GREAT THRONGS PAY TRIBUTE TO J. WANAMAKER

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—Thousands of persons representing virtually every walk in life, did homage today at the bier of John Wanamaker, whose body lay in state from nine o'clock until noon in Bethany Presbyterian church where the famous merchant had worshipped since boyhood and where he was a familiar figure in the Sunday school and other religious work.

A long line of persons formed on the streets adjacent to the church awaiting turns to pay their last respects. Never before was there such a throng in the modest neighborhood in South Philadelphia where the church is situated.

Many celebrated persons, including high representatives of the official life of the nation were here to officiate as honorary pall bearers or to attend the funeral services this afternoon. The services at both the church and at the Wanamaker mausoleum in the cemetery of St. James the Less were private. Invitations were issued commensurate with the seating capacity of the church which is estimated at slightly in excess of 2000.

Simplicity marked the last rites for the merchant prince. Three hymns that were his life long favorites were his musical requiem. They are "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "Nearer, My God to Thee."

The first named was sung by the girls' quartet of Bethany, the others by the Bethany choir.

The services were conducted by the Rev. A. Gordon MacLennan, assisted by the Rev. E. Ritchie.

NEW WATER LINE IN WAREHOUSE SECTION

Under the direction of Chas. Davis, superintendent of the city water works and streets, workmen have been engaged several days past in laying the new pipe line through the warehouse district, which when completed in several days more, and connected up with the water system, will give that district greater fire protection and generally reduce the fire hazard of the city. This boon has long been talked of by the city administration.

The new pipe line is 1000 feet long, of six inch cast iron pipe, and its cost when installed will have amounted to about $1600. It extends from Twelfth street south as far as the Knight packing plant, and will give the big warehouse district of that section ample fire protection as far as water supply goes.

At present, as in the past, when a fire occurs in this district south of the Mason-Ehrman wholesale grocery building the nearest water with which to fight the flames has to be taken from the hydrants on South Central avenue.

NEW CARDINALS DULY INVESTED BY POPE PIUS

ROME, Dec. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Public investiture by Pope Pius of the eight new cardinals took place in St. Peter's today, when, at the first public consistory of Pius' pontificate, the recently created princes of the church received from the pontiff the red hat and the rochet, insignia of their election.

Cardinal Locatelli and Cardinal Casanova were absent, the former being in Lisbon and the latter in Toledo. They will be invested by the heads of their respective states.

Today's consistory was the first held for many years in the Hall of Beatification, which has been closed during the restoration of the ceiling.

In the throng which hastened to St. Peter's were men in formal attire, women in black dresses and lace mantillas, papal diplomats, members of the Roman aristocracy and the more plainly dressed monks and nuns.

When the pontiff entered, borne from his private apartments in the Vatican in the Sedia Gestatoria (Chair of Command) he was received by the strains of "To Es Petrus."

Pius was accompanied by his entire court.

Behind the papal chair came all the great functionaries of the vatican, as well as the cardinals and prelates resident or visiting in Rome, attired in their gorgeous robes. New members of the sacred college were led by Cardinal Vannutelli, strong and erect, notwithstanding his 86 years. In the procession were the hereditary officers of the papal court, Prince Colonna and Prince Orsini, assistants to the pontifical throne, who preceded and followed the pope into the hall.

As the pope took his seat beneath a canopy of violet silk and gold behind which were priceless tapestries, the cardinals opened the consistory by kissing his hand. The ten cardinals, each escorted by two cardinal deacons, were then led into the papal presence. Bowing they knelt on the lowest step of the throne and kissed the pontiff's foot, hand and cheek, retiring to a bench at the left of the dias.

Elaborate preparations have been made for this occasion tonight and all day long, motor trucks and other cars have been hauling to the Elks' temple turkeys, chickens, carcasses of beefs, calves and pigs, sacks of flour, typewriters, boxes of apples, produce of various kinds, groceries.

Members of the lodge from all over the county, and visiting Elks. The doings will begin at 8 o'clock and will last until midnight.
