

Local and Personal

Fair and continued cold is the prediction for the weather of tonight and tomorrow, following the snow of Sunday and the end of Monday. Water pipes were frozen in a number of homes during last night and this morning, although the minimum temperature of this morning at 21 degrees above was less than that of Monday morning, 20.7 degrees.

Dance, Eagle Point, Sat. nite. 267
Hid dance! Wed. night! Oriental Ballroom! 265

Hearings of the adjudication of the water rights on Butte Creek, involving in the neighborhood of 20,000 acres, and covering the land from Fish Lake to the mouth, will be heard this week at Jacksonville, before Court Reporter Roy Davis. A decree will be returned in March. The purpose of the hearing is to determine the amount of water each landowner is entitled to, for irrigation purposes.

Goodyear and U. S. Tire service. Let us serve you. Geo. L. Treicher Motor Co. 264

Mr. J. H. McEachern of Washington, D. C., will lecture on "Thunderbolts of the Coming Storm," Jan. 30 and 31, at Seven Day Adventist Church, N. Riverside, 7:30 p. m. Everybody invited. Admission free. 265

The Business and Professional Women's Club will meet Thursday evening at the Y. W. C. A. at eight o'clock. Mrs. Gore will speak on "Parliamentary Law," and a short business meeting will follow.

Party leaving for San Francisco the fourth of February in 7 passenger car would like three or four passengers. Call 252 during day. 264

Beginning tonight the public may view the master painting "Never Alone" at the Medford Center Store between 7 and 9:30 in the evening, in addition to the regular exhibit during the day. 264

Mrs. H. D. Reed of Gold Hill was among the out of town visitors in the city Monday afternoon.

There's a busy business college in your home town, G.W.N.

The local police and justice courts have been very quiet for the past three days, not a single criminal case having appeared on the docket of either court during that time.

Rhubarb and asparagus roots. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Wood, phone 108, 711 E. Main. 265

Frank has been uncovered in the bathing at the joint meeting of the Cavemen and Sportsmen last Friday night. This was the verdict of the canvassing committee which Saturday completed its report on the election of the biggest liar among the fishermen of the Rogue river. The rep, which was presented to Dr. W. Walker, should have gone to Jas. Chincock, in view of the votes cast for him, it is alleged. Of the 93 ballots cast, Jim received 48, believed to have been cast for him as a result of his proclivities in the art of lengthening out the size of the fish which got away last summer. There were plenty of candidates for the position, it has developed.—Grants Pass Courier.

Furniture repaired and made to order, work called for and delivered. Wm. Bradford, Phone 199-L. 274

Dance Wed. night, Oriental Ballroom. 265

Attorneys Reames, Newman, Newbury and Neff of this city transacted legal business in Jacksonville Monday afternoon.

There's no place like Holmes for complete insurance service.

Fruit, nut and shade trees. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

Lewis Richardson of the marines, now stationed on the battleship Texas at San Diego will get his honorable discharge March 1st, upon the completion of a three-year enlistment. He will return to this city.

Next dance Eagle Point, Feb. 10th. 275

Hemstitching at Deuel's. 267

E. B. Newtown of Yreka, Calif., spent Sunday in the city visiting friends and relatives.

Mardi-Gras! Feb. 13! Oriental Ballroom! 265

Wanted—One or two ladies to rent a cozy little two-room house with toilet, sink and electric lights, furnished, nicely located. C. A. DeVoe. 2631r

Auto insurance. Brown & White. D. M. C. thread, all colors, 5 cents per skein. Handicraft Shop. 265

The Elks lodge cafe is fairly booming under the new steward, William Peck, who has been a well known chef here for several years past. The change in stewardship was inaugurated about a week ago.

Have your cylinders rebored on a high grade, accurate boring mill. The Storm upright boring mill is the heaviest and most expensive mill made for rebore work. All work guaranteed and prices right. Riverside Garage. 2624r

Mardi-Gras! Oriental Ballroom! Tues., Feb. 13! Costume prizes! 265

George Mansfield, state president of the Oregon Farm Bureau, arrived here today to attend the meeting of the county organization. He was one of the principal speakers at the afternoon session. Mr. Mansfield is well known in Roseburg. He resides at present in Medford but his duties as president, take him to all sections of the state.—(Roseburg News-Review.)

