

Local and Personal

All business will close for the day at 11 a. m. tomorrow except with the restaurants and tobacco stands and confectionery stores. All the service stations will close for the day at 11 a. m. The postoffice will be closed all day and there will be only one city and rural delivery.

Mattress work all kinds. Medford Auto Top Co. Phone 104.

Special Armistice day dance Eagle Point, Nov. 11. Creighton orchestra, 199. Grogg review-dilatation. Night school Medford Business College. 105.

The Boy Scouts are to have a special meeting tonight in the basement of the Christian church at 6:30. All Scouts are urged to be present. The special business to consider is the securing of a hall that can be had and all boys interested should be present.

Auto insurance, Brown & White. Yakima Nettle Gem potatoes, No. 1 grade, delivered in town, $1.65 per 100 lbs. Hutchison & Lumsden. 201.

Dancing school, 216 E. Main. 200. The Elks club restaurant will be open as usual tomorrow noon and evening, and Steward Kado announces that there will be special feeds at both meals.

Take your kodak films to Palmer's studio. First class work and prompt service.

Wanted—Automobiles, household furniture, talking machines, pianos, records, real estate and personal or real property of all kinds, will buy, sell or trade for anything. Gold Trading Center, 15 N. Grape St. Phone 465-J, next to Farmers & Fruitgrowers Bank.

Don't forget to remove your hat when the flag passes by.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wallace returned from Portland Tuesday, after having spent a few days there. They attended the livestock exposition while in the city and report that the Jackson county agricultural exhibition is the finest of its kind at the fair, and say that it is almost impossible to get by the exhibit owing to the crowd that is continually pressing around to see what Jackson county raises.

The crowd was estimated at 25,000 people the day that the local people attended the exhibition.—Ashland Tidings.

Stamped infant dresses, special, 50c Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Handcraft Shop. 199.

Goodrich tires and tubes at Colonial Garage.

The American Legion invites the ex-service men and women of all the allied armies to participate in the Armistice Day parade. Appear in uniform if possible. E. E. Wilson, commander. 199.

Buster Coleman is again on duty at the Menz department store following a short illness.

Baby beef and pork at Public Market tomorrow. 199.

Yakima Nettle Gem potatoes, No. 1 grade, delivered in town, $1.65 per 100 lbs. Hutchison & Lumsden. 201. A real buy—$4.50 spotlights at the Electric Shop. 199.

IF STOMACH IS TROUBLING YOU

Instantly! End Indigestion or Stomach Misery with "Pape's Diapepsin"

As soon as you eat a tablet or two of "Pape's Diapepsin" your indigestion is gone! Heavy pain, heartburn, flatulency, gases, palpitation, or any misery from a sour, acid stomach ends. Correct your stomach and digestion for a few cents. Each package guaranteed by druggist.

Handcraft Shop. Hemstitching. Piecing. 8c per yard. Buttons covered.

The public market will not only be open tomorrow morning and forenoon as usual, but expects a larger patronage than usual. The beef and sausage are advertised in this paper to be on sale there.

Trade everything you don't want for everything you do want. Penniger Trading Center, next to Farmers & Fruitgrowers Bank, 15 N. Grape St. Phone 465-J. 199.

Fresh grape juice, while it lasts, 15c per gallon at Soda Works, phone 22-R. 199.

Dancing school, 216 E. Main. 200.

Mrs. R. V. Crum and son left Thursday evening for several months visit with friends and relatives at Cresco, Iowa.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber, Wallace Wood, phone 108. 711 East Main.

Outing flannel, a fine heavy grade, 15c per yard. Hutchison & Lumsden. 201.

Don't forget to remove your hat when the flag passes by.

This is the first trip C. W. Ashpole has made to Portland in the past six months. Mr. Ashpole is a stockman of Medford and he has been shipping to the California market instead of into Portland.—Portland Oregonian.

The thoughtful woman is already selecting her Christmas gifts. Nothing could be more acceptable than our Pacific package goods on sale at the Handcraft Shop. 199.

When in need of sash and doors, call Wallace Woods, 108 or come to 711 E. Main street.

All members of the official board of the Christian church are urged to be present at 8 p. m. Regular meeting and important business.

Some good music is announced for the services at the First Baptist church Sunday. The following selections will be given. At the morning service anthem, "Hark, Hark My Soul" by Buck. Violin solo, Melody, Gluck, by Mr. Carlton Janes. Evening service the choir will render the anthem, "The Shadows of the Evening Hours"; Barri-Shelley. Soprano solo with violin obligato, "Faith," by Mrs. Lorraine Harrison Scott, and a violin solo, "Long, Long Ago," by Carlton Janes.

Dreamer—Will go out by day or hour. Call at 227 South Central or phone 379-H. 199.

Fresh grape juice, while it lasts 15c per gallon at Soda Works, phone 22-R. 199.

Special for Armistice Day: extra choice young beef. Booth 11, Public Market, Elton Beeson. 199.

H. O. Frohbach, secretary of the chamber of commerce, is expected home tomorrow from Portland where he has been in attendance at the annual meeting of the state commercial club secretaries.

