

Local and Personal

David Linn of Hagane was drowned in the Willamette river at that place yesterday the account being contained in a news dispatch published in yesterday's paper was well known to many people in Jackson county, having spent his early childhood in Jacksonville, where his father, David Linn, was a manufacturer of furniture and conducted a planing mill. W. M. Holmes, the well known real estate man of Medford, was well acquainted with the dead man and the entire family. David Linn was a brother of Fletcher Linn, well known Portland resident who was influential in the establishment of the Gold Hill cement plant. He leaves two sisters, also well known in this county. Miss Corinne Linn and Mrs. L. J. Gay, both of Seattle.

Specialty salesman with car for local territory. Give experience and full particulars in first letter. Box 2, Mail Tribune.

Beautiful light effects for dreamy moonlight waiters in the Oriental Ballroom Sat. nite. Admission 10 cents.

D. M. Lowe, of Medford, was a visitor at the Ashland Winter Fair today.

California-Oregon Power company. Pavilion dance, Fair Grounds, Sat.

James Hobbling, chief operator of the California-Oregon Power company's Gold Ray power plant, was a Medford business visitor yesterday.

Your photograph is the Xmas gift of sweet remembrance, rich in sentiment and pleasant memories. You will please all your friends at small expense if you take advantage of our Christmas offer. 204 East Main and Central, Mackey.

Visit the Red Cross Thrift Shop, Sparta Bldg., upstairs.

Dr. Charles S. Price will conduct a series of four sermons in Eugene next week. The meetings will be held in the First Methodist church, strictly as a business proposition, this building having been found necessary by his agents, when they found they could not obtain the armory, because of previous arrangements.

Dance Sat. nite in the Oriental Ballroom at the Nat. Admission 10 cents. Management American Legion.

The Medford Hi-Times, official publication of the local high school student body will be distributed at the high school this afternoon. The editorial staff has been at work for some time on this issue which is expected to be particularly interesting.

Pavilion dance, Fair Grounds, Sat.

Olympic feeds, Cen. Point Feed store.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walter, of Medford, were business visitors in the city Wednesday.—Ashland Tidings.

The Dixie Study club will meet Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the library.

Mrs. M. A. Cordner whose home is in Astoria is visiting here with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Whitman. Whit reports that his brother who is in the printing business in Astoria is most likely a victim of the fire as his printing establishment is situated in the afflicted district of the city.

There are great comforts to be had during the stormy weather with a Radio Set. Virgin Radio Station at Paul's Electric Store.

Play dresses for the children at the Red Cross Thrift Shop for the lowest prices. Sparta Bldg.

Prof. F. C. Reimer of the Talent Experiment Station was a Medford business visitor this forenoon.

Buy Bible Books for the children's Christmas—only $1.00 at the Palmer Piano House.

Dance, Hot Springs, Sat. night.

Mrs. William Pyburn of Central Point was in Medford this morning visiting friends and attending to business matters.

An Edison phonograph and records for sale at 321 East Jackson. Just as good as new.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, phone 108, 711 East Main street.

C. A. Fisher, a salesman for the Macen-Kruman Grocery company, of Medford, has rented the M. C. Reed property on scenic drive, and has moved into the same.—Ashland Tidings.

Will be at the public market Saturday with beef, pork and sausage. E. J. White.

Davenport, rocker and chair in blue and old rose tapestry, first-class work and material. $175. A fine Christmas present. J. Weiss Upholstery, Jacksonville, Ore. Phone 202.

Auto Insurance, Brown & White.

Harry Sobie of San Francisco is a guest at the Hotel Medford as are J. C. Currie and H. L. Moore of Salem, V. M. Hilary of Portland, W. L. Beyer and J. J. Stewart of Eugene, J. H. Allen of Seattle, H. V. Pargeter of Roseburg, R. L. Wolfender of Oakland and T. J. Allen of Corvallis.

If the children need warm coats, visit the Red Cross Thrift Shop. Many bargains to be had there. Sparta Bldg.

Auto Insurance, Brown & White.

Twenty-one boys from Medford, Ashland and other parts of the valley became members of the Order of De Molay last night at a crowded meeting with many visiting Masons from Grants Pass, Ashland and Medford present during the ceremonies.

Pavilion dance, Fair Grounds, Sat.

Milk and cream at DeVoe's.

The Columbia university team of Portland—coached by Clippert Smith wishes a game with Medford high school according to the Oregon Journal from which the following paragraph is taken: "I see by the papers," said Coach Smith, "that Medford high has a football team which claims the championship of Oregon. Let me say right here that the claim should not be permitted until after Columbia is met. As late as it is, my team is perfectly willing to meet the southern Oregon athletes any time or any place and I am confident that we would be able to hold our own. Columbia here-by accepts Medford's challenge and further instructions are awaited."

You can get it at DeVoe's.

Little Folks Dancing Class tomorrow afternoon 2-4 p. m., Legion hall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Taylor of Otis Orchards, Wash., arrived in Medford last night by auto for a brief visit with Mr. Taylor's brother, Glenn O. Taylor of this city. They will likely leave in two or three days for Lodi, Calif., to visit Mr. Taylor's parents.

A Japanese block print for an acceptable Christmas gift. Deuel's Art Dept.