Legal Reserve Old Line Life Insurance company desires to make general agency connection in Southern Oregon. Previous experience not necessary. Only men with fair intelligence and good character can be considered. This company sell life, health and accident insurance. Address 409-13 Northwestern Bank Building, Portland, Oregon. 264

Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

Charles Huff, postmaster of Copper, Calif., has returned home after a short stay in the city on business.

Start your head bag now, all colors of beads to select from. Handicraft Shop. 265

Oriental Ballroom Wed. night! Big dance! Admission 10 cents. 265

George O. Timothy, former chief of police, who was in the city this morning from his estate at the end of West Fourth street, stopped his negotiations at a meat market for a soup bone long enough to state that he had been sending fresh blooming violets to relatives back east for a week past.

Dance, Eagle Point, Sat. nite. 267

Grafted Franquette walnut trees, Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

A bill was introduced in the house at the state legislature yesterday to extend the qualifications of voters at school meetings and elections, by including the provision that a parent with children of school age may not vote. Heretofore this provision, passed at the 1921 session, applied only to districts of the third class.

Free instructions in knitted and crocheted bead bags. Handicraft Shop. 265

Grafting wax. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

Attorney James T. Chincock of Grants Pass transacted legal business in the city and county seat Monday.

Bring us your watch repairing and get it the next day. Medford Center Jewelry Shop. 265

Chiropody. Phone 563-J. 276

The motion of Joe Wilson, alleged narcotic peddler and enslaver of women, that he be allowed 10 days in which to enter a plea to the narcotic indictment returned against him Friday by the federal grand jury, was denied Saturday by Federal Judge R. S. Bean. The court held five days enough for his attorney to examine the indictment. Assistant United States Attorney Thomas H. Maguire said he would resist further delay in the trial, as two women whom Wilson is said to have given narcotics are being detained in the county jail as witnesses.—Portland Journal.

Bing cherry trees. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

Tomorrow evening is Modern Woodmen social night at Althea hall and on this occasion the M. W. O. A. pictures will be put upon the screen, furnishing about an hour's interesting entertainment. A program interspersed with song, instrumental music and recitations will also be rendered, and the evening's festivities will close with a big feed in the dining room. The invitation to be present includes all Modern Woodmen members here or elsewhere, and their wives, Royal Neighbors and their husbands, and each member of either society is invited to bring a friend or two who might be interested in becoming a member of the Modern Woodmen or Royal Neighbors.

For Diamond coal briquets, phone Valley Fuel Co. Phone 76.

Flowering shrubs and evergreens. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

J. H. McEachern of Washington, D. C., will give his famous lecture "Thunderbolts of the Coming Storm" at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, North Riverside, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Jan. 30 and 31, at 7:30 p. m. Mr. McEachern is making a tour, speaking at the principal places in the West.

The Cheney phonograph plays all makes of records. Sold at Palmer Piano House. Come in and listen to it. 267

BB dance! Wed. night! Oriental Ballroom! 265

Sprague Reigel of Gold Hill was a business visitor in the city Monday afternoon.

Take your kodak films to Palmer's studio. First class work and prompt service. 265

Mardi-Gras! Feb. 13! Oriental Ballroom! 265

The continued illness of Miss Anne Lang of The Dalles, state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, has caused her to curtail her program of visits to the chapters over the state and it is improbable that she will be able to participate actively in the state work until the meeting is held in Portland in March, when new officers are chosen.

Wanted—Portable bathtub. C. A. DeVoe. 2631r

Thornless blackberry plants. Eden L. T. Sparks of Eugene, traveling passenger agent in this district for the Southern Pacific arrived in the city this morning on one of his periodical visits.

Auto insurance. Brown & White. D. M. C. thread, all colors, 5 cents per skein. Handicraft Shop. 265

The Elks lodge cafe is fairly booming under the new steward, William Peck, who has been a well known chef here for several years past. The change in stewardship was inaugurated about a week ago.

Have your cylinders rebored on a high grade, accurate boring mill. The Storm upright boring mill is the heaviest and most expensive mill made for rebore work. All work guaranteed and prices right. Riverside Garage. 2624r

Mardi-Gras! Oriental Ballroom! Tues., Feb. 13! Costume prizes! 265

George Mansfield, state president of the Oregon Farm Bureau, arrived here today to attend the meeting of the county organization. He was one of the principal speakers at the afternoon session. Mr. Mansfield is well known in Roseburg. He resides at present in Medford but his duties as president, take him to all sections of the state.—(Roseburg News-Review.)

