

Local and Personal

For the Christmas tree of the Elks lodge tomorrow night the sponsoring committee will start at 8 o'clock and will last until midnight. The attendance of members of the lodge is expected to be on the record breaking order.

We are giving a discount of 10 per cent on all White Ivory toilet articles. Medford Pharmacy. 220*

A big dance, Eugene River, Oregon, Dec. 15, 1922. Everyone invited. Realism orchestra, 5 pieces. Tickets $1.50. Lunch extra. 225*

The union prayer service this week will be held in the chapel of the Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Services of testimonies and prayer. "The Hanging of the Green" party at the Y. W. C. A. Thursday, Dec. 14, at eight o'clock is for all business and professional women. Please bring a piece of Christmas green for decorating the house and a small present costing not over ten cents for the Christmas tree. 228

A few suggestions for Xmas gifts that will please mother, sister or sweetheart, a fancy soap, beauty box, of toilet water, powder and many other articles not mentioned. See our list before buying. Prices right. Medford Society Shop, 4th floor Medford Bldg. 227

"Bly" Huntington, the University of Oregon football coach, who arrived this morning to coach Duane's eleven of the local high school, was a guest at the chamber of commerce forum last night at the Hotel Medford this noon. Mrs. Huntington accompanied "Bly". 227

Mrs. Charles J. Nichols, who is graduate X-ray and laboratory technician of the Minneapolis City Hospital, has taken charge of this department for the Medford Hospital, 764 North Central Avenue. 226*

Your photograph is the Xmas gift of sweet remembrance, rich in sentiment and pleasant memories. You will please all your friends at small expense if you take advantage of our Christmas offer. 264 East Main and Central. 225*

Mackay

For the southern Oregon district, C. E. (Pop) Gates of Medford is declared to be in the running for the state highway commission. Although a republican Mr. Gates supported Mr. Pierce in the campaign, and was said to have been instrumental in persuading Mr. Wintour to donate $5000 to the cause—Portland Oregonian. Mayor Gates dismissed this statement with a smile of good natured derision today and added he had no intention to make. Party with some salesmanship to take over business covering southern Oregon from Portland south. Requires a personal or security bond, and small amount of cash. Clearing $250 a month. Address postoffice box 3774, Portland. 226

Olympic feeds, Cen. Point Feed store 221

Professor F. C. Bolmer, who heard Frank Branch Riley's travel-lecture at the Winter fair in Ashland, declared the entertainment to be very fine with the most magnificent pictures he has ever seen.

The Medford Pharmacy offer a 20 percent discount on all fancy or plain box stationery. 230*

Buy Bubble Books for the children's Christmas—only $1.99 at the Palmer Piano House. 226*

J. T. Taber and wife are leaving for as Mr. Taber, who represents the Western States Life Insurance company, has called him to represent the company in that field.

A wonderful line of boys' books, Treasure Island, King Arthur, Billy Whiskers, Robinson Crusoe, Seaton Thompson Animal stories, Hans Brinker, Illustrated by Maxfield Parrish, Wyeth, Rackham, Jenks Wilcox Smith. Medford Book Store. 225*

Hemstitching and piecing, silk or cotton, 8 cents per yard. Cor. Main and Bartlett. The Vanity Shop. 12*

Frank Branch Riley who addressed the Crater club meeting last night, the chamber of commerce forum this noon and will deliver his lecture at the Presbyterian church tonight, addressed the Klamath Falls chamber of commerce forum last Monday and delivered his famous lecture in that city that night.

John Stamey of the Applegate district was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

Infants' white flannel gowns with patent flap and drawing. Special 80c. Medford Center Dept. Store. 226*

Merchandise shooting match one mile north of Phoenix, Sunday, December 10th. 229

The regular meeting of the Ministerial association was held Monday night and routine business transacted.

Hear "Nick" Carter, the piano wizard, at the Oriental Ballroom tonight. 225*

An Edison phonograph and records for sale at 821 East Jackson. Just as good as new. 230

The Grants Pass Courier of Tuesday contained the following item of interest about a man well known in Medford and this county: "Will Trefetham was the unlucky sufferer in an accident which occurred at his home near Holland this morning. Mr. Trefetham was riding his horse after cattle, when the horse stumbled on some rough ground, and fell on its rider. Mr. Trefetham suffered a slight concussion of the brain, and for several hours was unconscious. Aside from the shock and several bruises, there were no permanent injuries."

