Portland Citizen Declares Famous Medicine Ended Indigestion, Gases and Worn-out Feeling, Restoring Full Weight and Strength.

"I have gained ten pounds and feel like a brand new man," recently asserted Louis Hedberg, Liberty Hotel, Front and Madison streets, Portland, Oregon, in telling of the benefits he had derived from the use of Tanlac.

"Since I started on the Tanlac treatment I have taken just three bottles so far, and already I have a corking good appetite and never feel a touch of any of my old troubles. In fact I am feeling simply fine, and cannot praise Tanlac too highly."

SCOTTISH RITE TO OBSERVE MYSTIC BANQUET MCH. 29

Meeting at Masonic Temple, Thursday evening, Easter Sunday is one of the best, if not the best known and most widely observed of religious holidays in the Christian calendar. In fraternal circles this day and the events commemorated by it are of particular interest to Templars. It is no less sacred to the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite. It is particularly a Rose-Croix observance. The Rose-Croix observances begin with the celebration of the Mystic Banquet on Thursday evening followed by the ceremony of "extinguishing the lights" commemorating the treachery of Judas Iscariot. The ceremony of re-lighting the "tapers" is observed on Easter morning, and is symbolical of the resurrection and Christ's triumph over death.

GOOD ATTENDANCE REVIVAL MEETINGS

The pre-Easter evangelistic service last evening at the First Baptist church was the best of the week in point of attendance and interest. The house was well filled with an audience which was deeply impressed with Dr. Reid's stirring message. Several came forward at the invitation, like a large number of young people, who were active Christians. A marked characteristic of the meetings is the large numbers who have not missed an evening. Once people hear Dr. Reid they invariably return. A series of great interest on "The Seven Sayings of Christ on the Cross" will be given next week, starting Sunday evening. The service this evening will close the meetings for this week. Three large services will be held Sunday including a special address at the Sunday school hour. Tonight the closing address on "Pilgrim's Progress" will be given. These short addresses have been of great interest to all who have been privileged to hear them. The evangelist without doubt ranks high among the evangelists of the day. He depends entirely upon the gospel message to reach the people. He has no side issues or appeals to the lower self.

The sermons last night made a deep impression, as the speaker told of Judas' betrayal of Christ. The baseness of his character, the low content in which he is best universally was vividly portrayed. Judas started by taking a little money and finished by selling his Lord. Yet no act of man can turn away the love of Jesus. If you say because of man's sin God does not love you, do not preach the gospel. God loves every man. Christ asked Judas why he had come, in order to show him how baseness is not his. He was committing God's heart before he can do anything with man. Christ is here and is calling for men today. Jesus is seeking you; are you seeking him?

Any who have not heard Dr. Reid will do well to attend the meeting this evening. Mrs. Scott has been singing a gospel solo each evening, reaching the hearts by the song.

Homestead Perils.

DENVER, March 22.—Trapped in a storm near Black Mountain, Craig county last Tuesday, James Sorrel, a homesteader and his fourteen-year-old daughter Velma, perished after a futile attempt to reach shelter by clinging to the backs of helpless horses which they unharnessed from a backboard, according to a story printed in the Post today.
