garage is a care-free air. He laughs at sears who never tried to start a fire with kerosene. A shine may not be worth 15 cents but it adds about eight cents to the price of an apple. Parents should be very careful not to let daughter catch them reading the awful books she buys. Correct this sentence: "Go on and have a good time, John," said the wife; "I won't wait up for you." Home, for many people, is a place to shed uncomfortable clothes and good manners. It's a sad world. You go into a garage when your engine is missing, and when you come out your tools are. Let us be thankful that Adam, when he named the animals, was uninfluenced by the man who names Pullman cars. Matrimony settles down to normal when the bride discovers that chicken salad isn't a balanced ration for a horrid man. Perhaps you have noticed that the man who demands a special kind of fuel isn't so durned particular about his beverages. Fortunately, a free American can have an opinion concerning the European situation without knowing anything about it. Some families just will spend their money for food when there isn't a single pair of silk stockings on the premises. The power of speech doesn't seem such an unmixed blessing if the man behind you has seen the show and knows what is coming next.

Rippling Rhymes

Walt Mason. CONTENTED WORKMAN. "I LIKE the work I'm doing," said Charles Augustus Oats; "I toil the year round gluing false whiskers on toy goats. Some men who work beside me are groaning every day; they lecture me and chide me for being blithe and gay. They rear in frequent rages, and say we suffer wrong; we ought to have more wages—our hours are much too long. But when I look around me and view the jobless jays, whose sufferings astound me, a thankful song I raise. A hundred thousand fellows are seeking work in vain, while autumn herbage yellows, and bitter winds complain. In bleak and dismal garrets poor men and women rage, and cry aloud for carrots, their hunger to assuage. To occupations higher a man might surely win, for nutty is the buyer of little goats of tin; but as I toil I'm humming, no grief annoys, for Christmas time is coming, when children like their toys. The little whiskered billy gives then some small delight; and so I don't feel silly while working day and night. I am profoundly grateful, my little tasks don't irk; I think complaining hateful when thousands seek for work."

Another Oratorical Challenge. To the Editor: At the risk of offending you by an oratorical outburst, and at the risk of trying to bring back the obsolete practice of stating both sides of the matter to the public at the same time, I wish to invite you to meet me Saturday night, at the meeting in Haymarket square, to talk upon the question of bankrupting the city with dollar water. Should you not care to indulge in this "crude" way of talking to the voters, I shall be glad to meet any one you may desire to represent you. You have a newspaper, to you the columns are free. To answer you at a dollar an inch is beyond my financial means. I trust therefore after
