

BRINGING UP FATHER

COLLECTION 1922
INCOME TAX IN OREGON STARTED

PORTLAND, Jan. 2.—Clyde G. Huntley, collector of internal revenue, today began mailing to Oregon taxpayers forms for filing individual returns of net income of $500 or less for the year 1922. The form is in six pages, two of which provide for the return, two for making a duplicate and two pages devoted to instructions. Duplicate and instruction pages should be detached and retained by the taxpayer and the original return mailed to the collector. The forms are being mailed to all taxpayers who made similar returns for 1921. Forms for filing returns on incomes in excess of $5000 will be mailed soon.

Married persons whose net income is $5000 or less are allowed an exemption of $2500 and for married persons whose net income is in excess of $5000 an exemption of $2000 is allowed.

Single Man Unlucky
The exemption for single persons is $1000. Whether married or single the taxpayer is allowed an exemption of $400 for each dependent upon him for chief support, if such dependent is under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support.

The requirement to file a return is placed upon every married person whose net income for 1922 was $2000 or more, or whose gross income was $5000 or more, and upon every single person whose net income was $1000 or more or whose gross income was $5000 or more. The fact that by reason of exemptions and credits a person's income is not taxable does not nullify the obligation to file a return if the income equals or exceeds the amounts specified.

DECEMBER RAINFALL
MEDFORD, 5.35 IN.

Medford and vicinity is certainly getting fed up on continuous rain lately and the present spell of wetness apparently is not over as rain is the prediction for tonight and Wednesday.

Rain fell in torrents last Saturday night and by 8 a. m. Sunday the previous 24 hours' quantity measured 3.4 of an inch, most of which fell during the night, flooding the sidewalks and streets and forming lakes at some street intersections and all low lying points.

Since Sept. 1st last, up to this morning the rainfall in Medford and vicinity has amounted to 8.65 inches. In December alone there was 5.35 inches of rain here, the greatest quantity which had fallen in Medford in that month since 1907, when it totaled 5.58 inches.

Within the past week the fall of rain has amounted to 2.61 inches. Prior to that period the rainfall had been pretty well centered.

ELKS OPEN HOUSE
A RECORD BREAKER

The open house and dinner of the Elks lodge, held at the Elks temple yesterday, was one of the most pleasant and largest attended in the history of the lodge. Over 500 Elks and their ladies attended. The afternoon was spent in enjoying a vaudeville program, dancing in the club rooms and other social diversions.

The big new year's dinner was served in the basement from 5 to 8 p. m., which was prettily decorated for the occasion. Three hundred persons were seated at the first tables, after which the tables were again prepared and the many others served. Dancing began in the lodge room at 8:30 which continued for hours and it was not until 2 a. m. that the dancing was discontinued.

in Los Angeles and six weeks in Portland.

With its philosophy, romance, exciting clashes, satire on human weakness, pathos and optimism, "Grandma's Boy" is unlike anything Lloyd has ever done and displays the star as an actor of broader scope than his most ardent admirers have known.

In "Grandma's Boy," the story construction is so clever that the character development is as legitimate as in any serious play. At first one is almost led to expect merely a bucolic drama. Then the fun begins with its satire on the foolish fears that are a part of most human lives, and it is riotous.

Lloyd's scenes with grandma, played by Mrs. Anna Townsend, an adorable woman of 79, are among the most charming ever screened. Mildred Davis never before played with so much charm. Dick Sutherland's portrayal of the tramp is unequalled, and Charles Stevenson is excellent as the Bully.

A two-act Western comedy, "The Drifter," is a lively offering on this bill, the locale being in the Rock Springs mountains.

Other topics of interest include a Crazy Cat cartoon, and Betty playing the Wurlitzer each afternoon and evening.
