

FAMOUS PICTURE OF WORLD WAR EXHIBITED HERE

That Medford is not without artistic talent, and is possessed of many art admirers is evident by the fact that the Art Lovers' League of Medford has gone to the trouble and expense of bringing a world famous masterpiece, by an immortal (Herbert de Mareau, Jr.) to Medford for exhibition.

It is the very noted canvas "Never Alone," painted on Flanders Field during 1915. A canvas 8x10 feet. "Never Alone" is to be placed on exhibition in the Medford Center Store for a limited time, beginning at 1 p. m., Thursday, January 25. The special settings, properly arranged and lighted, the citizens of Medford and vicinity may view as in the Louvre or Luxembourg Palace, one of the most spectacular productions of the age.

De Mareau has given the world a war painting without horror,—without suffering, without sorrow. The only trace of conflict portrayed is the flying smoke of a nearby bullet. At the edge of Flanders Field lies a young Poilu, blue devil, who has been shot down. He is alone, dying. It is evening, the sun as a ruby massed in pearls, is setting in the smoke.

All alone, but not alone, for He who said "I will never leave you nor forsake you" is there offering comfort during the moments of this lonely death.

JAP UNDERSTANDING WITH ENGLAND AND U. S. ON HUGHES PLAN

TOKIO, Jan. 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Premier Kato, replying to an interpellation by Viscount Kato, leader of the Kenseikai or opposition party, declared that while formal negotiations had occurred, there is an understanding between America, Great Britain and Japan regarding steps to be taken. If the other powers fail to ratify the Washington conference agreements.

Further replying to the queries of the opposition leader in the diet, which marked the opening of the discussion of the government's foreign policy, the premier declared the government was doing its best to bring about the evacuation of the northern half of the island of Saghalien at the earliest opportunity. (Japan's refusal to fix a date for the evacuation of north Saghalien caused the breakdown of the recent Chang Chun conference between Japan and the Russian soviet. The question also has furnished ammunition for severe criticism of the government's Siberian policy by the opposition in the diet and some sections of the press.)

BELIEVE SUICIDE CLEARS UP TAXI MURDER MYSTERY

TACOMA, Jan. 24.—Denial that he murdered Mark J. Crowder, Seattle taxi driver was contained in a letter found on the dead body of Horace Hendricks who committed suicide in Toledo, Wash., Monday night when about to be arrested for the crime.

The letter, made public today by Coroner E. C. Fiesel of Lewis county, asserted that Hendricks knew nothing of the murder of Crowder, whose body was found near Sumner early Sunday morning. In the ante-mortem note Hendricks said that he was going to end his life because of a long series of misfortunes culminating in the fact that he was suspected of the murder.

Hendricks' letter, addressed to "my friends," declared he came to Centralia by train and did not ride in Crowder's taxicab.

The letter was probably written in Centralia or Toledo a few hours before Hendricks committed suicide when cornered by Sheriff Roberts of Lewis county in a restaurant in Toledo.

The officers think there is no doubt that Hendricks was the passenger of Crowder on the fatal ride, and they believe the letter is a further indication that the mind of the young man was unbalanced. However, it is admitted there is a possibility that Crowder was killed by another person, who drove away in the taxicab, which has not been located.

HAMMERSLY CLAN HOLD A FAMILY REUNION, G. HILL

GOLD HILL, Jan. 23.—(Special)—Riley J. Hammersly, Gold Hill's expolitician and timber claim locator of the boom days of the timber craze of Jackson county about twenty years ago, is here visiting his two sons, George A. and Joseph P. Hammersly. Riley made a barrel of money in the timber business and later spent much of it in the mines in Alaska, but for the past few years he is just a prosperous farmer out from Roseburg down in Douglas county. Riley is a brother of John B. Hammersly, the famous government hunter, and Attorney Joseph L. Hammersly the two ex-postmasters of Gold Hill for about twenty years.

For over thirty years H. T. (Tom) Pankey and family have lived at the old home on 5th avenue, in Gold Hill, where most of the children were born and raised, but last week they left it for their new home down in Riverside addition in Gold Hill. The new abode is the 5-acre garden tract belonging to the Charles Erlwein estate and lately acquired by Theron R. Pankey, the youngest son of the family and a veteran of the late war. This tract of rich river bottom soil and the Pankeys will devote the entire tract to intensive garden farming. The father is of the old pioneer Pankey family of Rogue River valley and many years ago new settlers coming into the valley declared that every other man they met was a Pankey.

