HOME, SWEET HOME OPENS EXPOSITION

CHICAGO, Mar. 24.—In observance of the one hundredth anniversary of the writing of "Home Sweet Home," by John Howard Payne, the opening day of the annual "Own Your Own Home Exposition" here will be known by the name of the old song. President Harding wrote as a greeting: "Believing that nothing can do more towards the development of the highest attributes of good citizenship than the ownership by every family of its own home, I am always glad to endorse effective efforts to encourage home ownership."

ENGLISH REFUSE TO FILL U. S. ORDER

LONDON, March 24.—The Sheffield forge and rolling mills have just declined an American order for 300,000 special steel bars. The order was originally intended for Ruhr plants, but cannot be filled by them. "In view of the lack of consideration shown by America to Sheffield as instanced by the Fordney tariff aimed at Sheffield special steel, the correspondent adds, local firms are not prepared to hold up orders of English customers in favor of American competitors."