Christmas tokens of affection are best arranged for now—free from the bustle and confusion of the holiday season. Arrange for an appointment at once. This will insure prompt delivery. 204 East Main and Central. Mackay. 230*

Davenport, rocker and chair in blue and old rose tapestry, first-class work and material. $175. A fine Christmas present. J. Weis Upholstery, Jacksonville, Ore. Phone 202. 226

Mrs. Thomas Nichols, Jr., of Eagle Point was a guest of the week shopping visitor in the city.

We give a framed picture of beautiful Center Lake with a five dollar cash premium. Medford Pharmacy. 220*

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Wood, phone 108. 710 East Main street.

George Oiler of Montague, Calif., is in the city for a few days attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

Frank Wehner and all other teachers in stock at 10 discount. Covered dancing teachers etc. Medford Book Store. 225*

Auto Insurance, Brown & White. Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Bessiah and family have arrived from Valley City, N. D. and will make Medford their home. Mr. Bessiah is an experienced lumberman, has been special deputy bank examiner for some time and is looking for a location here. Mrs. Bessiah is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Schuler.

"Nick" Carter is here! Dance to his entrancing music at the Oriental Ballroom tonight. 225*

Milk and cream at DeVoe's. Mrs. J. M. Wagner was quite badly burned Saturday morning when the top of a steam cooker which she was using blew off and allowed the steam to rush out in her face. She is feeling easy today and it is thought she will not suffer any serious injury from the accident.—Ashland Times.

Dance in the Oriental Ballroom tonight. Admission 10 cents. Single dances 10 cents. Entire evening $1.50. 225*

Pavilion dancing party! Wed. night! 225*

New laurels rest upon the brow of "Mistah" George Maddox, who had his picture taken Tuesday noon, to go with an article to be written by the Rev. J. Randolph Bassett, and submitted to the American magazine. The article will describe George, and his various civic activities, money saving peculiarities, etc. He was all dressed up for the occasion, and some of the photos will soon be on the way to Maryland to folks and friends.

The Oriental Ballroom is right in town. Comfortable and convenient. Dance there tonight. 225*

Prohibition Enforcement Officer R. H. Sandifer and family and Ted Hill have returned from a trip to Portland.

Miss Vera Reed and Oral Curtis Parker of Gold Hill, were married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reed on North Bartlett street, Tuesday evening, Dec. 12th. Rev. F. R. Leach, pastor of the Baptist church, performing the ring ceremony in the presence of about thirty guests.

Merchandise shooting match one mile north of Phoenix, Sunday, December 10th. 229

Framed motion 65c to $3.50 including Kipling's "If", Simple Creed, Guest Room, Masonic, Christian Science. Medford Book Store. 225*

Although there is a considerable amount of snow on the Green Springs mountain, the Klamath Falls stages operated by Howard and Grimes are still in operation and the drivers report very little trouble in making the trip. The trips are being made daily with only an hour or two variation from the summer schedule.

Polycrome wrought iron work, hand made, new, beautiful. Medford Book Store. 225*

Auto insurance, Brown & White. Joe O'Brien's new barber shop at Medford Hotel. 12*

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Bates expect to leave December 27th, on a month's visit in southern California.

1600 feet steam radiation in the Oriental Ballroom. Balmly as a night in June. Dance there tonight. 225*

I have a lease on a 10-room rooming house in Portland. Want to trade lease and furniture, also furniture for four rooms more, also bath house and all equipment. Bath house will net from $2500 to $4000 per season. Want rooming house in Medford. What have you? Address 29, Mail Tribune. 220

Charles Winslow of Port Klamath is visiting friends and attending to business in the city for a few days.

