FLORENCE POOL TAKES POSITION LOCAL HOSPITAL

Miss Florence Pool, who recently esigned as home demonstration gent for Jackson county has been ngaged as dietition and business anager of the Community Hospital Medford.

Miss Pool during her coleige days, nd since has given special attention o foods and food values for both the ck and the well and her enthusiasm nd inspiration on the subject has een of untold value to hundreds of ildren over the county in securing, rough the co-operation of parents nd teachers, proper foods at the roper time. Miss Pool carries to her ew work this same enthusiasm for he furnishing of suitable and at- ractive diets for those under hos- ital care. Her interest in the sub- ct has led her to find, during her vening hours, to give a course of ctures on the subject to the nurses f the Sacred Heart Hospital.

Her hosts of friends can wish her othing better than the same degree f success in her new work which has een hers during her three years as ome demonstration agent.

Miss Pool found it necessary to re- gn her former position because her ealth would not permit of her con- nuing the long drives and the ir- gular hours.

"Grandma's Bay" Closes Tonight

Harold Lloyd, if the prolonged laughter and applause which is greeting his "Grandma's Boy," at every performance at the Page, is any criterion, has chased the gloom from hundreds of Medford people, closes tonight.

In "Grandma's Bay" the story construction is so clever that the character development is as legitimate as in any serious play. For a time one is almost led to see merely a bucolic drama. Then the fun begins with its satire on the foolish fears that are a part of most human lives, and it is riotous.

"When Knighthood Was in Flower"

Days of romance and chivalry will live again when the elaborate Cormopolitan production, "When Knighthood Was in Flower," starring Marion Davies, opens at the Page tomorrow.

Taken from one of the sweetest love stories ever told it reflects not only the greatness of a woman's love, but all the pomp and ceremony, the plotting and intrigue, the gorgeous splendor of the courts of King Henry VIII of England and King Louis XII of France. It cost a million and a half dollars to make the picture.

"On High Seas," Rialto

Dorothy Dalton and Jack Holt are stars of "On the High Seas," a picture which opens today at the Rialto theater.

Leone Devereaux, a rich San Francisco woman, is saved from a burning ship by a pair of stokers. They find a derelict and makes themselves as comfortable as possible. Then one of the men casts covetous eyes on the girl, is discovered in her room by his mate and thrown out.

The ship is about to sink, but the man and woman are rescued. When they reach California the girl goes to her people and seemingly forgets her savior.

Her fiancee insists on setting forward their marriage. When they are on their way to the church, the bride's car is stopped and she is forcibly taken from it, rushed into another automobile and hurried to a mansion where a clergyman is waiting to marry them. Then Leone realizes the man who saved her whom she loves is of her own class.

Winter Hall, Mitchell Lewis, Michael Dark and others are in the supporting cast.

Home Makers Week.

Home Makers Week, January 9th to 13th, inclusive, is for all the women of Jackson county. The programs presented at that time should be of as much interest to the city women as to the women in the rural districts, for they represent universal problems.

A special invitation is extended to the women of Medford and the neighboring cities to give their support to this worthy enterprise by attending as many of these programs as possible. There will be something of interest and profit for everyone.
