The Ashland Fruit and Produce association is holding a meeting this afternoon for consideration of the canner question.

Dear Folks:—

I'm tempted to be real precise & dignified this wk., "Cause I want to write about some Dignitaries & important events. But read on: I'll do the religious thing and resist temptation.....!!

The Y. W. C. A. Big Doings last night brot out a large slice of the Population. The Baptist Ladies put up a good feed—a Banquet, to be proper. Mrs. Cornish presided with her usual grace. Miss Booth sang charmingly. Mr. Edmeades "did" 12 numbers, singing the 2nd one because he had to.—Miss McKee's report showed that the Y. W. is doing big work in Medford, & should have the support of every citizen. * * * Miss Dayman's address was a model for construction and choice diction. She said a big thing when she spoke of the TREMENDOUS DEMOCRACY of the Y. W. And its tru of the Y. M. and the church as well. Christianity is Democracy.

But I've used up my space, and haven't said anything about the Gov. comin' to town—Maybe he'll come to Church in the morning—Come on out, Your Honor: It'll be at least an hour's respite from the office seekers. Too, it'll be a good example for the members of the So. Ore Game Protection Bunch. Bert Anderson will bring you in his flicker. You'll look real democratic-like riding down Main in a Flivver.

Yours, etc.
Pastor M. E. Church.

"Booze will not make any writer better. One little drink keeps the ideas from coming, and personally, I find that one has to train as hard to be a writer as for any kind of strenuous work." These words came from Edison Marshall, famous Southern Oregon short story writer and former university student, who spoke to the short story classes on the campus.

He scoffed the idea that Poe did his best work while drunk and said that writing a book is such hard work that it is necessary to keep fit all the time. —Eugene Register.

The Ashland basketball team was defeated last night by the Roseburg five at Roseburg by the discouraging score of 28-7. The Ashlanders, it is understood, were completely outclassed and were lost in the midst of the fast and flashy Roseburg team. Ashland made a fair showing against Salem and the defeat by Roseburg shows that the Umpqua Valley hoopers are worthy of Medford's serious attention if Medford intends to send her team to the state tournament at Salem. Roseburg has been trying for years to send a team to the state meet and this year it looks as though they have a good chance.

News telegrams from Salem state that house bill 158, providing for the state assuming $900 of the expense of the department of Oregon, Grand Army of the Republic, for the next biennium, provoked much discussion on the floor of the house, but was finally passed. Several of the house members declared they had been urged by members of the G. A. R. to vote against the appropriation on the ground that the organization has sufficient funds to pay its own bills, but there are internal dissensions in the Oregon department of the G. A. R. and that the opposition was merely an attempt to harass the present head officers.