For Sale—New Columbia phonograph records at half price. Victor, Brunswick Columbia, Pathé & Sonora phonographs and records at reduced prices. Music Shop, 15 N. Grape street, next to Farmers & Fruitgrowers Bank. Phone 465-J. 12*

This office is prepared to print ledger sheets, bills, etc., used on the bookkeeping machines. Don't give your orders to traveling men and have them printed out of Medford. Phone us and we will call. 12*

MOTHER! MOVE

CHILD'S BOWELS WITH CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Hurry mother! Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Hemstitching, Piecing 8c per yard. Work finished when you want it.

THE VANITY SHOP

Cor. Main and Bartlett.

Rev. Melvin T. Ware, pastor of the Methodist church at Astoria, Oregon, whose sermon last Sunday created something of a sensation in the city, was formerly pastor of the Methodist church at Grants Pass, and is well known in this city. The pastor lately criticized the general committee named to bring Astoria through the reconstruction period after the fire, and alleged "it was a political plot to keep the old gang in power." The sermon was for most only, and a side issue of the national fight that ever a hot-blooded failed to extinguish.

Dance in the Oriental Ballroom tonight. Admission 10 cents. 225*

There will be a regular communication of Bessemer Chapter No. 64, Wednesday December 13, at 7:24 p. m. Reception of officers. 225*

Today is the 13th of the month when the superstitious residents are very careful about walking under ladders and doing other things which are said to destroy a hoodoo.

Dance with the crowd in the Oriental Ballroom tonight. 225*

New photos and photographs, H. G. Launspach, rest phone 448-R. Big stock at Weeks & Orr, W. Main. 12*

Down in Jackson county, especially around Ashland, K. V. Carter is known as "the grand old man of southern Oregon." He is not such an old man, either, when years are considered. Although not a member now of the legislature, he retains his interest in state politics and has come to Portland to get the latest dope. Mrs. Carter has come along to look at the Christmas goods now exposed in the Portland shops.—Portland Journal.

A lasting Christmas present for the family, a Toggenberg milk goat, that will give a clean, healthy supply of milk. Mature does coming fresh and doe kids from heavy milk stock. Come early and get your pick. R. H. Holm-peter, Jacksonville. 227

Meets of all dancers in the Oriental Ballroom. Admission 10 cents. Dance tonight. 225*

Please make your appointments ahead during holiday season. We thank you. Medford Beauty Shop, Phone 191-L. 229

Kelly and Ebb company who play here at the Page next Tuesday night open their Portland engagement to-night at the Being theater, which will come to an end with Saturday night's performance.

The Loves of Pharaoh would have loved the Oriental Ballroom. Dance there tonight after the movies. 225*

System Service Co. writes Fire and all other insurance. Surety companies. Office 2nd floor Medford Bldg. 12*

C. C. Case attended the banquet and meeting of the Hampshire swine breeders of Jackson and Josephine counties held last night at Grants Pass at the Oxford hotel of that city.

There's a busy business college in your home town. 50N.

Candles in all colors, 10c to $1.00 per pair. Medford Book Store. 225*

J. M. Shoenmaker of this city is leaving today for Billings, Montana.

Shappy to trot, dreamy waiters in the Oriental Ballroom tonight. 225*

You can get it at DeVoe's. 12*

D. T. Gerdes, the motor public and cashier of the Optima restaurant, who has been indisposed for some time past, was able to leave the hospital last Saturday and is now convalescing at the home of his son, Frank Gerdes.

Pavilion dancing party! Wed. night! 225*

Hot tamales and chili con carne at DeVoe's. 12*

The public market of this morning presented a good variety of offerings including fresh pork and beef, but it was an off day for some reason and the patronage was small.

All Xmas cards at a 10 per cent discount. Medford Book Store. 225*

Goodrich tires and tubes at Colonial Garage. 12*

Miss Dorothy Myers, Medford student at the University of Oregon has been made a member of the Freshman honor society for women, the Theopians. Miss Myers is the second Medford student at the university to be accorded a high honor lately, Wilbur Godlove having been appointed to the Greater Oregon committee last week.

Say it with Christmas Seals. Hemstitching and piecing at Deuel's. 249*

J. W. Baider left last night for New Carlisle, Ohio, his old home town, for a several weeks visit. Mr. Baider has not been back in 18 years.

