BASIL ZAHAROFF MYSTERY MAN SWAYS EUROPE

Practically unknown in America, Sir Basil Zaharoff is credited with being one of the few men of great power in Europe.

Lord Beaverbrook has recently written an article indirectly tracing many of Britain's misfortunes and misunderstandings in the Near East

London press which opposes Lloyd George has attacked Sir Basil during the recent Near East crisis and has inferred most strongly that it was due to his influence that Lloyd George backed the unsuccessful and disastrous ventures of the Greeks in

Sir Basil Zaharoff is credited with having amassed a fortune of some, $100,000,000. He was born in Russia. of a Greek father and a French mother. He went to Paris to make his fortune and he made it. He was made a Knight Grand Cross of the Bath by Lloyd George-an unexampled distinction for one not a subjet of Great Britain.

Called "Monsieur Z"

Sir Basil, during the World War, was referred to as "Monsieur Z." It was known that "Monsieur Z." was a man of great power, but few knew his identity. His fortunes are said to have rolled up immensely dur-

Sir Basil is credited with being or having been, the largest share-holder in Vickers-Maxims, the greatest of the European munitions makers. He is at the head of a French group, which is associated with the Anglo-Persian Oil company. His holdings in banks and buddiness enterprises spread all over Europe. He is credit-ed with controlling newspapers and even dictating their policies. It is even charged that he is a stockholder one of the leading pro-George wspapers in Fleet street. Sir Basil is said to have supported the Greek Treasury during the Balkan wars to the extent of $200,000 a month. He has helped to finance the Venizelist cause and is said to have spent nearly $20,000,000 in financing the Greek invasion of Asia Minor. Gives Freely.

Philanthropy flows from the Zah-aroff purse. Numerous French and English universities have chairs en-dowed by this little known figure. He passes from capital to capital, giving passes from capital to capital, giving generous alms to the poor, and it is charged that he also provides the sinews of war for kings.

A bachelor, Sir Basil lives with a pinister sister. He has iuxuyiout homes in London and Paris and in other capitals. He is a man of great modesty, and his hobby is said to be cookery, and he spends long hours in 207. cookery, and he spends long hours in his wonderful kitchen cooking rare

When the late Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson denounced Lloyd George's pro-Greek policy he said, "Why did Lloyd George back them "Why did Lloyd George back them "Berne Berne B

Was it to please Zaharoff?"

No one knows what power this lit-tle-known man has, but there are many who believe that Zaharoff is the most powerful figure in all Eu-