Legal Reserve Old Line Life Insurance company desires to make general agency connection in Southern Oregon. Previous experience not necessary. Only men with fair intelligence and good character can be considered. This company sell life, health and accident insurance. Address 409-13 Northwestern Bank Building, Portland, Oregon. 264

Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

Charles Huff, postmaster of Copper, Calif., has returned home after a short stay in the city on business.

Start your head bag now, all colors of beads to select from. Handicraft Shop. 265

Oriental Ballroom Wed. night! Big dance! Admission 10 cents. 265

George O. Timothy, former chief of police, who was in the city this morning from his estate at the end of West Fourth street, stopped his negotiations at a meat market for a soup bone long enough to state that he had been sending fresh blooming violets to relatives back east for a week past.

Dance, Eagle Point, Sat. nite. 267

Grafted Franquette walnut trees, Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

A bill was introduced in the house at the state legislature yesterday to extend the qualifications of voters at school meetings and elections, by including the provision that a parent with children of school age may not vote. Heretofore this provision, passed at the 1921 session, applied only to districts of the third class.

Free instructions in knitted and crocheted bead bags. Handicraft Shop. 265

Grafting wax. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

Attorney James T. Chincock of Grants Pass transacted legal business in the city and county seat Monday.

Bring us your watch repairing and get it the next day. Medford Center Jewelry Shop. 265

Chiropody. Phone 563-J. 276

The motion of Joe Wilson, alleged narcotic peddler and enslaver of women, that he be allowed 10 days in which to enter a plea to the narcotic indictment returned against him Friday by the federal grand jury, was denied Saturday by Federal Judge R. S. Bean. The court held five days enough for his attorney to examine the indictment. Assistant United States Attorney Thomas H. Maguire said he would resist further delay in the trial, as two women whom Wilson is said to have given narcotics are being detained in the county jail as witnesses.—Portland Journal.

Bing cherry trees. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

Ray Tompkins of Redding, Calif., is spending a few days in the city attending to business matters.

Noel L. Erskine gives piano lessons at pupil's homes. Phone 729-W. 263

You can get it at DeVoe's. 265

Fred L. Colvig of the Internal revenue department left Sunday on an official trip to the Klamath Falls district.

Mardi-Gras! Oriental Ballroom! Tues., Feb. 13! Costume prizes! 265

Mah-Jongg at Swem's Studio. 264

"Early Days in Oregon" is the title of a series of screen pictures to be shown at the First Methodist church on Wednesday evening. This will be an unusual feature of "Church Night." The regular order will be observed: supper at 6:15; Church Family Altar service at 7:15; Open Forum; Story Hour, Mission Study at 7:45; and pictures at 8:15. Those who do not care to come for the earlier features are invited to see the pictures.

If your watch don't run after we have repaired it bring it back and we will make good. Medford Center Department Store. 265

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Wood, phone 108, 711 E. Main. 265

Edison Marshall arrived home this morning from his visit to Portland and Eugene.

Oriental Ballroom Wed. night! Big dance! Admission 10 cents. 265

Rehearsals for the sixth annual minstrel show of the Medford Elks lodge were begun recently, and while the show will stick close to minstrel rules several new novelties will be introduced. One of these is a saxophone quartette. Unlike most amateur musicians, they will confine themselves to jazz and popular airs. The show will be given in this city, Monday and Tuesday nights Feb. 26th and 27th and will also play Yreka, Calif., and Grants Pass and Klamath Falls.

Milk and cream at DeVoe's. 265

Michael Hanley, Jr., of the Lake Creek district spent Sunday and Monday in the city on business.

Now is the time to spray roses, shrubbery, fruit trees. Phone 108, Green & Dixon. 163r

L. E. Stanley of Eagle Point was in Medford yesterday visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

Hot females and chili con carne at DeVoe's. 265

Pictures of the wreck of the Southern Pacific train No. 53 near Ager, Calif., Saturday afternoon were printed in a Portland newspaper yesterday. They were taken by Paul D. Kelleter of the U. S. Forest Service.

