Is Holding His Own

"Ten years ago I received such wonderful help from your medicine for my stomach trouble that I have recommended it to hundreds of other sufferers. Recently a friend of mine whose brother in a distant city was stricken with acute indigestion and was not expected to live, got his brother to take a bottle on my advice. I have just received word that his brother was holding his own, and I am confident that Mayr's Wonderful Remedy will entirely restore him." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at all druggists.

"Minnie" Earns Critic's Praise
Too much cannot be said in favor of "Minnie," which is showing at the Rialto theatre this week.

It is real screen entertainment, with an excellent human story and thrills aplenty, but its big quality is in its humorous situations. The audiences at the Rialto roared with laughter time and again. Marshall Neilan has taken life in a small town country hotel and put the incidents on the screen in life-like fashion—nowhere does he exaggerate. Hence the spontaneous humor—the most enjoyable kind.

Leatrice Joy and Matt Moore are featured.
Motion picture-goers will miss something if they don't see "Minnie."

"The Hottentot" Attracts
"The Hottentot" is racing along merrily to continued big results at the Page theatre, where it plays until tomorrow night. There are thrills and laughs galore, primarily at the expense of a man who was so utterly afraid of horses that he would not even go near a merry-go-round.

"All my life I've been afraid of horses," says the man who rides "The Hottentot" to victory in a dangerous race. He fears horses more than anything else and still he wins in one of the most exciting steeplechases ever filmed. He wins both the race and the girl in the case. And he does it on sheer nerve.

"The Hottentot" furnishes laughter and excitement from beginning to end. It starts from a race between a runaway horse and an auto and ends with a unique steeplechase.

Douglas MacLean plays the part of Sam Harrington, the role which was created for the stage by William Collier. Raymond Hatton, as the butler, is at his best, and Madge Bellamy endears herself as the winsome Peggy Fairfax, whose love for horses makes a man out of Sam.

EASTER PROGRAM PHOENIX CHURCH

"The Gospel of Easter,"—for today and forever,—will be the theme on Sunday morning, April 1, at the Phoenix church. Fearis's cantata, "The Gospel of Easter," will be given at 11 o'clock by the double quartet consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Frame, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Hara, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Sheets, Mrs. J. M. Rader and Mr. Harold Corliss, accompanied by Mrs. Lester Fay. There will be a brief Easter message by the pastor, and a free will offering for carrying the glad tidings of the risen Savior into all the world.

The Sunday school at 10 a. m. will open with a half hour's program of Easter songs and exercises, followed by study of the Bible lesson, "The Walk to Emmaus," Luke 24.

Beginning with this Sunday, April 1st, the Sunday evening services will begin a half-hour later. Young People's song service and Easter meeting at 7 o'clock. Everybody invited to attend and help make this a fitting close for a day commemorating the resurrection of Him "who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification; and who says, 'I am the Living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore!'"

According to opinions expressed by many large employers, single women are more reliable as workers than married women.
