A check artist was again at work the latter part of last week with a skin game. He bought articles at different stores in the city and then cashed checks for about twice what the articles were worth. The checks were on the Farmers and Fruitgrowers bank and among the stores that were swindled were Weeks & Orr and Moroff & Woolf. The man, it is alleged, stated that he was working on a ranch and presented checks on the accounts of several ranchers forging their signatures.