Over 80,000 people viewed the masterpiece "Never Alone," during its exhibition in Portland. Now on display at Medford Center Store. Admission to exhibit ten cents. 265

John Garnett, twelve months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Garnett, has recently recovered from a three weeks' siege of pneumonia.

After the fire it is too late to insure. See Rejden & Canaday now. 2644r

$5.50 motor driven horns at the Electric Shop.

Horace Bromley, of the California Oregon Power company, is confined to his home with an attack of the prevalent "flu," grippe or heavy cold.

This office is prepared to print ledger sheets, bills, etc., used on the bookkeeping machines. Don't give your orders to traveling men and have them printed out of Medford. Phone us and we will call. 265

C. E. Wallis of Agate was in Medford today and requested the Mail Tribune to deny the report in Agate items last Friday that a community dance was given there on Sunday. The dance in question says Mr. Wallis was on Saturday not Sunday.

Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters—You are expected at the Castle Hall Monday evening, Jan. 29th. A good entertainment will be provided and eats will not be overlooked. Bring the family and enjoy the evening. The latch string is on the outside. Committee. 263r

Mah-Jongg at Swem's Studio. 264

The "Exalted Order of Hoot Owls" which meets every Monday and Friday night in the Oregonian building in Portland at eleven o'clock held a meeting last night, the proceedings of which were followed closely by a number of radio fans. A number of prominent Portland men were initiated and some excellent music by the Manila Stringed Sextet was broadcast. The meeting adjourned at midnight.

Shoe sale $6 and $7 dress and work shoes. $5. Old Reliable Shoe Shop, 7 N. Fir. 266r

Mrs. D. O. Fredrick, of the Medford Center Beauty Parlors, leaves today for a two weeks business visit in Portland.

New novelty ribbons. Handicraft Shop. 265

Bob Boyl was seen sporting his new commercial car this morning on North Front street. The new panel delivery car is easily recognizable as it is inscribed, "Robt. H. Boyl, Wholesale Confectioner."

Mah-Jongg at Swem's Studio. 264

Tonight's meeting of the American Legion at the Legion Hall marks the change of meeting nights between the Craters Club and the Legion. The next regular meetings of the Craters Club will be held a week from tonight.

Auto insurance. Brown & White. 265

Four feet of snow was reported on Oregon mountain Monday morning. The stages were having some difficulty getting through, yesterday's stages not having arrived up to noon. There was about a foot of snow reported on Smith hill.—Grants Pass Courier.

Nursery stock guaranteed, acclimated, full line. Write today, Grants Pass Nursery. Grants Pass, Oregon. 270r

Chiropody. Phone 563-J. 276

The motion of Joe Wilson, alleged narcotic peddler and enslaver of women, that he be allowed 10 days in which to enter a plea to the narcotic indictment returned against him Friday by the federal grand jury, was denied Saturday by Federal Judge R. S. Bean. The court held five days enough for his attorney to examine the indictment. Assistant United States Attorney Thomas H. Maguire said he would resist further delay in the trial, as two women whom Wilson is said to have given narcotics are being detained in the county jail as witnesses.—Portland Journal.

Bing cherry trees. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

By a score of 25 to 10 the Roseburg high school basketball team was winner over the University high school of Eugene in a game staged at Roseburg recently.

Wall maps of Jackson county, printed on good linen paper, tinned at top and bottom for sale at this office. They show cities, rivers, roads, mountains, location of property by section township and range, and give lots of other information. Every family should have one. 265

Remodeling operations at the Valley Garage have started and the preparations for occupancy by the Mason Motor company, Star and Durant distributors for Medford, will soon be complete.

Dance, Eagle Point, Sat. nite. 267

Shriners returning yesterday from the ceremonial held in Portland last Saturday night reported that the weather during their entire stay there had been exceedingly rainy.

Closing out all our farm machinery, several good buys. Patton & Robinson, Inc. 265

H. H. Rankin is in attendance at a conference of forest supervisors of the North Pacific district, which will last for five days. The conference is being held in Portland and the Oregon Journal published a picture of all those in attendance in yesterday's issue.

We have good values in used cars. Patton & Robinson, Inc. 265

Due to the snow and inclement weather of Sunday the proposed trapshoot at the Ed. Lampert place was not held but it is planned to hold a large shoot at which experts from Roseburg, Klamath Falls, Medford and Grants Pass will be present next Sunday, if weather permits.

