

MEDFORD CANNERY PREPARES FOR BIG PACK THIS YEAR

The Rogue River Valley Cannery anticipating the increased products from the three or four new irrigation projects in the valley and the belief that those taking advantage of the water would raise more vegetables and small fruits, have greatly increased their facilities and are now prepared to handle double the products sold them last year. They are particularly wanting beets, asparagus, spinach, rhubarb, beans, both green and navy, tomatoes and all kinds of berries and fruits of all kinds and are anxious to contract with growers for the same at this time.

In irrigated districts these products are raised on a big scale and prove very beneficial. It will pay the farmers to investigate the same and the Rogue River Cannery will be glad to have you call and talk it over.

Mr. Bullis says another advantage of raising more vegetables and berries is that they come on in the spring and early summer when labor is more plentiful and they can handle so much more.

In the fall fruit season its often impossible to secure enough labor to take care of the crop.

Mr. Bullis says the cannery here has the facilities for handling these products for the entire valley including the Ashland and Grants Pass districts and he would like to contract with growers from these districts also.

MEDFORD HIGH EASILY DEFEATS WEED TOSSERS

Medford high school defeated Weed high school last night in a basketball game at the Nat. by a score of 37-19. From the first the local hoopers had the lead and the game was uninteresting because of the wide margin of safety gained by the locals early in the game.

The game was a little rough in spots and no exceptional skill was displayed on either side. Medford merely having Weed outclassed without the exertion of any great effort.

The girls' game in which Medford was defeated by a score of 33-23 was one of the most interesting girls' games seen here in some time and was close until the last few minutes of play. The first half ended 12-15 in favor of Weed.

Scene From "Pinafore" With Ed Andrews as the Chief Comedian

Ed Andrews, Medford's distinguished comedian with the American Light Opera company, which will appear at the Page Theatre three days beginning January 22, presenting four famous light operas, The Mikado, The Chimes of Normandy, Pinafore and The Mascot. In each of these operas, Mr. Andrews has brilliant roles in which his friends will be delighted to see him. The scene above is the celebrated "Bell Trio" from Pinafore, where Mr. Andrews appears with Theo Pennington, the beautiful prima donna soprano, who played Maid Marian in Robin Hood last season when the same company was here, and Carl Bundschu, the distinguished "Little John" of DeKoven's masterpiece.

COW TESTING IN MEDFORD STARTS MONDAY MORNING

Federal testing for Tuberculosis has shown an agreeably low percentage of infected animals in the county so far. The testing started in the south end of the county and has been working north. At present it is practically parallel to Medford.

Testing of the cows in Medford will be done next Monday. The work in and around Jacksonville will be done Tuesday. All of the cows in the city limits of Jacksonville should be brought to the Union Feed and Livery Stable at nine o'clock.

To facilitate matters in Medford seven places have been assigned for the cattle to be gathered. There are a great many cows to be tested so the time at each place will be short so the need of being prompt is obvious. Note carefully the following places and the time for gathering at each place, using which ever one is most accessible to you.

The Osenbrugg place on South Riverside at 12th from eight to nine o'clock.

The lot back of T. L. Applegate's near Judge Crews on S. Oakdale, nine to ten o'clock.

The Weaver tract between W. 10th and 11th and Plum and Union. Time 10 to 11 o'clock.

The lot back of Grace May Hull's, 814 W. 2nd. Time 11 to 12 o'clock.

Gitzen's Feed yard on Grape street, 1 to 2 o'clock.

Sixth is the F. J. Newman lot on Beatty and Alice streets next to the Adventist school. Time 2 to 3 o'clock.

The cattle owners of the East Side will gather at the open lot on Vancouver avenue and East Main at 3 o'clock.

Tell your neighbor so that all may know and remember the testing.

COMPLETION CRATER L. HIGHWAY DOUBTFUL

County Judge Gardner arrived home this morning from Salem where he attended a meeting of the state highway commission with the forestry department and post road officials to consider future appropriations on various road projects. The meeting adjourned yesterday until next Wednesday without taking action.

Judge Gardner was present in the interest of having an appropriation made for the completion of the nine mile section on the Crater Lake road between McCloud and Prospect with forestry and post road aid. He says the outlook is doubtful, but he is hopeful for the best. This is the last section in Jackson county of the state highway yet to be completed. The judge may return to attend Wednesday's meeting.

