PERSONALS

Good news for the children who attend the Christmas dinner as guests of the Economy Groceries on Sunday afternoon is that Santa Claus, impersonated by the mayor of the city will be present to give additional cheer to this great occasion. The assemblage of children during the short program following the feast will sing under the direction of Miss Sherwood, musical supervisor of the public schools, and will march from the Hotel Holland cafe afterwards to the public library park to take part in the Community Christmas tree there. Pop Gates is very busy these days rehearsing for the Santa Claus stunt and grooming the three Shetland ponies, which he will give away as prizes on New Year's day.

One of the cleverest and most able saxophone players in the west, Del Luper, familiarly known to many local college folk as Dizzy Luper, is visiting his parents in Grants Pass for the holidays and arrangements have been completed for him to play with Nick Carter's orchestra Saturday and Monday nights in the Oriental Ballroom. Mr. Luper is the proud owner of a marvelous gold saxophone valued at $450, which was presented to him by the Buescher Saxophone Co., after being shown at the San Francisco fair in recognition of his unusual ability as a performer on that instrument. Mr. Luper has recently returned from an engagement over the Orpheum circuit and everyone in Medford who admires the modern and popular saxophone will be glad of the opportunity of hearing it played to perfection by him Saturday night.
