VOTE FOR COUNTY ROAD BONDS WILL NOT BOOST TAXES

The one issue that is of greater importance to the voters of Jackson county tomorrow than the election of this man or that man for office is the road bonds which will be used to complete the Ashland-Klamath road and the Gold Hill bridge.

The Medford-Crater Lake highway is improved with funds now available, but it will require more money than an ordinary tax levy will permit to build the Gold Hill bridge and complete the partially constructed road to Klamath and Lake counties.

It will take $200,000 to complete the Klamath road and build the bridge at Gold Hill, half of which must be provided by the county, otherwise the State Highway Commission will not invest one cent in either project, therefore it is most important that bonds for $100,000 be voted at the election tomorrow.

The voting of these bonds will not increase taxes over what they now are in that $100,000 road bonds of a former issue are to be paid during 1923. In fact the voting of these bonds will permit the completing two highways which will then be taken over by the State Highway Commission and maintained at the expense of the state. The money which has formerly been spent to maintain the Pacific Highway in Jackson county and the Ashland-Klamath Falls road may then be used to build more lateral roads.

RAILROADS MUST RAISE PRICES ON LEASED R. R. LAND

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Railroads which lease land along their right of way to private users must charge rentals equal to the sums which private owners would charge for similar property, or the transaction thereafter will be considered by the inter-state commerce commission as a form of rebating in violation of law.

Concluding an investigation instituted by itself in 1917 into railroad practices in renting property in New York City, Fresno, Cal., and Spokane, Wash., the commission held today that in some cases the fixing of a low rental charge in leases of lands to large shippers had been "in practical effect" a reduction of transportation charges, amounting to a refund.

The commission based its conclusion chiefly upon facts brought out by the investigation of conditions at Spokane, where the investigators found that a city had grown up around the right of way of the Northern Pacific, making the lease privileges on the land of railroads as well as others valuable.

Stray Bullet Kills Banker.
WENATCHEE, Wash., Nov. 6.—Struck in the temple by a stray bullet while riding along a country road near here at 4:30 Sunday afternoon James Lee, a barber, died in a hospital two hours later. Lee was riding with his son and another companion at the time the accident occurred.

LODGE EXPECTED TO WIN AGAIN MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—Apart from Massachusetts, where the campaign has closed with assurances of certain victory at the polls by both republican and democratic spokesmen, prediction claims have been unusually lacking this year in the New England states. Increased registration of democratic voters in Massachusetts, defection of certain republican elements and engagements during the last days of his campaign for re-election were factors on which supporters of William A. Gaston, democratic candidate for senator, were said to base optimistic prophecies.

Re-election of Senator Lodge although a possibility by a slightly diminished majority, was confidently predicted by republican leaders.

At the close of a vigorous campaign in Rhode Island, statements by leaders of two major parties were conservative, while it was admitted that the closest race was between Senator Peter G. Gerry, democrat, seeking re-election and former Governor Beekman, republican. In Vermont, where the democratic congressional candidates have devoted many of the campaign arguments in seeking modification of the Volstead act, James D. Kennedy, democratic candidate in the first district, announced last night that he was confident of victory on the modification issue. Other democratic candidates expressed merely the hope of reducing republican majorities in the state.

NEW HAMPSHIRE, WHERE NO UNITED STATES SENATOR IS TO BE ELECTED THIS YEAR, REPUBLICANS EXPECT TO ELECT W. H. GOODNOW, THEIR CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR, AND RETAIN A REPUBLICAN DELEGATION TO CONGRESS. DEMOCRATIC HEADS CLAIM THAT THERE HAS BEEN A REACTION AGAINST THE REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION WHICH WILL CAUSE A SERIOUS REDUCTION OF REPUBLICAN MAJORITIES.

BALL PLAYER HELD ON BIGAMY CHARGE.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—Fred Krigbaum, professional baseball player, was arrested here early today on a charge of bigamy brought against him by Mrs. Mariam Ledbetter Krigbaum, according to the police, who says Mrs. Krigbaum produced a marriage license as proof that the ball player married her at Nogales, Ariz., in 1918.