Everybody buys cheaper from owners than agents, all kinds of phonographs and pianos, both new and old. Gold Trading Center and Music House (owners), No. 15 N. Grape St., next to Farmers & Fruitgrowers Bank.

Outing flannel, a fine heavy grade, 15c per yard. Hutchison & Lumsden. 201.

Don't forget to remove your hat when the flag passes by.

Benl. M. Collins was among the business visitors here from Grants Pass yesterday.

Maddox & Bonney, florists, wish to announce to the public their new opening at the Shasta, 212 E. Main, on Friday, Nov. 10, 1922. Phone 842. 199.

Just received another full load of Rogue River sorghum fresh from the mill, 10c per lb. Hutchison & Lumsden. 201.

Oregon Journal service, phone 841. 210.

Messrs. Edwards and Stafford of the manufacturers department of the Associated Oil company, arrived in the city this morning from San Francisco and will give a lecture, illustrated with moving pictures and slides, to show the local employes of the company and others interested, the different oils and how best to use them, at the American Legion hall tonight.

Mason, Ehrman & Company will be closed from Friday night until Monday morning. 199.

Sash and doors. Medford Lumber Co.

Miss Leona Mars of Ashland, and May Lindley of this city, leave for Eugene tonight for the annual home coming.

Attractive patterns to stamped buff lot sets, 45 and 60 cents. Handcraft Shop. 199.

Dance at Eagle Point Sat. nite. 217.

Don't forget to remove your hat when the flag passes by.

Work on the paving of the south slope of Sexton mountain has been shut down during the present rain as the men find it impossible to lay the hot stuff while it is wet. There is but work for five days left and as soon as the sun stays out for that length of time, the road will be completed. The highway will be completed over the mountain and open to travel this winter.—Grants Pass Courier.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber, Wallace Woods, phone 108. 711 East Main street.

Get your winter supply of Spitzenberg apples now. Guthrie packing house near Jacksonville. 216.

There's no place like Holmes for complete insurance service.

George T. Collins left for Portland last night to spend the week end at the livestock show.

Very choice home grown chrysanthemums and other cut flowers, ferns, potted plants, etc. Maddox and Bonney. Phone 374. 200.

Provide against loss, insure with Redden and Canaday.

Very choice home grown chrysanthemums and other cut flowers, ferns, potted plants, etc. Maddox and Bonney. Phone 374. 200.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Budge, formerly of Medford, and son Billy left yesterday afternoon for San Francisco and their home in Honolulu. They have been visiting Mr. Budge's father William Budge for the past two or three days.

The Page and Rialto theatres run continuous performances tomorrow from 12:30 to 11 p. m. The managers of both theatres have extended the courtesy of their houses to all former service men in uniform till 6 p. m.

A special feature of the Sunday evening service at the Christian church will be a vocal solo entitled, "Thank God for a Friend," Mr. Millard's latest composition in song writing.

Don't forget to remove your hat when the flag passes by.

Dance at Eagle Point Sat. nite. 217.

There's a busy Business College in your home town, G.W.N.

A number of Medford high school boys were in Ashland on Wednesday placing window cards over the city announcing the big football game for Saturday at Medford.

This office is prepared to print ledger sheets, bills, etc., used on the bookkeeping machines. Don't give your orders to traveling men and have them printed out of Medford. Phone us and we will call. 199.

Maddox & Bonney, florists, wish to announce to the public their new opening at the Shasta, 212 E. Main, on Friday, Nov. 10, 1922. Phone 842. 199.

Families from the country are invited to eat a chicken dinner Saturday, Nov. 11th, at cottage opposite Baptist church and rest in the church parlors. 199.

George P. Becknell of St. Louis is a guest at the Hotel Medford as are F. C. Tatge and Fred W. Hall of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Winthrop and V. M. Hilary of Eugene, F. L. Patton of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Palmer and Ben Lachman of Seattle, John M. Scott of Portland and L. C. Falkenhagen of Grants Pass.

Just received another full load of Rogue River sorghum fresh from the mill, 10c per lb. Hutchison & Lumsden. 201.

For sale—Victrolas, Brunswicks and Pathe talking machines and records and pianos. Will buy, sell or exchange talking machines, records and pianos. Music Shop, Bill Peninger, Mgr., No. 15 N. Grape St. Phone 465-J.

All the stores of Medford will be open until 8:30 tonight and close at 11 o'clock Saturday, November 11th for the balance of the day. All people should do their shopping before 11 o'clock Saturday for over Sunday. 199.

O. O. Horner, formerly of Winnemucca, Nev., accompanied by his wife and two sons arrived the first of the week by auto and will make Medford their home. Mr. Horner has taken a position at the local telephone repair station.

Special prices on high school typewriter practice paper at this office. 199.

In spite of the Liberty Bldg. fire Dr. Lincoln Kallen will continue his work uninterrupted as he has a laboratory available at the Sacred Heart hospital. Patients can find him by telephoning 714 or 614-2.

Trade old automobiles for new. Penniger Trading Center, next to Farmers & Fruitgrowers Bank, 15 north Grape St. Phone 465-J. 199.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Salade have moved from their home at Seven Oaks and will spend the winter at the Hotel Medford.

