

EX-CITY ATTORNEY MEARS GETS HIGH PRAISE FROM CITY

The city administration paid high tribute to Fred W. Mears, until recently city attorney for years, and who leaves soon for Los Angeles, his future home, by adopting last night the following resolution, unanimously with all the councilmen and the mayor present, and signed by Mayor E. C. Gaddis in open session:

"Whereas, Attorney Fred W. Mears is moving from Medford to southern California, and for that purpose has resigned as City Attorney of the city of Medford, Oregon, and,

"Whereas, he has been city attorney of this city for over six years, during the reorganization period of the city and during the war period and has handled all the matters coming before the city in a manner reflecting credit both upon himself and upon said city;

"Now, therefore, be it resolved by the council of the city of Medford:

"That the city do by this resolution publicly express its appreciation of the services rendered to the city of Medford by said Fred W. Mears, both as a citizen of high standing and as one of its public officials, during a long period of difficult service.

"Be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Hon. Fred W. Mears and copies given to the press of the city."

DECLARE CLEAN UP WEEK FOR MEDFORD FROM APRIL 22-25

The last week of April was designated by the city council at its meeting last night as general clean up week in Medford in order that the city may present its best appearance, especially for the state convention of the federated women's clubs May 22-25, when many women will be present from all parts of the state.

The mayor and council will issue an appeal to the public to clean up the alleys and yards that week of tin cans, rubbish and the like and have it hauled away. However, this must be done at each household's own expense, as the administration deems the city treasury too poor to have free hauling away of the rubbish collected. Ashland recently had a clean up week at that city's expense.

The matter was brought up at last night's council meeting by Councilman B. W. Paul at the request of the club women of the city, who had also asked the mayor and other councilmen to see that a clean up was arranged for, hence the action was taken unanimously with but little debate.

TURKS EXONERATED OF MALICIOUSNESS

WASHINGTON, April 18.—State department agents designated to investigate charges that Turkish soldiers had mutilated the body and destroyed the coffin of George Dilboy, an American soldier to whom a congressional medal of honor was awarded after he met his death in the world war, in a preliminary report the agents said "those responsible for the profanation were apparently actuated by cupidity rather than by malice or any intentional act of disrespect."

Going Some!
DAYTON, Ohio, April 18.—Lieutenant Harold Harris, flying a DeHavilland B-1, established a new world record yesterday for 1500 kilometers, making the distance in 8 hours and 9 minutes, or at the rate of about 114 miles an hour.

BALLOTS GO OUT AS COLONEL BULL ISSUES BROADSIDE

"Colonel Bull's present campaign is not, as one may suspect at first, one to elect certain of his friends to the directorate of the Chamber of Commerce, but rather to secure personal aggrandizement. The colonel has been bitten by a publicity bug of the most virulent species. He is a limelight hound of the first water and is grasping the opportunity of the coming election to gain notoriety for himself. The candidates he has selected on his Gump ticket are his misguided tools."

The speaker was an influential citizen who asked his name to be withheld because he has always kept out of politics. His testimonial was delivered from the shoe shining stand of Mr. George Washington Maddox. Mr. Maddox corroborated the opinion thus:

"Yessuh, de Colonel am a great believer in pomp and circumstance. He done drive in from Buncombe evvy day in his flivvuh and his shiny puttees and his shiny nose jes' like he's one of dese country genuintmen. Ah guess he think his shack in Buncombe is Tammany Hall or sumpin. Looks to me like his ticket gone get about ten votes. Ah knows Ah's cast-in mine for de Cratuh's ticket. Yessuh, dat Cratuh's ticket am one hundred per cent. De Colonel can't fool Georgie."

Colonel Bull's Last Stand
Today ballots go out to every member of the Chamber of Commerce. There will be three tickets—the Craters, the Business Men's, and last but not least, the Andy Gump ticket.

The A. G. ticket got into the field late, but it came in with a bang, and it freshened things up.

The Craters' and Business Men's tickets mean nothing and stand for nothing. They were spawned in the dark and are the natural offspring of the rotten Oregon system. These thirty-six men are not standing on any platform of principles, nor have they announced any policies. So far as intelligent voting is concerned, every man jack of them is an unknown quantity.

The time has come for the Medford Chamber of Commerce to move forward onto new and higher ground. The people of this community are going to expect certain things of this board of directors. For one thing, the people will demand, and the time is ripe, for an up-to-date Medford booklet—a gem, a work of art, a thing of beauty,—something to excite and stimulate our dull imaginations; telling in rich and glowing words of our achievements in the past, and beckoning to the people of the crowded and dissatisfied, with the magic of engraving and portraiture of pictured story.