Now is the time to spray roses, shrubbery, fruit trees. Phone 108, Green & Dixon. 163r

L. E. Stanley of Eagle Point was in Medford yesterday visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

Hot females and chili con carne at DeVoe's. 265

Pictures of the wreck of the Southern Pacific train No. 53 near Ager, Calif., Saturday afternoon were printed in a Portland newspaper yesterday. They were taken by Paul D. Kelleter of the U. S. Forest Service.

Over 80,000 people viewed the masterpiece "Never Alone," during its exhibition in Portland. Now on display at Medford Center Store. Admission to exhibit ten cents. 265

John Garnett, twelve months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Garnett, has recently recovered from a three weeks' siege of pneumonia.

After the fire it is too late to insure. See Rejden & Canaday now. 2644r

$5.50 motor driven horns at the Electric Shop.

Horace Bromley, of the California Oregon Power company, is confined to his home with an attack of the prevalent "flu," grippe or heavy cold.

This office is prepared to print ledger sheets, bills, etc., used on the bookkeeping machines. Don't give your orders to traveling men and have them printed out of Medford. Phone us and we will call. 265

C. E. Wallis of Agate was in Medford today and requested the Mail Tribune to deny the report in Agate items last Friday that a community dance was given there on Sunday. The dance in question says Mr. Wallis was on Saturday not Sunday.

Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters—You are expected at the Castle Hall Monday evening, Jan. 29th. A good entertainment will be provided and eats will not be overlooked. Bring the family and enjoy the evening. The latch string is on the outside. Committee. 263r

Mah-Jongg at Swem's Studio. 264

The "Exalted Order of Hoot Owls" which meets every Monday and Friday night in the Oregonian building in Portland at eleven o'clock held a meeting last night, the proceedings of which were followed closely by a number of radio fans. A number of prominent Portland men were initiated and some excellent music by the Manila Stringed Sextet was broadcast. The meeting adjourned at midnight.

Shoe sale $6 and $7 dress and work shoes. $5. Old Reliable Shoe Shop, 7 N. Fir. 266r

Mrs. D. O. Fredrick, of the Medford Center Beauty Parlors, leaves today for a two weeks business visit in Portland.

New novelty ribbons. Handicraft Shop. 265

Bob Boyl was seen sporting his new commercial car this morning on North Front street. The new panel delivery car is easily recognizable as it is inscribed, "Robt. H. Boyl, Wholesale Confectioner."

Mah-Jongg at Swem's Studio. 264

Tonight's meeting of the American Legion at the Legion Hall marks the change of meeting nights between the Craters Club and the Legion. The next regular meetings of the Craters Club will be held a week from tonight.

Auto insurance. Brown & White. 265

Four feet of snow was reported on Oregon mountain Monday morning. The stages were having some difficulty getting through, yesterday's stages not having arrived up to noon. There was about a foot of snow reported on Smith hill.—Grants Pass Courier.

Nursery stock guaranteed, acclimated, full line. Write today, Grants Pass Nursery. Grants Pass, Oregon. 270r

Chiropody. Phone 563-J. 276

The motion of Joe Wilson, alleged narcotic peddler and enslaver of women, that he be allowed 10 days in which to enter a plea to the narcotic indictment returned against him Friday by the federal grand jury, was denied Saturday by Federal Judge R. S. Bean. The court held five days enough for his attorney to examine the indictment. Assistant United States Attorney Thomas H. Maguire said he would resist further delay in the trial, as two women whom Wilson is said to have given narcotics are being detained in the county jail as witnesses.—Portland Journal.

Bing cherry trees. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2. 264

Basketball Results Y.W.C.A. League

League standings to date:

Team	P	W	Pct
North M. E.	1	1	1.000
South M. E.	1	1	1.000
Baptist	2	1	.500
Christian	2	1	.500
Presbyterian	2	0	.000

The newly-oiled floor was somewhat of a handicap to fast playing last night, but a day or two will put it in fine shape.

The first game—

Team	Points	Rebounds
Christian	15	10
Green	12	8
Oslin	10	7
Jennings	8	5
Newland	6	4
Chastain	5	3
White	4	2
Pierce	3	1
Cobb	2	1

Score—Presbyterian 47; Christian 44. Referee—Jenings.

The second game—

Team	Points	Rebounds
Baptist	18	12
Neff, D.	15	10
Smith	12	