ASHLAND GARAGE MAN IS MULCTED OUT OF $700 CASH

The proprietor of the Robinson Garage is "out" $700 as a result of his endorsing a cashier's check. The paper was offered to obtain cash needed. The stranger, who recently came to Ashland, presented an order bill of lading and represented himself as ready to go into business in the city and rented a portion of the garage building. He stated he had a carload of supplies and household goods on the way. Two cashier's checks were held by him, one for $1200 and the other for $850. Upon obtaining Mr. Robinson's endorsement, he collected at a bank, leaving $150 on deposit. The bill of order, forged, looked to be correct, and as a result of no investigation the $700 must be met by the victim. —Ashland Tidings.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The army appropriation bill which carries an appropriation of $56,580,000 for river and harbor projects was signed today by President Harding.

C. OF COMMERCE WORKERS CHOSEN FOR BIG DRIVE

Three years ago the American City Bureau was employed at a considerable expense to reorganize the Medford chamber of commerce and as a majority of the memberships then secured will expire on April 1st the directors decided to put on a campaign of their own and not employ an outside agency and thereby make a good saving. The board and the committee on committees have spent considerable time in selecting those who will conduct the campaign.

The members selected are Paul B. McKee, O. O. Alenderfer, H. A. Thieroff, H. L. Walther, John B. Carlin, C. C. Lemmon, Glen Fabrick, A. L. Hill, Paul Janney, Hamilton Patton, L. J. Schade, James Taylor, John R. Tondin, Emil Mohr, P. B. McDonald, W. D. Cole, Ed. M. White, Mrs. Rose G. Schieffelin, Bert Anderson, B. W. Paul, Louis Ulrich, Alex Sparrow, H. E. Harder, Fred L. Heath, C. W. McDonald, C. E. Gates, W. R. Speck, John C. Mann, George H. Hewitt, John S. Orth, E. E. Wilson, Aubrey G. Smith, D. R. Wood, Thomas C. Beckett, A. C. Hubbard, Carl Fichtner, C. A. Swickart, H. O. Frohbach, R. W. Ruhl and C. E. Wafel, Jr.

Of those appointed, Paul B. McKee, vice-president and general manager of the California-Oregon Power company will direct the campaign which is to take place this month.

Before assuming this responsibility he carefully studied the situation and after conferences with many of the leading citizens, who pledged him their enthusiastic support, he decided that he would be willing to assume the chairmanship of this important undertaking.

At first, Mr. McKee was reluctant to accept, because the Power company had the first right to his time and he was exceedingly busy with company affairs, yet after due reflection he recognized the duty he owed to the community in which he lives and that, more than anything else, was the actual reason why he consented to serve.

Another feature which appealed to him was the fact that an immense saving to the community could be made by conducting a campaign of our own instead of employing an outside agency. The only cloud that seems to dampen the enthusiasm of the workers is the fact that not all of the present members have paid their dues to April 1st. This will make the campaign doubly hard, but in view of the determination with which the workers have entered into this campaign, they are confident that those members who are not fully paid up can be brought to realize their individual responsibility to Medford, and that they will do their part.

PHOENIX AID HAS ANNUAL MEETING

The all day meeting Thursday of the Phoenix Aid society resulted in some much needed sewing and the re-election of the following officers: President, Mrs. W. H. Frame; vice president, Mrs. J. S. Bonar; secretary, Mrs. E. E. Littlefield; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Furry. Business of importance also was transacted.

Sunday evening, March 4th, the C. E. society will begin a series of popular studies and discussion meetings on "India on the March," including brief talks, papers, reviews, music and special features in costume or otherwise, of unusual interest to all. Song service at 6:30. Brief devotional service promptly at 6:45, followed at 7 by the exercises of the evening. Everybody invited.

Special music and sermon at the morning service at 11. Bible school at 10. Our Sunday school is growing steadily in attendance and interest, and is worth while to any one who possibly can to attend.

20th Century Grocery Store

Formal Benefit Opening at Medford and Ashland

Saturday March 3rd

At 9 o'clock

These stores represent a new and important addition to the Food Consumers Life. Closely associated with and a part of these stores, is all the buying power and merchandising experience of 23 other stores.

Immediately you enter one, you become impressed with the neatness of the store, the courtesy of the clerks, and an unusual reflection of honesty.

The management of these stores has been quick to realize the fact that the combined intelligence of the buying public is far superior to the wisdom of any one man, or group of men. So these stores set out to succeed with the latter idea uppermost in mind. That they have been successful to a wonderful degree will be attested to by thousands of careful buyers in Oregon.
