To make a second start on the mapping of harbors in Oregon and Washington from the air by means of the camera, Lieutenant W. C. Goldsborough of the United States army flying corps, Sergeant W. L. Klutz and Privates E. A. Fatt and H. F. Carlow plan to take the air from Eugene today for the Puget Sound country. They arrived in Eugene Sunday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock from Crissay field, San Francisco, where they started at noon, passing over Medford without stopping.

R. I. Red setting eggs at DeVoe's. Mrs. Chester C. Kuhl of the Applegate spent Sunday in the city visiting friends and relatives. The committee of Elks in charge of entertainment for Thursday, April 5th when the new officers will be installed are negotiating with Joe Gorman of Grants Pass to be one of the principals in the main event of the smoker. Definite plans as yet have not been arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Davidson left Sunday morning for Portland where they will remain, visiting friends, until the first of April.

A meeting of the volunteer firemen will take place this evening at 7:30 at the fire hall.

H. B. Tronson left last evening for Portland after having spent the past three weeks in Eagle Point visiting friends.

What is believed to be the final hearing in the O. & C. land grant case started Monday afternoon before Federal Judge C. E. Wolverton in Portland, the purpose of which is to determine how much money the government owes the railroad for forfeiture of railroad land grants. The hearing probably will occupy four days. S. W. Williams, special assistant to the attorney general, is representing the government and attorneys for the Southern Pacific are representing the Oregon and California Railroad company.

Paul Young and L. Coggins returned Sunday from Taft, Calif., where they have been employed in the oil fields. Young will leave in a few days for his homestead in the hills.

Fire Chief Roy Elliott, accompanied by one of the members of the fire department was busy this morning inspecting numerous buildings in the city. An inspection is made every Saturday and every Tuesday by the chief and one other member of the department to prevent unnecessary hazard.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Kent,

Ohio, owners of the old Ware place on King's Highway left yesterday after having spent several days here inspecting their property holdings. The company which presented "The Bat" last night at the Page departed early this morning for Eugene where the play will be given tonight. The company appears in Salem on Wednesday night and opens its three days Portland engagement on Thursday night.

Joel Jarl, who has been visiting his wife and son in this city for the last few days, left for Portland this morning.

SARAH'S BROTHER NOT MOURNER

"Sarah received me in her rooms and I told her I thought it was as little as she could do to send me to school for a year or two. I was in the show then. I told her I had not had a chance and that I at least wanted a business course. The way Sarah snapped me off made me mad and I told her in words, perhaps too harsh, that I hoped I would never lay eyes upon her again. We parted in anger and have never had a conversation since that day. I have seen her several times since, but we were both too stubborn to give in and we have been strangers since that time. Another thing that turned me against Sarah, I asked her about father and she seemed afraid that I was going to hunt him up and report how she had treated me. She refused to give any information about the family. A few years ago Sarah sent one of her company here to make overtures, but I told him that if anything was done, Sarah would have to make her own overtures."

Bernhardt says his sister Jeanne played in this country with Sarah and later starred in her own company, afterwards marrying J. C. Smith, a Chicago druggist.

Bernhardt's wife is dead. She was an actress. Only one of their three children survives, according to Bernhardt, Mrs. George Caldwell of Detroit, widow of a circus man who lost his life in the Galveston flood.

The Daily Bank Robbery

TOPEKA, Kas., March 27.—Sheriff Albert E. Mayer of Pottawatomie county was shot and seriously wounded today by bank robbers after the bandits had looted the Farmers' State bank at West Moreland, Kas., according to word received at the office of the state bank commissioner here.

As the robbers had cut the wires into West Moreland details were lacking. The sheriff was removed to a hospital at Manhattan. He received two charges of buckshot, the report said.

The bandits blew open the safe. When last seen they were driving south from Pottawatomie in an automobile.

Colds Are Contagious

Coughs and Colds are contagious and require prompt treatment as they spread or develop into Flu and Grippe. Take no chances when you can get Foley's Honey and Tar for a few cents and quickly check coughs and colds. The constantly increasing demand for Foley's Honey and Tar, for three generations, has made it the largest selling cough medicine in the World. Contains no opiates—ingredients are printed on the wrapper. Refuse substitutes. Insist upon Foley's. Sold everywhere. Adv.