You can get it at DeVoe's. 199.

Lime for spray, Medford Lbr. Co. 199.

Marinella Shop, Medford Hotel. 220.

American Legion men are urged to be at the hall this evening between 6:30 and 7. Transportation to the pavilion has been arranged for. Assistance in decorating the pavilion for the Armistice dance is needed.

Trade old records, phonographs and pianos for new. Gold Music Shop, next to Farmers & Fruitgrowers Bank, 15 N. Grape St. Phone 465-J. 199.

Dance at Eagle Point Sat. nite. 217.

Auto insurance. Brown & White.

E. C. Gaddis, future mayor of Medford, and Volney Dixon, his business partner, of that city, are registered at the Imperial hotel for a few days. They are heads of the firm of Gaddis & Dixon.—Portland Journal.

Attention! Spanish War Veterans will meet at office of the California-Oregon Power company to take part in Armistice day parade which will form at 12:30 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 11th.—Committee. 199.

One of the finest of musical treats is in store for those who attend the sacred concert at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shearer, organist and soprano are to appear in concert. Milk and cream at DeVoe's. 199.

Joe O'Brien's new barber shop at Medford Hotel. 199.

Armistice Day bargain. A chicken dinner for 50 cts. served by Baptist women at cottage opposite the church. Home cooking. 199.

Don't forget to remove your hat when the flag passes by.

Kenneth Williams of the St. Louis American league club will play ball with the Grants Pass team at Grants Pass Saturday morning at 10 o'clock against the Weed, Calif. team. It will be a rare treat to see how Williams looks while in action.

Have you tried that big milk shake at DeVoe's? 199.

Jackson Hot Spring pavilion will have a dance Friday, Nov. 10 instead of Sat. this week only. 199.

The ladies of the M. E. church, South will serve a fried chicken dinner in the church dining room corner Main and Oakdale, Friday evening, Nov. 10th. Will begin serving at 5:30. Adults plates 50c and children under 12, 25c. 199.

All members of the Grand Army Post, No. 47, Dept. of Oregon, are hereby notified to meet at the Northeast corner of the park on Armistice day at 10 a. m. W.M. BAYS, 199. S. R. Vice Commander.

A wet day is the prospect for tomorrow and a slippery, slow field where a hard tiring fight will be waged is the outlook for the football game between the local high school eleven and the eleven from Ashland high.

The ladies of the M. E. church, South will serve a fried chicken dinner in the church dining room corner Main and Oakdale, Friday evening, Nov. 10th. Will begin serving at 5:30. Adults plates 50c and children under 12, 25c. 199.

All stores will remain open Friday night, Nov. 10th on account of closing at 11 a. m. on Armistice day. 199.

Notice. All members of the Grand Army Post, No. 47, Dept. of Oregon, are hereby notified to meet at the Northeast corner of the park on Armistice day at 10 a. m. W.M. BAYS, 199. S. R. Vice Commander.

The round vacuum tin is your guarantee of a delicious full flavor

FOLGER'S TEA
Golden Gate

ARMISTICE DAY PARADE

Will Be Formed at 12:30 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 11

and will move east on Main street from Washington school to Riverside, by 5th and 3rd streets to Fir and by 6th street to Oakdale.

Organizations military in origin and their auxiliaries will form on West Main street. Social and fraternal orders form on South Oakdale.

Public service and relief societies and organizations form on North Oakdale.

Floats of business organizations form on Laurel street.

Decorated automobiles form on Mistletoe street.

Representatives of the American Legion will be present to form the parade.

The Parade Will Move at 1 p. m.

AMERICAN LEGION PATRIOTIC BALL

Fair Grounds Pavilion

SATURDAY NIGHT NOVEMBER 11

Launspach's Big 12-Piece Orchestra
Everybody Invited

Admission $1.50

Don't Miss It! Everybody's Going!

Peerless Bakery BUTTER-NUT BREAD

IS THE STANDARD OF BREAD QUALITY

The sanitary conditions under which Butter-Nut Bread is made, the modern methods and machinery employed the nutritious ingredients used and the generous weight it offers makes

BUTTER-NUT, THE STANDARD OF BREAD QUALITY

Next Time You Order, Ask Your Grocer for It

PEERLESS BAKERY

FIRE SALE Miss Towne

Has a few Good Hats left

Be sure you see these first before you buy elsewhere

Prices from $2.50 to $10.50

Hemstitching. Piecing. 8c per yard. Work finished when you want it.

THE VANITY SHOP
Cor. Main and Bartlett.

DON'T MISS This Big ARMISTICE DAY attraction Now Playing

Thomas' Skin Deep

Drama to grip your throats to get a gasp—mystery, romance, remarkable portrayals. Milton Sills and Florence Vidor head big cast.

CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE SATURDAY and SUNDAY 12:30 to 11:00 P. M.

Note: All former service men in uniform admitted Free Tomorrow till 6:00 P. M.

PAGE

SUNDAY—CONNIE TALMADGE in "A WOMAN'S PLACE"