Krigbaum, she told the police, left her for another woman by the name of Miss Ruby Louise White of Dallas. When the ballplayer and Miss White met the police in the former's apartment here, she also, officers stated, produced a marriage license whereupon Krigbaum was led away to jail.

Governor's Funeral Held.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The funeral of Lucius E. Pinkham, former governor of Hawaii, was held here today. Rev. William Kirk Guthrie of the First Presbyterian church conducting the service. The body was cremated and the ashes will be sent to Pinkham's former home in Worcester, Mass.

SANE THINKING GREAT NEED IN AMERICA TODAY

The First Baptist church choir gave a sacred concert Sunday evening which drew a large and appreciative audience. The program would have done credit to any church choir. Two very pleasing anthems were rendered by the choir. The ladies quartet was one of the better numbers, while the solo by Mrs. Lorraine Harrison Scott was thoroughly enjoyed by everybody present. The Misses Reid gave a fine duet, and Mr. Carlton James rendered one of his finely rendered violin selections. Mr. Scott, the choir director, plans to gradually add to the musical ability of the choir and will emphasize the regular services as well as the monthly concerts.

Rev. F. R. Leach in a forceful and plain message spoke on the call today for a zeal which is tempered with knowledge and common sense. He spoke of the strained relations existing among the nations, and the emphasis on differences among classes and sects. Attention was directed to the need of sane leadership in the political and religious life of the day. The churches are being divided and filled with unsound and unscriptural teachings and practices. People need to do some thinking for themselves, and not be led away with new and untried theories, which are repudiated by the great leaders of the past as well as of the present. A reaction will soon set in and again sanity will prevail. In the meantime there is a call for those who will refuse to be swept away by

NEW THOUGHT SPEAKER AT WEDNESDAY FORUM

There will be a big double program at the forum of the Medford Chamber of Commerce at the Medford Hotel next Wednesday noon.

Halvor H. Urdahl will address the members of the newest New Thought and Psychology and he will describe the "Key of Knowledge."

Colonel Dan Morgan Smith, commander in France of the "Battalion of Death," will have a message that all may well be pleased to hear. He requires no introduction as the work of this battalion is well known to every citizen of this country.

With such a double program the forum no doubt will be taxed to capacity.

BUSINESS MEN'S TICKET

Read What Business Men and Taxpayers Say

Medford's financial solvency depends on collecting the remaining uncollected assessments. The present administration has gotten most of them straightened out. Mr. Gaddis should be kept on the job for another two years to finish the work.

HENRY HART.

I believe the election of Earl Gaddis for mayor of Medford is to the best interest of the city.

JNO. W. JOHNSON.

I have followed very closely the work of Mr. Gaddis and the present Business Men's ticket, and while I do not agree with everything they have done, in the whole I consider it one of the best administrations Medford has had.

S. T. RICHARDSON.

I am for Gaddis and the Business Men's ticket because I want to see the city prosper and go ahead. It can only do so by the choosing of men who have shown by the conduct of their own personal affairs that they are able to manage a business enterprise.

LEWIS ULRICH.

Mr. Gaddis has always given his best efforts to getting canneries, sawmills and other pay rolls for Medford. This is why I am for him as I believe we want a man for mayor who will work for a bigger Medford rather than an orator or a real estate promoter.

W. A. FOLGER.

The thing about Gaddis that appeals to me is that he has been the one man who has taken the time from his business to learn all about the various angles of Medford municipal affairs. Medford could well afford to pay him a good salary rather than lose his help in straightening out its financial matters.

A. J. KLOCKER.

Because the last year of grace allowed by the charter to those who refuse to pay their assessments expires the coming year it is more important than at any time that a council pledged to "making them pay up" be elected.

C. E. GATES.

For Mayor E. C. GADDIS

THE CANDIDATES

For Councilmen—First Ward
J. W. Jacobs

Is a successful, progressive business man, who has resided in Medford 12 years. Mr. Jacobs owns his home, is a taxpayer and therefore very much interested in the future of the City of Medford.

J. H. Butler

Is the secretary of the Medford Furniture and Hardware company, which is one of the largest business houses in the city. Mr. Butler has resided in Medford 30 years, owns his home, is a heavy taxpayer and therefore interested in keeping the expenses of administration down without impairing the necessary activities of the city.

