Regarding Senator Newberry. To the Editor: Previous to the last election, many of the Oregon daily papers, including the Medford Sun, printed long articles in which excuses were made for the large amount of money spent in electing Mr. Newberry of Michigan to the United States senate. Many of the Michigan voters did not realize what was taking place when they voted for Mr. Newberry until it was too late. Michigan people do not play politics such as many of our senators and representatives do and at the moment they were given an opportunity to swat this thing and show their disapproval of such a dirty practice they did swat it with a bang. The Newberry case was a disgrace to the state of Michigan, but it was through no fault of the people of that great state. Senator Townsend, a great man in many respects, made one big mistake when he played politics along with a large number in the senate and voted that Mr. Newberry retain his seat. This was too much for the citizens of Michigan and the result was that in the last election Mr. Townsend was defeated by former Gov. Ferris, a democrat. Although Mr. Townsend is one of the scamp half dozen big leaders in the senate, a power for good, the Michigan people would rather lose all of his power for the state and place their trust in a man with less influence at present and stamp out the disgrace that the firebrand, Mr. Newberry, placed upon the state. Michigan has come through clean and it will not be long before Mr. Newberry is back to private life. E. R. VAN LEEUWEN, Medford, Nov. 16.

Toreador Trousers in Trouble at Seattle

SEATTLE, Nov. 16.—A Seattle store advertised toreador trousers in the University of Washington daily. Next day the editor co-operated in a pronouncement that the first student to wear them would achieve eternal fame and a broken neck. The various censors of campus customs stood by with their barrel staves. Two eventless days have elapsed. County Treasurer's First Call for Bonds of School District No. 6.
