

Local and Personal

The public schools will close tomorrow afternoon for the holidays vacation and will not reconvene until Wednesday, January 3d. In a number of the rooms at the various school buildings Christmas programs will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Blaine Klum, former well known resident of this city arrived yesterday morning from a business visit in Portland and Seattle, to spend the day here visiting friends and in visiting his mother in Ashland prior to proceeding to his home at Oakland, Calif.

Gordon McKay who will meet Bunting Ortega at the Nat in a ten round bout tomorrow night, arrived this morning from Portland where he had been for the past week.

C. C. Cate left last night for Eugene on a business mission from which he probably will not arrive home until tomorrow night or Saturday.

A Christmas ball will be given at the pavilion on Saturday evening of this week, this date having been selected instead of Monday to avoid conflict with the Mitzel production at the Page theatre and the American Legion Christmas dance at the Nat.
