NEAT FOLDER OF EAGLE POINT DISTRICT ISSUED

The Eagle Point Irrigation District has issued a neat folder describing, in a brief way, some of the advantages of the Eagle Point country as a horticultural, agricultural, stock and fruit raising district as well as the beautiful scenery, abundance of pure water, splendid fishing and hunting, wonderful climate.

The folder contains a picture of an orchard and a Little Butte creek scene while the cover page, printed in colors shows snow-capped Mt. Pitt, and an eagle carrying a pear.

It also calls particular attention to the increased advantages of the district under the irrigation system which supplies water for 6000 acres.

The people of Eagle Point have a delightful country in every way and will no doubt get their share of the new settlers in Oregon because they are going after it.
