

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE, PHOENIX CHURCH SUNDAY

Next week being "Commencement Week" for the Phoenix schools, there will be the annual baccalaureate service and sermon on Sunday morning, May 13th at the Phoenix church, with special music and a sermon to the graduating class and their friends by the pastor. Everyone is especially invited and also to the service in the evening at 7:00 under the auspices of the C. E. society and of interest to all.

Last Sunday the congregation enjoyed a fine address by Miss Roberta Barr of Los Angeles on the progress of Christianity in the world. Monday evening the C. E. society had a business and social meeting at which work was planned for the coming month. Tuesday evening the H. O. class held its monthly meeting and supper at Clyde Hall, with their teacher, Mrs. Angell, and report a good time during the evening. The "May party" planned by the Christian Endeavor, will be postponed for the present, owing to the many things already arranged for commencement week.

All the members of the Sunday school and others who can come are asked to be present promptly at 10:00 Sunday morning for the opening exercises and study of the lesson, which is a life-study of "David, the Poet King," 1 Samuel 16:1-13. The school is to be conducted by the superintendent, Dr. J. B. Webster, who would like to meet all the teachers in a short conference immediately after the baccalaureate service.

The Aid society will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. S. Bonar for their regular May meeting. All ladies invited.

CONCERT AT PHOENIX ON TUESDAY NIGHT

On Tuesday evening, May 15, a vocal concert is to be given at the Phoenix school auditorium, consisting of popular and classical solos, quartets, etc., by some of the best singers in Medford and Phoenix, full announcement of which will be made later. This is for the benefit of the Clyde hall piano fund and will be one of the treats of the season. Popular prices, 35c and 20c, will prevail; and selections given which all will enjoy.

New Bottling Works Installed in City

Snider's Dairy & Produce Co. have added a bottling department to their plant on North Bartlett and are now supplying the trade with the latest drinks, through the fountains and other soft drink parlors, as well as by the case for family use.

They recently installed the latest bottling and labeling machinery as well as sanitary bottle washing machine, also new bottles, cases, etc. Edwin Priegnitz, an expert chemist and bottler, who has had years of experience in some of the largest bottling works in the country, has charge of this department.

John Snider, senior member of the firm, says: "We have added this new department to meet the demands of our patrons and because we believe the territory tributary to Medford is sufficient to support the new department."

AGATE ITEMS

J. M. Samuels, who has been sick in the hospital at Medford, returned home and has recovered sufficiently to get up and around attending to his business.

S. C. Minnick of Central Point is building a house and making other improvements on his place and intends to move soon.

Mrs. Wallace will close a successful term of school at Agate this week. On Wednesday the children and a number of their parents partook of a picnic dinner at the school house.

A number of persons of this community gathered at the Canal company bungalow last Saturday night and enjoyed themselves throughout the evening in different forms of amusement interspersed with a bountiful supper.

J. C. Pendleton of Table Rock, deputy assessor for this district, is around doing assessment work this week.

Fields Brothers began setting tomatoes here this week. They have signed up for six acres for the catsup plant and are putting in a couple of acres of an early variety for shipment.

Sunday dinner guests at the J. W. Birkholz home were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elden, George and Harry Elden, Miss Rose Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Parker and Frances and Wynne Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Bonney have returned to this neighborhood to reside. Mr. Bonney has accepted a position on the Blackford ranch and they have moved into the house lately vacated by the Omer Porter family.

Mrs. W. B. Harris has just returned from a ten weeks visit with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stewart of McMinnville, Ore. She also spent a couple of days at Salem as guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clarke.

The Nichols families and other relatives, including the Boardmans and their guests, numbering twenty in all, motored to Ashland late Sunday afternoon and enjoyed a picnic supper in the park. It was a delightful evening for such an outing and was much enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boardman have been entertaining as house guests Mr. and Mrs. