

CENTRAL POINT TO TAKE ACTIVE PART IN TRACK MEET

CENTRAL POINT, March 23.—The track at the school yard has been put in good shape by the students, in preparation of the track meet of the different schools of the valley. Other equipment has been set up, such as vaulting standards and high jumping standards. No doubt many will try out for the different events. Mr. Charles Cunningham has been placed in charge of the A Class, those who are under twelve. The others are under the efficient care of Mr. Jewett, superintendent of schools of Central Point. Central Point has now the cup in its possession, having won three track meets. The school stands a very good chance of repeating the performance as some very good material is at hand. The track meet takes place some time in May in the city of Talent.

The entrance to the butcher shop underwent some needed repairs last week. New cement was laid on the entrance from the sidewalk, making it much safer than heretofore had been.

The outside work is now practically finished on the central telephone office building. Work has been started on the inside, making the building ready to be occupied by the first of next month.

Miss Alma Austin arrived from Portland to visit her mother and sister Lois of this city.

Central Point was quite well represented at the typing and bookkeeping contest at Medford. Benton Boyce received third award in the latter, while Miss Mildred Burger received third in the typing contest. Others who also entered were Miss Hildegard Lange, Mr. Earl Leever and Clifford Boswell.

A very large crowd greeted the second country store held by the F and E theatre Monday evening. Very many useful gifts were given out to the audience, including a sack of flour, water canteen, potatoes, coffee, motor oil and many others. The management is now running a serial play, "The Timber Queen" Thursdays and Fridays. Tonight they will present along with it "Women Who Wait." Tomorrow they will show "Boomerang Bill," with Lionel Barrymore. Others to be shown through the coming week are "Her Night of Nights" and "A Tale of Two Worlds."

Mr. Carl Bennett is now fully recovered from a severe case of influenza with which he was confined to his home for two weeks.

Miss Mona Lewis was the hostess of a party given in honor of her ninth birthday. Many of her schoolmates were present to enjoy themselves and partake of the delicious refreshments.

Miss Lotha Grigsby, well known young lady of this city was married to Mr. Clyde Morris the first part of this week. They are now in Portland, where Mr. Morris is employed.

Mr. Ober, Y. M. C. A. worker, addressed the high school Tuesday afternoon. He pointed out the value of education and also dwelt on other subjects. His address was well liked by the students.

Mr. Oscar Vaughn of Medford, was a visitor in Central Point Thursday evening.

The local lodge of Rebekahs initiated nine members into their lodge Wednesday evening. A large delegation was present from Gold Hill and also from Medford. After the ceremonies refreshments were served and a general good time had.

The Epworth League team met defeat at the hands of the Christian church team Thursday night. The score at the end of the game was 24 to 18.

All the members and elders of the Union church, held supper in the basement of the church. A business session was also held. A large number were present.

Mr. Clarke McDowell is assisting Mr. Seaborn in the operating of the F and E theatre for the past week.

Mr. Sanford Richardson and Ted Caster are now employed at Weed, Cal. in a sawmill. They arrived there about two weeks ago.

Mr. Gene Watkins was a visitor at the home of Miss La Walker Thursday afternoon.

Mr. R. H. Paxson is now fully recovered from his severe pneumonia, after an absence of about a month, returned to his establishment, the first of the week.

Mr. John Dewa and family have moved from their place of residence in this city, to a farm in the Willow Springs district.

No doubt another large crowd will greet the next country store held at the F and E theatre.

Mr. Fred Kelso and parents of Gold Hill were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Wesley Kelso.

Mr. Joe Boswell of Hornbrook, California, visited his family Thursday and Friday, returning Friday morning.

Mr. J. P. Pickett returned to his home in this city after an absence of a month. While he was gone he visited in Minnesota, his former home.

Mr. Bruce Pickett arrived in this city last week from the Oregon Agricultural college, to visit his parents during the spring vacation.

Mr. Moore Hamilton, freshman at the Oregon Agricultural college, arrived in this city the first part of the week to visit his parents during the spring vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baraker who was a beautiful day and I felt about twenty years younger than I did when I wrote that blue letter and spoke of throwing up the job of writing the Eagle Point Eaglets.