Dance in the Oriental Ballroom tonight. Admission 10 cents. 225*

When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them. 12*

The ladies and friends of the Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church are invited to meet Miss Jones, a returned missionary of the Methodist church from China on Thursday afternoon at the First M. E. church on North Bartlett street.

There's no place like Holmes for complete insurance service.

Every jewel needs its setting. Ladies like the Oriental Ballroom. 225*

James "Dad" Dunning who manages the theater interests of the George Hunt company at Grants Pass, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Special prices on high school type-writing practice paper at this office. If wrapping paper, cut to fit any size paper folder, from white print paper, at this office at prices much below the regular wrapping paper price. Call at once or phone 75. 12*

William G. Steel, U. S. commissioner of State Falls, C. E. Leary of Reno, Nev., W. J. Woodhall of Los Angeles, T. M. Sherman of Tacoma, G. E. Winterbotham, Tim Turk and E. J. Crocker of Portland.

Dance tonight in the Oriental Ballroom. Admission 10 cents. 225*

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Wood, phone 108. 711 East Main.

Eddie Durso, Medford high school athletic coach, who was operated upon Monday at the Community hospital for acute appendicitis is improving steadily and it is hoped by his many friends that he will be out and around again in ten days or two weeks.

Pianos and phonographs for sale of rest. H. G. Launspach, phone 448-R. Office Weeks & Orr. 12*

Mattress work all kinds. Medford Auto Top Co. Phone 204. 12*

Freight cars from the Skagopus arriving in Medford daily have chaffins of snow, all the way from three to five inches thick on the roads which lasts for quite a while even after the cars have arrived.

Big celebration in the Oriental Ballroom New Year's night. 225*

Hear Carl Loveland sing "Baby Blue Eyes," that new hot-foot sensational Pavilion party! Wed. 225*

Frank Branch Riley who was a participant in the proceedings at the Crater club meeting last night was a member of the group assembled around the forum table at the chamber of commerce luncheon at the Hotel Medford this noon and was the principal speaker of the meeting. He will lecture tonight at the Presbyterian church on "The Lure of the Great Northwest."

Armstrong focus puts the miles in mileage. Phone 277-J. Star Motor & Supply Co. 12*

Take your kodak films to Palmer's studio. First class work and prompt service. 12*

Dr. C. T. Sweeney, who received a telegram last Friday night that his mother at Kansas City, Mo., was seriously ill, left at once to be at her bedside. Her death occurred last Monday night. Dr. Sweeney is expected back from Kansas City the middle of next week.

Dance tonight in the Oriental Ballroom. Admission 10 cents. 225*

Provide against loss, insure with Redden and Canada. 12*

Herb Launspach and his musicians journeyed to Ashland last night to provide the music for the Elks dance held there.

Pavilion dancing party! Wed. night! 225*

Goodrich tires and tubes at Colonial Garage. 12*

R. L. Daniels of Phoenix is a business visitor in the city today.

For Sale—Good sound Spitzenberg apples, $1.00 per box, bring your boxes. Also extra fancy Newtowns, packed, $1.75. E. P. Guthrie, 232 Jacksonville. 249

Good potatoes $1.00 per hundred delivered. Warner, Wortman & Gore. 224*

Frank Branch RILEY.

Lecture
"The Lure of the Great Northwest"

Auspices Crater Club
Presbyterian Church
TONIGHT
Admission $1.10

Handicraft Shop.
Hemstitching
Piecing
8c per yard.
Buttons covered.

NEW SHOW TODAY

"BURNING SANDS"

A Man's Flaming
Answer to
"The Sheik"

A GEORGE MELFORD PRODUCTION

WITH
WANDA HAWLEY
MILTON SILLS
ROBERT CAIN
JACQUELINE LOGAN

*a Paramount
Picture*
PRESENTED BY JESSE L. LASKY

Now Playing

A love drama replete with thrills, romance, pathos, blood-quickenning adventures and mad-rushing climaxes.

PRODUCED BY THE MAN WHO CREATED "THE SHEIK"

Prices:

Adults ..... 50c

Children ..... 25c

PAGE

Sunday
Buster Keaton
and
Katherine McDonald