L. O. Walker, city recorder of Gold Hill, and recently night superintendent of the local cement plant, who expected to take a position with the California Oregon Power Co. at Medford at once, changed his plans and left for Portland with his family last Sunday morning by the auto way. He has accepted a position with an oil company at Portland. The Glenn Haley family is moving into the Walker home, while the Curtis Parker family occupying the Ross residence north of the high school building with the Haleys is moving into the Chas. Peeling home recently vacated by the Ellis family.

WOOL GROWERS SATISFIED WITH HARDING'S PLAN

SPOKANE, Jan. 24.—Belief that the Harding administration "has done or will soon finish doing all it can to help us," was expressed by President Frank J. Hagenbarth of Salt Lake City, before the annual convention of the National Wool Growers' association, which opened here today.

"The government has, and will furnish us with the tools and with the facilities for profitable work," he said, "but it cannot make us efficient and economical. We must do that ourselves and in the days when the sun is shining we must not forget that it will soon rain."

In opening his address Mr. Hagenbarth alluded briefly to the history of the sheep industry in the west and then launched into a discussion of remedial and beneficial measures.

He referred to the McCumber-Fordney tariff law as a God send to the sheep men and declared the tariff on wool provided made it possible for America to compete with foreign countries.

Mr. Hagenbarth said there is no surplus of wool the world over and the present consumption in the United States is greater by far than at any peace period in our history.

There are fewer sheep in the United States per capita than in 1910, Mr. Hagenbarth said in dealing with industry statistics. He sees in this fact no surplus of lambs for slaughtering purposes and predicted that prices for mutton will continue at about the same level as last year.

Discussing the questions of credits and loans Mr. Hagenbarth told the convention the National Wool Growers' association officers are opposed to government participation in rural credit banks.

BOSTON, Jan. 24.—A shipment of 12,000 bales of Australian wool valued at $4,000,000 was to arrive today.

Since the new wool tariff went into effect there has been an enormous increase in wool imports through Boston, authorities said.

MODERNIZATION OF U. S. NAVY PLANNED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Legislation looking to modernization of the navy, principally by elevating guns to bring their range on a par with those of foreign navies, was reported today by the senate naval committee as a part of the omnibus bill, dealing with many questions in the naval service.

The senate committee adopted an amendment to the house bill, requested by Secretary Denby and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, removing the limit of $300,000 of expenditure for alterations or repairs of battleships. This would allow the navy to proceed with the modernization work after congress authorizes an appropriation of $6,500,000.

WOMAN WHO KILLED HUSBAND RELEASED

YAKIMA, Wash., Jan. 24.—Mrs. Henrietta Gantz, who some weeks ago shot and killed her husband was today ordered released from the county jail by the prosecuting attorney. The prosecutor stated that he had been unable to get any evidence to the effect that Mrs. Gantz had ever threatened her husband, while there was plenty to prove that he had frequently threatened and abused her. The woman claimed she shot in self-defense.

RUSSIAN PEASANTS MUST GO TO WORK

VLADIVOSTOK, Jan. — Trouble with the peasants next spring is anticipated as a result of the soviet's decision to make a division of the land. The peasants of far eastern Russia are mostly landowners possessing from 50 to 250 acres each. This they do not work themselves but hire out to Koreans who come over here and take up agriculture. The Koreans, in return, give the Russian a share of the produce, while the peasant spends his time hunting, fishing and working on the forest concessions.

Now the soviet government will bring into force the laws that are in force in Russia, in other words each peasant will get only as much land as he and his family is capable of working.

ROCK ISLAND RAILROAD FOR CONSOLIDATION WITH S. P. RAILROAD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Mergers of western railroad systems tentatively proposed under government plans for consolidation of transportation lines, continued today as topics of discussion for railroad executives called before the inter-state commerce commission.

J. E. Gorman, president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, expressed approval of the theory of consolidation as so far worked out in the west. Inclusion of his railroad with the Southern Pacific system would result, he asserted, in the creation of a railroad adequately located and extended to maintain itself in competition with the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe system, envisaged under the commission's plan by the addition to it of other roads.

"The Rock Island is not seeking consolidation with any other line of railroads," Mr. Gorman continued, "but if some consolidation is coming the inclusion with the Southern Pacific appeals most to us."

Along with the linking of the Rock Island and Southern Pacific, the commission had tentatively suggested that the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis be thrown into the system.
