

PROF VINING WILL TALK FOR BENEFIT SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Greater Medford club are giving a splendid program of music and Prof. Irving Vining of Ashland will deliver one of his popular lectures, "Types and Tendency of People" Monday evening, January 15 in the Presbyterian church. The members of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs observe one day during January as Scholarship Loan Fund Day. The following letter has been sent to all federated clubs:

"To the members of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, Greetings: "May I remind you that the last Wednesday in January is Scholarship Loan Fund Day, and that we are asking the various clubs to give early and generously to this most worthy activity which we are pledged to support? The women of Oregon should be proud of the fact that to date they have assisted 212 young women to secure an education that will enable them to become more nearly the type of American young womanhood that our modern civilization demands.

"This year because of the depleted condition of our treasury, we have had to refuse aid to several worthy girls and to keep a number of others waiting a whole semester before a loan could be made.

"To date we have placed 26 new loans this year which means a financial responsibility of $2900. There was $148.71 in the treasury when we assumed the chairmanship in September and we are counting on the proceeds of Red Letter Day to supply the large deficit. The women of Oregon will not fail us, we are confident, when they realize that this is their opportunity to help in the best and most constructive way, by helping these young women to help themselves. May we urge you to send in your contributions promptly, and if possible to increase the amount over that of last year.

JESSIE McGREGORY, "Chairman."

SCOTLAND NECK, N. C.—Congressman Claude Kitchin, who has been suffering with an attack of pneumonia since Saturday is reported out of danger.

During the past year the bank installed a Cannon Hall alarm system protecting them night and day against burglary and adding one more proof of their up-to-date methods.

The bank is in a position at all times to meet any demands that are made upon them.

Mystery Story Opens Rialto.

"The Face in the Fog," a mystery story which really mystifies, is the attraction no wait the Rialto, where patrons are declaring it to be one of the big features of the season. Fancy a crook fighting for a princess, is the theme of this absorbing plot, in which Lionel Barrymore appears as the evening dress suit crook, and Seena Owen makes a hit as a dazzling Russian noblewoman. Lowell Sherman takes the part of a count, and Mary McLaren is seen as the crook's wife.

The story is an adaptation of the "Boston Blackie" stories, known to a good many readers of detective fiction.

Jack Barrymore and Conan Doyle's "Sherlock Holmes" are a combination that is bound to attract the crowds who love motion picture thrills. The makers of this picture, which is at the Page Theater again tomorrow, took William Gillette's dramatization of the "Alice Faulkner" episode in which, perhaps, Holmes comes nearer to being human than in most of the Conan Doyle stories, and have made a fast moving picture of it.

Barrymore is in his element as Sherlock, playing with great finesse high intellect and immense nerve in every movement. Carol Dempster plays Alice and Hedda Hopper and Anders Randolph are the Larrabees, her keepers.

Gustav von Seyffertitz has the role of Moriarty.

Among the others, who appear in the picture, are Reginald Denny, Roland Young, Percy Knight, Lumsden Hare, Louis Dohlheim, William H. Powell, Robert Fischer, Jerry Devine, David Torrence.