System Service Co. writes fire and all other insurance. Strong companies. Office 2nd floor Medford Bldg.

J. P. Hill and A. L. Gage of the Hill Construction company are in Medford on business, having come down from Trail yesterday.

Park your car on Riverside near the Nat. Sat. nite and come up to the Oriental Ballroom. Admission 10 cents.

The Red Cross Thrift Shop is the place where your dollar buys the most goods.

The installation of the new auxiliary heating equipment has been completed at the Fair Grounds Pavilion and all is in readiness for the big dancing party tomorrow night. The Jackson County Amusement Co. is making every effort to insure the comfort of their many patrons during the winter months.

Pavilion dance, Fair Grounds, Sat.

There's a busy Business College in your home town. GWN.

Frank A. Clarvoe of Portland, representing the United Press was a business visitor in Medford yesterday and today.

Little Folks Dancing Class tomorrow afternoon 2-4 p. m., Legion hall.

Yakima Netted Gem potatoes, No. 1 grade, $1.50 per 100 lbs. delivered free. Hutchinson & Lumsden.

Ben Sheldon returned last night from Los Angeles where he had been for the past two months. He states that he had expected to spend the entire winter there but was unable to withstand the Rogue River valley urge and decided to return and spend a week at home.

Louie is sure cutting down the high cost of living. Selling fancy Yakima Gems 100 lbs. 90c delivered.

Joe O'Brien's new barber shop at Medford Hotel.

Due to the small attendance at the auto camp it is probable that the city authorities will close it within the next week or two and that it will remain closed for the next several months.

The Red Cross Thrift Shop has a beautiful old fashioned hand-made rag rug for sale. Just come in. Drop in and see it. Sparta Bldg.

Hot tamales and chili con carne at DeVoe's.

K. M. MacInnis, engineer for the Associated Oil company is in Medford from Portland and is checking up on the construction work at the company's new service station which is nearing completion. Painters began work on the new station today.

Goodrich tires and tubes at Colonial Garage.

Pavilion dancing party, Sat. Splendid music, an excellent floor and a truly congenial crowd combine to make your evening enjoyable.

Larry Ellers left the first of the week for Sacramento having received word of his father's recent death and having gone to attend the funeral.

Buy your winter potatoes now. Louie is selling fancy Yakima Gems 100 lbs. 90c delivered.

When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them.

Jesse Richardson pleaded guilty this morning before Justice Glenn O. Taylor to a charge of driving a truck at night without a tail light. He was fined $10. The arrest was made by Deputy State Motor Vehicle Inspector J. J. McMahon.

The Red Cross Thrift Shop has many bargains for those who are interested in getting the most for their money.

Good potatoes $1.00 per hundred delivered. Warner, Wortman & Gore.

L. E. Walker of Klamath Falls is in Medford having arrived yesterday on a brief business visit.

There's no place like Holmes for complete insurance service.

Handicraft Shop. Hemstitching. Piecing. 8c per yard. Buttons covered.

Hemstitching. Piecing. 8c per yard. Work finished when you want it.

THE VANITY SHOP

Cor. Main and Bartlett.

ECONOMY GROCETERIA

THE HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE

SATURDAY SPECIALS

Crystal White Soap, 12 bars	53c
Lenox Soap, 12 bars	39c
Star Naptha Washing Powder, 14 oz. size, 6 pkgs.	29c
Rolled Oats, 9 lb. sack	45c
Corn Puffs, 6 packages	29c
Tomatoes, standard pack, no. 2 1/2 cans, 2 for	25c
Catsup, full pint bottle	19c

COFFEE

G & L, special blend, guaranteed equal to any 45c coffee, 3 pounds	89c
Golden West, 1 lb. can	38c
Golden West, 3 lb. can	$1.08
Golden West, 5 lb. can	$1.78
Carnation Coffee, 1 lb. can	33c
Carnation Coffee, 3 lb. can	92c
Carnation Coffee, 5 lb. can	$1.49

PEANUTS

Fresh Roasted Peanuts, 1 lb.	14c
MACCAROONS
Almond or Cocoanut, regular Groceteria quality, 2 dozen for	25c

GATES & LYDIARD

Buy here and bank the difference

Millinery and Blouse Sale

$12.50 to $18.50 While they last

$7.50

150 Hats and 50 Blouses

formerly 12.50 to 22.50 all going for

$7.50

The Vanity Shop

MISS LOUNSBURY—MILLINER

Main at Bartlett

P. S.—As usual we have a very large assortment of

Christmas Novelties

The Colonial Specials for Saturday

1 lot of all wool dresses	$5.98
$3.25 Silk hose	$2.25
$6.50 Hand made blouses	$5.25
New Brush wool sweaters	$7.50

We have been told by some of the people who have seen "The Old Homestead" that it is better than "Way Down East." We are certain that it is as good in cast, thrills, heart interest and presentation.

NOW SHOWING

"The Old Homestead"

Theodore Roberts, George Fawcett, T. Roy Barnes, Harrison Ford, Fritz Ridgway

Your greatest expectations will be fully realized.

CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE. Tomorrow and Sunday 12:30 to 11:00 P. M.

Coming Sunday—"LOVES OF PHARAOH"

PAGE