Dear Folks:—

To chide the events of the week & mention everybody I'd like to, and eat up a yd. of space.

The Crater Lake Quartet is getting some evidence of appreciation these days. These boys have sung for a no. of public "functions" this wk. They are SOME singers:

Clarence Meeker, who's smiling countenance is a lot of trouble to the M. M. (Methodist Men) Co.

And MacDonald, who Kidd's you about your shoes.

And Canady, who'll get U in jail or out, as the case may be.

And A. L. Vroman, who'll connect up your new house with Fish Lake.

I hold that for "Male Music" U can't beat that combination in this burg. They will be scattered to the 4 winds Mon. nite thru Virgin's Radio scatterer. And they sing most every Sunday at church.

The P. T. A. doing's Fri. nite showed up the great work that organization is doing. The Washington cherry tree incident was most cutely acted by little Wilson Barber and Alan Rogers, and 2 of the 4 boys children did the steady minstrel with grace that reflected some good training by a devoted mother.

C. W. Whillock came back from the East the other day, and says that he does bus. in the Golden Rule he'll have to charge more for most everything this spring & fall. Sad news! But then we can buy what's left from last year at old prices.

Let everybody that is, or ever has been a Methodist come out to hear Dr. A. L. Howarth tomorrow morning. Look at the announcement on another page. Some great music is promised, too.

See U tomorrow. Yours the same, Pastor, M. E. Church.

At the Presbyterian church from now until Easter, the services will point to that great event in the life of our Lord. The sermons will have to do with events and characters that centered around and had to do with the cross of Calvary and the Resurrection story. Pilate's dilemma and how every man today faces the same query "What shall I do with Jesus which is called the Christ?" will be the subject for the sermon Sunday morning.

In the evening the theme will be the Roman judge before whose tribunal Jesus Christ was condemned. "Pilate, the Agnostic," and the application to present day agnosticism. At the morning service the male quartet will sing a song entitled, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." In the evening the young people's choir will lead the singing. The problem stories for the children will continue.

RAY CARPENTER GETS 3 MONTHS AND $400 FINE

Ray Carpenter, who pleaded guilty to a bootlegging charge three weeks ago was sentenced to serve three months in the county jail and pay a fine of $400, by County Judge Gardner today. The jail sentence was suspended pending good behavior. Passing of sentence on Carpenter was deferred a couple of times. His place was visited last week by a deputation from the sheriff's office with a search warrant. The party found nothing, whereupon Carpenter issued an invitation for the minions of the law to visit his place any time they saw fit, in their search for liquor.

LAW OF THE TITHE IS BINDING TODAY

The audience at the Christian church last night was one of the largest of the special meetings and the service of the best.

The extra musical numbers were a duet by Mrs. Harry Walter and Mrs. W. R. Lamb and the several selections by the ladies orchestra, both of which were extra good. The ladies' orchestra is a new organization and consists of some of the best musicians in the city. Services tonight at 7:30.

Want to Go to Jail? If there is anyone who is anxious to go to jail for 30 days, he will find several effective suggestions as to how to do it in the feature attraction at the Rialto theatre which closes tonight. It is the late Wallace Reid's last picture, "Thirty Days." Reid was anxious to go to jail to avoid being murdered. He had considerable difficulty in getting in, but finally managed it. But he had a much more complicated time getting out.

"Fools First" Offered Marshall Neilan's "Fools First," featuring Claire Windsor and Richard Dix, opens at the Rialto theatre tomorrow at 12:30.

The film offers a crook story with Dix playing the leading character—that of a young man brought up amidst improper surroundings. Within this character the battle between good and bad progresses through the story until he finds himself in pleasant surroundings when the good triumphs.

The picture has been made with a master hand and contains at least one incident of unusually high dramatic power, regarding which the producers have decided to say nothing.

Jack Holt has another virile, vigorous role to play in "Making a Man," which is at the Page theatre tomorrow, Monday and Tuesday. He does these things very well indeed, giving the impression of manliness and strength. The picture is made from Peter B. Kyne's story, "Humanizing Mr. Winaby."

"Making a Man" is the tale of the social line of Geronimo, Cal., a somewhat snobbish young fellow, rich, handsome, educated.

Going to New York, he finds that deprived of the golden background of his home town halo, he doesn't mean very much. But he proceeds to show that he does amount to something. He has fights on his hands and difficulties to overcome, all of which he attends to in excellent style.

Eva Novak is his chief support among the women. The men are Clarence Burton, Bert Woodruff and J. P. Lockney.

LATEST BROADWAY SONGS FOR ELKS MINSTREL SHOW

Some of the latest songs red hot off Broadway will be sung in the sixth annual Elks Minstrel at the Page theatre Monday and Tuesday, February 26 and 27.

Mac McDonald will undoubtedly cause some of the front row habitués to shed a tear or two for the song assigned to Mac was composed, not by a musician, but by a man high in public esteem in certain sections. The score was written by Senator Volstead and is entitled "Solomon."

Jerry Jerome will undertake to execute a number somewhat more classical than he has usually presented. It is a song well rendered and full of feeling.

Vern Vaxter's song pertains very much to the rural atmosphere and will make many of the audience feel quite at home.

Nothing can be said for or against the song picked for Larry Mann, as he is guarding it very closely intending it as a surprise.
