STANFORD HOPEFUL CORVALLIS TODAY

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 28.—Generally fair weather was forecast for oday and the spirits of the Stanford toning and the spirits of the Stanford university football warriors, here for their game against Oregon Agricultural College today were correspondingly on the rise. A wet day and a muddy field, it was generally considered, would be more favorable to the Aggles while contrary conditions would be more favorable to the line of what the visitors are accustomed

The Stanford team came ove early from Albany, where they stayed last night. They paid a brief visit to the campus here yesterday and had a short workout on the field. Coache of neither team would venture a pre-diction as to the probable result of teday's lattle but each said his team was out to do its best.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 28.—University of Idaho and University of Oregon football teams were primed and ready early today for their test to be played on Multnomah field this afternoon, "It will be a wet, heavy field," said Coach Matthews of Idaho "and this fact will handicap us." However, the weather prediction for the day was generally fair and it was expected that if the prediction was verified the field would be fulrly dry by afternoon.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 - Football followers anticipated a series of brilliant gridiron performances with numerous contests of major impor scheduled in the east, west and south.

Four games monopolizing the spot-light in the east are those between Harvard and Dartmouth at Camharvard and Dartmouth at Cam-bridge: Penn State and Syracuse at the Polo Grounds; Army and Yale at New Haven and Navy and Univer-sity of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. Two inter-sectional contests of exceptional interest are scheduled.

Princeton played the University of Chicago on the latter's own grounds, while Notre Dame invaded Atlanta to battle Georgia Tech.

In the east other leading contests include LaFayette-Boston college. Rutgers-West Virginia State: Ver-mont-Holy Cross: Columbia-Williams and Brown-Boston university. The south's schedule is featured by rivalry between Centre and Louisville, North Carolina State and Virginia Military Institute, Alabama and Texas, Mississippi and Tennessee and In the far west the leading games tre those between California and Southern California universities, O. A. C. and Stanford and Idaho and Oregon. PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 28.-Pros peet of a wet, heavy field and a game with a heavier team took down hope of a Cougar victory here today, in the football game between Washington State college and the University of State college Washington.

Wrestling Match a Tie, SACRAMENTO, Cal, Oct. 28—Re-tato Gardini of Italy and Jimmy Landos of Greece, both men con-tenders for the heavyweight fille held by Ed (Strangler) Lewis, wrestled here last night at the Auditorium two hours to a draw. Gardini gained the first fall with a head chancery, fol-lowing a series of punishing head-locks, in 1:07. Landos took the next with a front arm break, following a standing double wristlock, in minutes.

Of far more importance than anything to this community just now is to find a way to house the people who desire to live here. Houses are at a premium and practically nothing inhabitable but what is rented.

We have had numerous calls this week for loans from desirable people wanting to build or remodel their homes. If those who have money will place it with us, it will be placed in channels in a very few hours where it will be helping to house those who will have to locate somewhere else unless this is done.

Besides the good you can do, you will be earning 7 or  $8c_c^*$  on money that does not have to be included in making up your income tax report.