OBITUARY

WALTERS—Died at his home southwest of Medford just off Kings Highway, Friday afternoon at 4:30, Geo. W. Walters, aged 84 years, 2 months and 22 days. He was the last of a family of seven children. Born in Rendel, Germany, he came with his parents to this country when eighteen years of age, followed railroading for many years on the C. B. & Q. railroad out of Aurora, Ill., where his family was reared, and hence going to Arlington, S. Dakota, in 1884, where he was a very successful farmer for many years. In 1911 he visited his old-time friend and family physician, Dr. Everhart, at Medford, Oregon, while on a trip to California, and became enamored of the beautiful and climate of southern Oregon since which time he has made his home here. He was married to Eveline M. Smith at Bloomington, Ill., in 1862, the wife surviving him after this long wedded life of more than three score of years. Of the children born from this union, there remain six: Mrs. Lella M. Young of Elgin, Ill., who has been here for the past five weeks; C. Frank, who makes his home with his parents; Mrs. Carrie A. Miller of San Jose, Calif.; Walter S., a trusted employee of the S-P. road at Ashland, Ore.; George N. of Portland, Ore.; and Miss Eveline S. Kochler of Fort James, California.

Mrs. Walter is aunt to Dr. Jud Rickett of this city, being sister to his mother.

The funeral will be at Stock's undertaking chapel No. 83 N. Main street, Ashland, Oregon, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Ashland cemetery.

Floral offerings from this vicinity may be left at Dr. Rickett's office over the Duell store, up to noon Sunday.

Norma Talmadge as 'The Eternal Flame'

Showing for the last time at Page tonight.

Pretty Star, Page Sunday

"The Young Diana," a gorgeously-filmed drama is the Page's attraction tomorrow. The picture is full of splendid scenic backgrounds, some of them the most beautiful ever made, including a dazzling Swiss ice palace, a huge laboratory and a gorgeously appointed wedding ceremony.

Marion Davies will be seen in the role of Diana May, and Forrest Stanley as Richard Cleave, a titled naval officer. Maelyn Arackie, the heroine's father.

Buster Keaton's latest comedy "My Wife's Relations" is on the bill. Buster marries into a nice family—every one had police records and they thought Buster was a cop which made things nice at first.

Rialto Makes Big Scoop

By giving premier showing of the big emotional fire picture "The Third Alarm."

This picture was brought to Medford for viewing purposes and the local theatre management were so enthusiastic over it that they immediately made arrangements to show it for three days starting Sunday, taking off their advertised attraction.

MEDFORD BANKS WANT PENNIES

Due to the fact that there is an acute shortage in pennies in Medford at present and that the little coins have not been plentiful here for some time past, the banks of the city would be pleased to have all the one cent pieces hoarded in home banks and stockings turned in to them and exchanged for coins of larger denomination.

A merchant in need of pennies for change yesterday visited his bank to get five dollars worth, but pennies were so scarce that all this banker and the other three banks, whose aid had been sought, could spare was $20 worth, altogether. Due to the dearth in pennies and their constant disappearance from circulation locally the banks have been shipping in pennies right along, but these shipments are hardly more than able to meet the constant demand.

The popularity of these small coins is due to the penny bargains at the groceries and other places of business that inaugurate old prices. This requires all merchants to keep on hand many pennies for change. A large amount of the pennies are hoarded in homes until they grow into larger sums, and thus are temporarily withdrawn from circulation, and many are lost.

Yesterday was the second time within ninety days past that there had been an acute shortage of pennies in Medford.

Members of the Ashland high school basketball quintet will make one trip during the season, but this one will occupy nearly a week when a series of four games will be played with Willamette valley teams. Games slated for the season are: January 29, Weed, boys and girls, here; January 27, Salem here; February 2, at Roseburg; February 3, at Cottage Grove; February 6, at Salem, and February 7, at Eugene, February 14 and 17, the Hill Military Academy, of Portland, will play in Ashland, while the Roseburg team will play a return game on March 2. Another game has been scheduled with Forest Grove, but the date has not yet been decided upon.—Ashland Tidings.

Coach C. A. "Shy" Huntington of the University of Oregon who coached the local high school football team for about ten days in preparation for the contest with Scott high school of Toledo, Ohio, would accept no compensation for his services except his expenses. To show the appreciation of the local high school for his work a Patterson photograph of Crater Lake, framed by Swen's studio is being sent him. Local high school students would gladly vote to send him Crater Lake itself if the Postal Service could handle the delivery.

Time Extended for Raising Money for J. Fielder Memorial

The committee in charge of raising the fund for a memorial to Miss Julia Fielder report the sum of $155 so far raised. The memorial, as planned is to be a large bronze sundial mounted on a rough hewn block of Oregon granite.

In order to allow friends and former pupils who had not seen the former announcement, an opportunity to contribute the time for adding to this fund has been extended to February 1, 1923.

Picture With Thrills, Rialto

Thrilling escapes from tigers and other wild animals of the jungles, perfect reproductions of many of the most famed of the temples of India, and a story as breathless as it is intriguing are some of the features of the massive Paramount picture, "Above All Law," which opens at the Rialto Theatre today. The story tells of a powerful Indian prince who, believing his wife to be unfaithful, plans to build a magnificent tomb and bury her alive.