It had been arranged among the members of the Civic Improvement club of Eagle Point to hold their meeting at the Sunnyside hotel on Thursday afternoon, March 15th, 2:30, under the management of Mrs. Tedrick and the hostess of the hotel and by a little after noon the ladies commenced to come in, and through the kindness of the secretary of the club I was furnished with the following list of the members who were in attendance: Mrs. Seaman, Mrs. A. J. Flory, Mrs. Ashpole, Mrs. Clements, Mrs. M. L. Pruitt, Mesdames S. B. Holmes, A. R. McDonald, J. W. Smith, W. H. Brown, D. H. Bryant, E. V. Maddox, both of Medford; M. S. Wood, Roy Smith, Lottie Vanscoy, Weidman, Fred Pettigrew, Amy Brown Tedwick, H. E. Campbell, Thos. Clineado, Lizzie Perry, John Rader, Gus Nichols, Lucius Kincaid, Mrs. Reid, Charley Denton, Roy Stanley, Miss Ruth Wiley, Mrs. Geo. B. Holmes and Mrs. Elmer Wilson, thirty-one members besides five small children, and during the festivities of the afternoon Mrs. Campbell took photos of the babies.

After spending a few hours in a social way the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Campbell and the record of the meeting was read and approved and at the close the members and visitors were invited to the dining room where a lunch was spread. My reporter says a lovely luncheon was served by the hostess and at the close it was announced that on the next day your scribe would be ninety-one years old and congratulations were given and received from the entire company of warm friends.

There was a truck load of powder came out for C. H. Nutwick to be used on his contract on the Butte Falls-Eagle Point canal.

Shorty Allen of Weiten was a business caller Thursday and so was Frank Simpson and E. O. Hildreth. The two spent the night at the Sunnyside and Mr. Hildreth being a deputy assessor engaged a room while he is assessing this part of the county.

There has been another change made in the mail routes; now instead of the Eagle Point-Butte Falls stage taking the Prospect mail and having to wait until the carrier arrives at Derby the mail is sent from here direct to Prospect via Trail and the man from Prospect comes to Trail and thus relieves the Eagle Point-Butte Falls carrier of the bother of having to wait until the Prospect mail waltzes through the mud and snow for him to make the trip.

Mrs. O. M. Gass of Butte Falls who has been visiting friends in Fresno, Calif., came in on the stage Saturday on her way home. George Ladd and Harold Patten were also on the stage on their way to Butte Falls.

The Brown firm report that G. E. Neuber of Medford, who has a homestead in the Butte Falls country called and laid in a supply of groceries to take up to his homestead. I also met W. H. Crandall at Browns the same day.

Among the people from the country trading with Ashpole and Nichols hardware were Robert Rose, Ralph Belberstadt, L. K. Haak, F. G. Ayres and wife, Alex Anderson, Brownsboro, W. E. Morgan and wife, Trail, and the same day I met Wm. Holmen, wife and baby, of Salt creek, and Mrs. T. T. Taylor of Lake Creek and Clifford Hickson of Ashland.

Among the callers Saturday for dinner were Ralph Cowell and another civil engineer J. W. Cunningham of Portland, representatives of the purchasers of the bonds of the Eagle Point Irrigation District, C. Frey of Lake Creek was also a business caller.

Among the callers Sunday were Mrs. C. J. Fry, J. L. Bell, C. F. Bell, all of Medford, and Mrs. Wallace of Everett, Wash., Gus Newbury and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Feldman, R. H. Hubbs and wife, Charles E. Terrill, wife and son Glen and Mrs. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Farrar, Wm. Berry and wife, and for supper James Taylor of the Valley Fuel Co., and wife, Mrs. Romley and Miss Dunham, all of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baraker who are living in the W. P. Morgan house had a birthday party, it being his 53d birthday. There were about thirty people there and among them were the Stilles, the Coghills, the Haunfords who came to that neighborhood last fall at the same time he did. He reports that they had a very pleasant time, all being acquainted.

At the last meeting of the town council an ordinance was introduced and considered regulating the speed of automobiles and other motor vehicles, also regulating the speed that horses may be rode or driven on the streets; also considering an ordinance establishing a curfew.

W. E. Baraker gave me his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune and the Medford Sun Monday.

land arrived Monday evening in our city and are guests of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ottelid.

NICCOLA SACCO SAFE IN MENTAL HOSPITAL

BOSTON, March 24.—Niccola Sacco, convicted murderer under observation at the psychopathic hospital by court order as a result of his hunger strike at the Dedham jail was comfortable today after seven hours sleep, hospital officials said. He was reported stronger and the physicians considered that all danger of serious effects from his prolonged fast had passed.

SAN FRANCISCO DRY AGENT IS RETAINED

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Announcement that Samuel F. Rutter would be retained as divisional prohibition chief at San Francisco was made today by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes, who said that while Rutter's removal had been sought it had been determined that influences behind the movement were unfriendly to prohibition enforcement.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

The last time I wrote for the Mail Tribune I found that before I reached the principal event of the day Thursday that my letter had already reached the usual limit, a column, so I will simply start off where I left off and resume the incidents of that day for it