Do you have any assurance that you will get this sort of a booklet if you elect nine men from the Craters, of Business Men's ticket? Do you know by any pledge or promise they have made that a single one of these men "are rarin' to tell the world" about this smiling valley, the land of soft winds, gentle rains, and sparkling sunshine?

Now the members of the A. G. ticket, individually and collectively are pledged to do certain definite things. They are pledged to "tell the world" about this spot, favored of the gods, and they are pledged to find enough money to make up a booklet of such attractiveness that it will allure and entice tens of thousands to come and share with us the fullness and bounty, the contentment and happiness, of this western wonderland.

I think the electorate of the Chamber of Commerce know pretty well what they want—the question is do they know how to go about getting it.

I am an old-timer in this country, I love it with a love that passeth understanding, therefore I feel qualified to advise with you. It is in no spirit of levity that I exhort you to vote the Andy Gump ticket straight. These men stand for the things you want, and if elected will not violate their pledged word nor betray your confidence.

Now, a word personal to myself. It was a sacrifice as well as a pleasure for an old Rebel soldier to leave his own fireside and come to Medford to make a fight for the Andy Gump ticket. I didn't expect that either myself or my ticket would be handled with gloves, but the eruptions were more violent than I expected. In the main the fight has been a clean one. However, it is about over and the fate of the Andy Gump ticket is in the lap of the gods, or to be more exact, in the hands of the free and intelligent electorate of the Chamber of Commerce.

COL. E. BULL,

are making a special trip from Portland to be present and give honor to the occasion.

No formal invitations have been issued; but through previous announcements in the press and by personal intercourse, the friends of church members and the public generally are cordially invited to be present.

working organizations, and of the social activities of St. Mark's; and although not yet completely furnished is already the home of many business and social societies.

It is architecturally designed on the same lines as the church, and the two buildings, on adjacent corners, present a pleasing picture and are a credit to the workers of the church.

EDDIE DURNO NOT TO COACH MEDFORD HIGH NEXT YEAR

The news that Eddie Durno, the efficient coach of the Medford high school, will not be back next year will be received with profound regret not only by the student body of the schools, but by the public generally.

Mr. Durno, who has been one of the most popular coaches in Medford's history, despite the fact that he did not win any state championships this year was generally looked upon to bring home the bacon next year with Medford teams in one or more lines of athletic endeavor. He has always had his team in the running, however, and has had them wholesomely respected by opposing teams.

Mr. Durno has decided to quit coaching and attend the medical school of the University of Oregon, at Portland next year. He was re-elected coach and instructor in physical education, but at the salary of $2400, the same sum he received for this year's work. He desired a salary of $2900, which the school board found itself unable to grant.

Then a movement was started to have the extra five hundred dollars wanted raised among a body of business men. That could easily have been done it is claimed because of Durno's ability and popularity as a coach, which brought Medford prestige throughout the state. It is said that about $400 had been pledged, or was about to be, when some one happened to think that $2900 for the coach would be $100 more than what Principal Campbell of the high school would receive for next year. That would hardly look right, it was deemed, and the movement consequently was abandoned.

Mr. Durno was unwilling to work at the $2400 salary and has decided to begin his medical course next year. When he came to Medford last year it was with the express understanding that he would only serve one year.

The board of education has a number of candidates under consideration to succeed Durno, but so far has made no selection, moving carefully, in order to be sure and get the best possible man available for the money.

Revive Astoria Regatta
ASTORIA, Ore., April 18.—The rejuvenation of the old Astoria regatta which for many years was among the leading water carnivals on the Pacific coast, is being planned and committees have been named to arrange for the feature next August.

Quick Quaker Oats

Cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes

Ready at 7:05 Before the eggs or coffee

Now our experts have perfected a Quick Quaker Oats—the quickest-cooking oats in the world. Your grocer now has it as well as the regular. Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. The cooking is perfect—experts certify to that.

The same exquisite flavor

The fame of Quaker Oats is due to super-flavor. We flake the queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats. We get but ten pounds from a bushel.

All the world over Quaker Oats dominates, because people love that flavor. And Quaker will always have it.

Quick Quaker is made from the same queen oats. The flavor is identical. But we cut the grains before flaking. Then we roll them thin and partly cook.

So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

Now you have a double reason for selecting Quaker Oats. You get that exquisite flavor. And you get, if you wish, flakes that cook almost instantly. In either respect, there is no other oat dish in existence that compares.
