

Local and Personal

According to political gossip, the inner circles of both parties are slightly perturbed over who will be on the list and some commission from southern Oregon, the position being honorary. A. L. Hill and Roy Davis have been mentioned by rumor as candidates, or rather possibilities for the job, and after the sportsmen's banquet here, February 3, at which Governor Pierce will be the guest of honor, interest is expected to increase.

Closes Page Tonight

Of late Jack Holt has been appearing in some splendid pictures. Easily his best is Peter Kyne's story "The Parson of Panamint" presented under the title of "While Satan Sleeps," the current attraction at the Page theater which closes tonight.

Mr. Holt has an unusual role in this production, vastly different from the one that he has been playing. In this he is a fighting parson.

"Sin Flood" Closes Rialto

"The Sin Flood" one of the most powerful pictures of the day, is at the Rialto Theater where it closes tonight. It has Helene Chadwick, Richard Dix, James Kirkwood, Will Walling, Ralph Lewis and other good players in the cast.

"Pink Gods," Rialto

Bebe Daniels in a new Paramount picture, "Pink Gods," is the chief attraction of the new bill at the Rialto Theater tomorrow. As Lorraine Temple, who cannot resist the mysterious fascination of precious jewels and in consequence is entangled in a series of complicated adventures and threatening situations. James Kirkwood in the role of the African diamond merchant, plays opposite Miss Daniels. Others in the cast are Anna Q. Nilsson, Raymond Hatton, Adolphe Menjou, Guy Oliver and Arthur Trimble.

The Rialto in addition is presenting "High Power" a new comedy, an International News and Alice Jay at the organ.

DEAR FOLKS:—

Lots of "dolings" this week. Our League team beat the Chris. Ch. team Mon. — Our boys showed good coaching, thanks to Dwight. — U know Eddy Durno lives with Dwight, and Eddy's coachability is catching. Now if Eddy will come to League with Dwight we'll know that Dwight's Leagueism is contagious.

Then, eve some of the Griffin Creek folks came to the parsonage for a social evening. They're a fine lot—and all good church members. Come again, Darbys—Minnears—Howells—Flisks, and all the rest—and it's always an inspiration to see 'em all at Ch.

Church Night, Wed.—It was a big "feed" the Priscilla Circle served up. They got fifteen rabs! from the young people.

Young Married People's Club Thru, at Mrs. Nordwick's. All had a good time at Rook. Rook rhymes with Crook—but there are no Crooks in that bunch. If Will Brooks will only come to choir regularly—but that's another story.

Fri. night—Best silver wedding ann.—They dressed up in their wedding togs, and the bride was CHARMING, and the groom was embarrassed, doing the blushing for the bride, but looked triumphant just the same. It was a most delightful evening for the guests of the occasion. I'll say for all the church that we hope they'll celebrate their Golden anniversary.

But this is getting too spacey, I'll see you at Church tomorrow.

Yours, etc.

Pastor, M. E. Church.
