PERSONALS

B. W. Shores of the Central Point district was in Medford this morning transacting business.

$1.00 for an entire evening of dancing in the Oriental Ballroom, or 10 cents for single dances. Wednesday and Saturday nights. 219*

F. L. Schneider left Sunday for San Francisco where he will remain for a brief period on business.

A great reduction on trunks and suitcases at Evans, Central Point. 220*

Mrs. A. Cummings leaves tomorrow night for Los Angeles for a visit with friends and relatives.

The high school teachers and Parent Teachers association have joined talent in giving one of the most delightful programs of literary and musical entertainment ever presented on the auditorium stage. Come Friday evening, Dec. 8, 8 o'clock. You will be highly entertained and help out a good work in our public schools. Adults 50¢, students 25¢. 220*

The Medford high school faculty as well as the football team have been invited to attend the football celebration tonight as the honor guests of the Pavilion management. A special rehearsal of the Pavilion orchestra was held last night for the purpose of perfecting a number of the latest dance hits just received by Director Launspach.

The Oriental Ballroom is comfortably heated and in town. The present bleak weather makes it a desirable place to spend your evening in. Dance there tonight. Admission 10 cents. 219*

George Grigsby was arrested last night by Deputy State Motor Vehicle Inspector J. J. McMahon on a charge of driving a car without an operator's license and on a charge of driving for hire without a chauffeur's license. The charge developed as a result of the joyride in which Grigsby participated several days ago with Gus Johnson, traveling man, and two Medford girls. Grigsby was taken to Ashland this morning to have a hearing before Justice Gowdy.

There are great comforts to be had during the stormy weather with a Radio Set. Virgin Radio Station at Paul's Electric Store. 222*

M. E. Root of Denny and company, fruit distributors, left last night for Chicago on business.

Mrs. W. G. Tait and daughter left Monday night for Los Angeles where they will spend the winter.

Completed returns for the Red Cross ball, held Thanksgiving eve in the American Legion Oriental ballroom, show a gratifying profit for the Red Cross considering that they were required to spend practically nothing in giving the ball. The American Legion is pleased at having been able to give the Red Cross assistance.
