Cases in cooperation with the court are being constantly taken up with satisfactory results, investigations are always promptly made upon the court's request and the resulting policles are carefully worked out in con-junction with the court. This month at the request of the court the investigation and service in two widow cases, one juvenile delinquent case, one family case, where a jail sentence on the father, causes destitution, have resulted in constructive work these people. Courtesy and co-opera-tive helpfulness have to a marked degree characterized the attitude of the county court in these cases.

At the request of the Court of Do-mestic Relations in Portland there have also been investigations carried on by the Red Cross Report of Thrift Shop for March 1923.

A great deal of work has been done in the Thrift Shop during the month of March. On March 14th we had a drive for discarded garments and while we received a number of articles there were not enough to supply the demands of the shop for any great length of time. This is especially true of men's clothing. We have had to turn away a number of disappointed customers because we did not have what they needed.

On March 28th we had our opening day, with a good display of hats and summer goods. Quite a number of people attended and we sold about $20 worth of goods that day. For a week before our opening the Busy Corner Motor Co. gave us window space for a nice display of articles made in the shop. We also made posters advertis-Jacksonville and Central Point.

We have helped a great many people during the month in the matter of work in the shop. One lady came into the shop in tears one day; her husband ill and out of a job; reut due; no money; had three little ones. She needed bandages for her husband and various articles of apparel, which we supplied. She discovered she could come to the shop and work out the articles she needed and was very pleased but said, "I can't sew or cut When she learned that we would teach her in the shop she was delighted and said, "Will you really teach me all these things? I'll be so glad to learn. Another woman, who has been working in the shop, arrived in Medford three years ago with her husband and six children, after having driven across country in a wagon from Kentucky. They had been three years making the trip, as they had to stop 11; hospitals, 3; police, 3; Salvation Army, 1; American Legion, 1; schools 2; truant officer, 1; court, 19.

Plans are on for a drive at Central-Point also,

On March 6th the manager took sewing to the ladies of Table Rock. who have formed sewing clubs at those places. She also gave a talk to ladies on the work and aim of the Shop.

During the month she has also been to Central Point and Jacksonville to see about forming sewing clubs at those places. She also took ads to put in their local papers. She succeeded in getting one in the Jacksonville Post but found that Central Point had no paper. She also went to Rogue River with Miss Haines to make plans with the board member there.

An invalid from Central Point sent us three protty sofa pillows which she had made and wished us to sell for her, but have not been able to sell

been donated to 43 people.