FARMERS WITHOUT IRRIGATION HOPE FOR SPRING RAIN

There is much concern among the agriculturalists of the valley and county, whose lands are unirrigated about the dearth of rain so far in this section, especially during March and February, which is far below normal. Only 10.99 inches of rain has fallen so far since last September, and it is felt by many that unless there is quite a rain fall during the remainder of this month and in April, May and June the crops on the unirrigated lands will be poor.

But while there is apprehension there is some precedent that there may be such a rainfall, as since 1883, when the official taking of records was begun by the weather bureau here, these records show that there has been a copious rainfall during April, May and June once every eight or nine years, and this record is about due to be repeated.

In the rainy year of 1912-1913 there occurred the last heavy fall during these three months. In May of 1891 a lot of rain fell.

The total rainfall for the past five complete years is as follows:

1922, 17.01; 1921, 16.21; 1920, 16.33; 1919, 14.33; 1918, 15.68.

As compared with light moisture so far this year of only 10.99 inches here and 11 inches at the Southern Oregon Experiment station at Talent, the following March rain fall during the past five years is interesting: 1922, 1.84 inches; 1921, 1.06 inches; 1920, 1.44 inches; 1919, 1.76 inches; 1918, 1.69 inches.

The February rainfall for the past five years is as follows: 1922, 2.33; 1921, 3.31; 1920, .22 of an inch; 1918, 3.49; 1918, 2.64.

The monthly rainfall so far this rain weather year is shown by the records to be as follows:

September, .50 of an inch; October, 1.48; November, 1.35; December, 5.26; January, 1.61; February, .38; March, 29.

The Noted Dead

LONDON, March 27.—Sir James Dewar, noted scientist, died today.

Sir James Dewar, a noted British scientist, was the co-inventor with Sir Frederick Abel of Cordite, the smokeless powder adopted by the government. He also brought forward the Dewar flask, popularly known as the thermos flask. His contribution to chemical knowledge received recognition from scientific societies in England, France, the United States, Italy and Germany. He was in his 81st year.

JESS WILLARD IS TRAINING HARD FOR F. JOHNSON

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Mar. 27.—(By Associated Press). Jess Willard has been in training for two weeks for his bout with Floyd Johnson in New York, May 12. The former champion is willing, he said today, to meet Fitzo, the South American titleholder, if necessary to obtain a match with Dempsey.

Jess arises at six o'clock, takes an eight mile workout on the hilly roads of this region and after a shower bath and an hour under the hands of his rubber, rests until three o'clock in the afternoon.

He then punches the bag for three rounds, boxes four rounds with his boxing partner, Harry Drake of London, does four rounds of shadow boxing, clinches and tugs with a professional wrestler for four rounds to strengthen his shoulders and improve his wind, and finishes up his ring work with three or four rounds of exercise. After this he takes a shower and remains on the rubbing table until six p. m.

HOW TO REDUCE VARICOSE VEINS

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches.

If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first class drug store and apply it at home as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moore's Emerald Oil is very concentrated and a bottle lasts a long time—that's why it is a most inexpensive treatment. It has brought much comfort to worried people all over the country and is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and always bear in mind that anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. Heath's Drug Store and West Side Pharmacy can supply you. Adv.

BOSTON—Floyd Johnson of Iowa knocked out Ray Thompson of New York in twenty seconds.

EUGENE, Ore., Mar. 27.—With forty men already signed up for spring football at University of Oregon, prospects are bright for a good turnout of the grid workouts after Easter. Coach Sky Huntington expects a large number to sign for the sport with the opening of the next quarter.

The present schedule for the gridiron training for next term will see it started about April 16, while the workouts will continue throughout the month of May.

CATHOLICS ARE AROUSED

Dutchavitch in Moscow, and it is understood Pope Pius is exerting his personal influence to save the lives of the prelates. When the cases came up recently the holy see interposed its good offices through the Russian minister here and the soviet government responded that the accused Catholics would be tried with perfect "dispassionateness."

The extremity to which the court went in imposing penalties has caused the greatest disappointment.
