TRADE AT HOME.

IF MERCHANTS and their sales clerks were not a mighty good natured bunch of folks, whose rough edges have been worn down by much contact with human nature, they would have reason to get quite grouchy at times.

There are some persons who will go or send to more or less distant cities, and make important purchases of clothing, furniture, or foodstuffs. Then when they find that they want some little article in a hurry, and must have it for some pressing need, they rush to the home store, and demand that it be supplied them instantly.

They expect these stores to keep stocked up all the time on a wide variety of goods. Yet they fail to supply their share of the patronage that would warrant these stores in keeping such a stock.

A group of good retail stores links up a town with the wonderful nation-wide system for distributing modern products. They bring to your doors the comforts and conveniences of advanced civilization from all over the world, where you can examine and select the things that you desire, and secure competent advice as to how to get the results you want.

The people can not expect to secure the kind of stores that their community is entitled to, on the basis of its population and wealth, if they are constantly running or sending away elsewhere to buy goods. Unless they give their patronage to their home stores, those stores can not serve them with maximum efficiency.

The men who own and conduct the stores of Medford are a loyal force working all the time to build up this community, to provide it with the best modern facilities and equipment, to improve its civic advantages and promote its prosperity. When you deal with them, you back up and promote the advance of your home town.

Quill Points

There are no statues of men who felt sorry for themselves.

Much that passes for philosophy is no more than a good digestion.

Wisdom is merely the reaction that follows contemplation of received bills.

A woman's declining years come before the age of thirty. After that she is glad to accept.

Making Germany knuckle down was a small job, compared with making her dig up.

An educated man is one who can name the cabinet members and give a reasonable explanation.

Oddly enough, nearly all the men who borrow fountain pens think the art of writing consists in putting weight behind it.

There's always a darker side. Jackie Coogan's parents can't use him as an income tax exemption.

The choke helps to start the car. If only the thing had an appliance to choke the driver and stop it.

THE TALKING DEALER.

I WENT to Higg the hatter, to buy a Sunday lid; he bored me with his chatter, as merchants seldom did. He talked about the weather, about the crop of rye, and roundly asked me whether I voted wet or dry. He talked about the kaiser who now in exile dwells, and thought he'd have been wiser to cut out wedding bells. He talked about the graces of females he could name, and spoke about the races which are Tiajuana's game. I said, "Oh, Higg the hatter, you send a pain through me, for your remarks are flatter than any spiel should be. I've walked through weary valleys, down roads where autos skid, through dusty streets and alleys, to buy myself a lid. I toiled along the highway, and up the woodland aisle, and through the reeking byway, to get myself a tile. You should be calm and quiet, and place within my reach, a hat that is a riot, a kelly that's a peach. No idle themes should enter the eloquence you throw, but all your talk should center upon that grand chapeau. Then, then you might persuade me to blow five bones or four, but, as it is, you've made me resolve to leave your store."

WILLARD MATCHED WITH JOHNSON FOR CHARITY NEXT MAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Jess Willard was today on the road to a return bout with Jack Dempsey, to whom he lost the world's heavyweight boxing championship in Toledo, Ohio, in July, 1919.

Willard will meet Floyd Johnson, the 190-pound Iowa youth, who has created a sensation in heavyweight circles since his debut here last fall.
Willard is being permitted to meet Johnson in a fifteen-round bout at the new Yankee stadium May 21, because the bulk of the proceeds will go to the mill fund of the mayor's committee of women, for which a charity bout annually is held under the direction of Tex Rickard. The two boxers will get $25,000 each.
Johnson was to have met Tom Gilbons of St. Paul in Madison Square Garden March 19, but this bout was called off last night.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 6.—The first squad of major league baseball players to leave for the south for spring training departed from here today for Hot Springs, Ark. It was composed of the veteran battery men of the Cleveland Indians.

NEW YORK.—Charles H. Ebbetts, owner of the Brooklyn National league baseball club, announced he would retire from baseball as soon as he could sell the club.

NEW YORK.—Jess Willard, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world was matched to box Floyd Johnson of Iowa fifteen rounds at the new Yankee stadium, May 12.

NEW YORK.—New York amateur boxers won the international intercity boxing tournament by capturing four finals and one special event, with Toronto second.

Reduce Those Dangerous Swollen Veins

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using a new and harmless, yet very powerful germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins and bunches to become normal, but also reduces goitre, enlarged glands and wens.

Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place.
It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated, you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging.
Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment as directions advise and improvement will begin at once. Your druggist can supply you. Health's Drug Store, West Side Pharmacy.

Tongue Twisters

(To be read aloud)
By C. L. EDSON, Author of the Gentle Art of Columning.

THE CHAMOIS SHIMMIES.
A Chamois did the shimmy.
In the presence of a Swami: Twas a yama-yama Chamois, And she shook a wicked shimmy.

"I may be a rummy, damme!"
Said the Swami to the Chamois, "But I like to see you shimmy." You're a zany, show-me Chamois, For' forgiveness! But you shimmy, Oh Lor' lumme, what a Chamois, Show me, Chamois, shame me, Chamois Shimmy, Chamois, do." tural production has a gross farm compared with $12,402,000,000,000 in 1921, the department of agriculture announced today.

Crops were valued at $8,961,000,

Drink Water
If Back or Kidneys Hurt

Begin Taking Salts if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Weakness

Too much rich food forms acids which excite and overwork the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system.
Flush the kidneys occasionally to relieve them like you relieve the bowels, removing acids, waste and poison, else you may feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, the stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated, obliging one to get up two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste, begin drinking water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine and bladder disorders disappear.
This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive and makes a delightful effervescent lithiawater drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help prevent serious kidney and bladder disorders.

By all means, drink lots of good water every day. Have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.
