Ye Smudge Pot

By Arthur Perry.

The I. W. W. open their spring hell-raising with an ultimatum, and they have learned from politicians the way to public sympathy and support. They warn the "liquor interests," and while earnestly endeavoring to start a revolution, announce the taking of a swing at Demon Rum. Fine business, for being "dry" is good policy. It sanctifies a candidacy for office, and glorifies organized cussedness.

LONGLEGGED GALS

(Moretown, Vt., Republic)
The Moretown girls do not mind the cold weather, for they go to school when the mercury is 30 below zero bareheaded and their stockings rolled down a distance of two miles.

One of these days horseshoe pitching will be modernized, and a use found for old tires.

The fruit crop this year is not going to amount to much, as it has not been totally ruined by the frost.

"The Emperor" has proclaimed, in kingly fashion, that New York City is "a menace to the nation," and the royal remarks thrilled his obedient subjects. They hang on his words.
As His Majesty well knows there are only two righteous cities in his kingdom. They are Atlanta, Ga., and Portland, Ore.

THE BUILDING ENJOYED THE TRIP VERY, VERY MUCH

(Glendale News)
Our postoffice and our postmaster went to Roseburg on business last Saturday. And he said it rained as he was coming home.
At any rate our post office meets all requirements and reaches the desires of all its patrons.

Leaders of the Republican party in every state in the Union will meet to discuss the situation, and find out why the GOP has palpitation of the unity. In Oregon there is no need to hold a meeting to find out what ails 'em.

When the Espoo starts tearing down confine themselves to their own property.

The new spring ties for the Shieks

THE PROGRESS OF ART

(Eugene Guard)
Ren Sanford, the artist of Cottage Grove, painted a big sign for the carnival to be given by the Odd Fellows and Rebekas in the armory Saturday, May 12th.
The lodge has hung it across the street, at the corner of Main and Sixth.

Practising attorneys sometimes need more practise.

The rises in the price of sugar, are as puzzling as the 1919 economic problem of why shoes cost $11, when it was impossible to give a cowhide away.

The $50,000 suit of a young lady against the prominent and hardhitting Babe Ruth, for one thing and another, duly alleged, has petered out ingloriously. There seems to have been considerable doubt about the charges from the start, as they were the kind for which many men have been shot by irate females. Dolores, instead, went after the coin instead of the six-shooter, which caused suspicions.

sonable, if you are hard to fit—Come ing of plumpness.

THE I. W. W. BLUFF.

AMERICANS think in symbols. The I. W. W. ultimatum issued in Portland, therefore sounds somewhat terrifying, not because of the ultimatum, but because of the I. W. W.

The provisions of the ultimatum seem to us rather mild. Many good Americans of liberal mind, including Jane Addams and Senator Borah have advocated the release of political prisoners.

There is nothing revolutionary in a request for higher wages or for the proper sanitation of the lumber camps.

As for the elimination of "upper berths,"—thousands of excellent people have opposed upper berths, including such celebrities as Irvin Cobb, Arnold Bennett and Jess Willard.

The only other important demand is that the bootleggers close up their business, and we have yet to hear of any citizen in this state or country, arising to demand that the bootleggers keep open.

In short this I. W. W. pronouncement strikes us as rather a joke,— as merely a gesture,—nothing more alarming in itself, than a portly gentleman parading in his nightshirt, or a small boy behind a Jack o' lantern yelling "Boo."

But as we all think in symbols when I. W. W. is attached to this homeopathic dose of denatured terrorism, most of us, look around to see if the family howitzer is in working order, and inquire regarding the headquarters of the nearest machine gun squad.

Perhaps such a reaction is desirable. For it is always better to be safe than be sorry. But until the I. W. W. do something worse than they have done in this instance, or say something more alarming than they said yesterday, we think it is just as well not to call out the army.

The I. W. W. leaders are undoubtedly a dangerous set of criminals, and the organization is a menace to American institutions, but no good can come from hasty action. It is always wise in such matters, as it is in deer hunting, to know just what you are shooting at before you fire.

