

Local and Personal

The performance of "Boy Blue" by the children of the grammar schools at the Page theatre last evening under direction of Miss Frances Sherwood was enjoyed by a large audience. The upper floor of the theater was packed and the lower floor well filled. The performance was a pretty and pleasing one and in the opinion of a large majority was even more enjoyable than "The Smuggle Man" presented by the grade school children last year.

There was a marked change for the better in the way of home grown supplies in the public market today, and it looks as if from now on there will be plenty of produce of that variety. A feature of today's market was the sale of several dozen dressed fryers with heads off at 40 cents a pound, which sold early. As the fryers develop the price will become cheaper. Other features were the sale of hundreds of tomato, cabbage and other plants, and a goodly supply of home grown strawberries.