For Councilmen—Second Ward
O. O. Alenderfer

Of the People's Electric Store, another one of Medford's livewire business men who has resided in Medford 12 years, is a tax payer and home owner and interested in following the progressive business administration of the present council.

E. H. Janney

Secretary-Manager of the Jackson County Abstract Co., the largest Title Company in the state south of Portland, who is a taxpayer and home owner. Has lived in the city 14 years and knows of the difficulties through which the city has passed in this time, and is very much interested in seeing the sound business administration carried on.

The municipal affairs of Medford are going along in good shape. Why throw a monkey wrench in the machinery by electing Lindas or Root? Vote for Gaddis. A. C. HUBBARD.

Gaddis insures a good business administration for Medford. DR. McM. M. DOW.

Member of the firm of Gaddis & Dixon, and has always stood for a constructive business administration and a strong united effort for the betterment of Medford in his residence of 20 years. He is a heavy taxpayer and owns his home.

For Mayor
E. C. GADDIS—Vote No. 36

First Ward Councilmen
J. H. BUTLER—Vote No. 44.

J. W. JACOBS—Vote No. 45

Second Ward Councilmen
O. O. ALENDERFER—Vote No. 48

E. H. JANNEY—Vote No. 50.

Third Ward Councilman
B. W. PAUL—Vote No. 56.

City Recorder
M. L. ALFORD—Vote No. 39.

City Treasurer
MARY HASWELL WEBBER—Vote No. 43

Mr. Gaddis as councilman has always made the interests of the city paramount, and I know he will do the same when elected mayor. PORTER J. NEFF.

Gaddis and a good business administration. That is my ticket. RAYMOND R. RETER.

THE CANDIDATES

For Councilman—Third Ward
B. W. Paul

Proprietor of Paul's Electric Store, is one of Medford's livewire business men, who has been a resident of Medford for eight years, is a taxpayer and home owner, and therefore in the financial interests of Medford much concerned.

For City Recorder
M. L. Alford

Has handled accounts all his life. Has been very successful and obliging in conducting the affairs of the office of City Recorder, which he now holds.

For City Treasurer
Mary Haswell Webber

The present incumbent, has been a bookkeeper and accountant for fifteen years. She is a home owner and taxpayer. Has lived in Medford 13 years. Her administration of the affairs of her office has gained her many warm friends and supporters for another term of office.

I can not understand why anyone who owns property should even think of voting for any one but E. C. Gaddis and the Business Men's ticket. A. H. MILLER.

With Gaddis as mayor we will have a good business administration. RAWLES MOORE.

Read What Business Men and Taxpayers Say

Why elect Lindas, the orator and writer, or Root, the promoter and maker of smooth promises, when you can elect Gaddis, the worker and business man who will give a good financial administration.

W. N. OFFUTT, JR.

Why swap horses when crossing a stream? By all means continue the good work of the present administration by electing Mr. Gaddis and the Business Men's ticket.

C. W. McDONALD.

To get 85 or 90 per cent of the street assessments straightened up and paying has been no small task. In justice to those who are paying or have paid the same policy should be continued until the remaining 10 or 15 per cent are straightened up.

H. L. WALTHER.

Let well enough alone. I am for Gaddis and the continuation of the Present administration's sound business policy.

A. B. CUNNINGHAM.

It takes concerted effort of us all to bring prosperity to the city. Because I believe Mr. Gaddis can more nearly unite all citizens in bringing this about I am for Mr. Gaddis.

JERRY JEROME.

Not many people realize the problem that confronted the city when the present administration took hold of city affairs. Many who have followed these matters closely have only unstinted praise for the good work done. It should be continued.

V. H. VAWTER.

Gaddis is a business man and administrator. We need such a man for mayor. COURT HALL.

While state and county taxes have mounted to almost disastrous figures, our city taxes have remained the same. I should consider it the height of folly to risk Medford's facing a tax problem such as now confronts our state and shall surely vote for Gaddis, who is entitled to his share of the credit for Medford's healthy condition of affairs. W. A. GATES.

You are selecting men to manage a six million dollar municipal corporation, therefore you want men of sound judgement and business ability. You are not interested in trying out any costly experiments in City affairs at this time.