Quill Points

Not all those who dig up are archaeologists. There's dad.

Some girls are too poor to afford a maid and have to get along with a mother.

The nearer an 'ism comes to perfect idiocy, the greater the enthusiasm of its devotees.

Every woman must experiment with a few children before she learns how to manage a husband.

The reason platinum is more beautiful than aluminum is because anybody can afford aluminum.

And now one can't tell whether the success of a picture depends on the hero or the heroin.

The strange thing is not that bears hibernate, but that they have pep enough to wake up at this time of year.

A vegetable diet may enable you to do more work, but what's the sense in working if that's all the reward you get?

Europe is tactful, at least. When she appeals to the place where our money is kept, she calls it our conscience.

The only thing you can be sure of when you meet a woman driver is that she is going to depend on her intuition.

You can fix the temper of metal by means of hot water. And frequently it will work in the case of a husband.

The book of etiquette doesn't explain why the man who howls for service gets more attention than the well-bred chap.

Another advantage of a closed car is that you can't confuse the fellow behind by thrusting an arm out to make funny signals.

Nothing much is being said about it, but our understanding is that the Christian nations still are improving their poison gases.

At any rate you can patronize a soda fountain without being buttoholed by some weepy chap who wishes to tell you the sad story of his life.

cient service is rendered to many with complete satisfaction.

INDIANS RETAIN LEAD, GIANTS ARE DEFEATED, 10 TO 3

CHICAGO, April 28.—(By Associated Press). Cleveland retained its hold on first place in the American league yesterday by overcoming Chicago's early five-run lead and winning 8 to 6. It was the sixth consecutive game Cleveland has won from the White Sox. Pitcher Cavenag and the Sox infield collapsed simultaneously.
The hitting of Witt and Dugan accounted for the homicidal activities of "murderer's row" in the New York Yankees' victory over the Boston Red Sox 4 to 2. They were responsible for half of the eight Yankee hits.

Although St. Louis made seven extra base blows, three doubles, two triples and two homers, the clouts registered the only tallies and for the second time the Browns went down to defeat before the Detroit Tigers 5 to 2.

McManus and Williams were the home run hitters.
Philadelphia and Washington fought a double knockout in their ten-ten tie. darkness stopping a heavy hitting twelve inning contest, marred by many misplays.

The Boston Braves turned on the world champion Giants and overwhelmed them 10 to 3.

Burleigh Grimes held the Phillies to four hits and Brooklyn took the second straight game of their series 5 to 2. Tommy Griffiths, Dodger outfielder, was the hitting star, scoring on a homer and a triple, scoring twice and driving in another run.

After holding Pittsburgh to four hits and runless for eight innings, Alexander, veteran Cub twirler, weakened, and three singles and a double sent two Pirates over the plate, winning the game 2 to 1. Morrison, the Pittsburgh pitcher, twirled very effectively.

RALPH HAND WINS
WRESTLING MATCH

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., April 28.— Ralph W. Hand defeated Ad Gustavo of Portland in a wrestling match Thursday night. Gustavo got the first fall in 42 minutes with a neck hold.
Hand secured the second fall in six minutes. Gustavo tried to come back but was too much done up with a sprained ankle from the toe hold with which Hand threw him. Gustavo made out a $100 check to Hand as a forfeit.

EXPERT HERE

SEELEY, FAMOUS IN THIS SPE-CIALTY, CALLED TO MEDFORD.

F. H. Seeley, of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will personally be at the Holland Hotel, and will remain in Medford this Monday only, April 30th. Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position no matter the size or location.
Large or difficult cases, or incisional ruptures (following operations) specially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions. Warning—All cases should be cautioned against the use of any elastic or web truss with understraps, as same rest where the lump is and not where the opening is, producing complications necessitating surgical operations. Mr.
Seeley has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. He will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fee if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section.

P. S.—Every statement in this notice has been verified before the Federal and State Courts.—F. H. Seeley.
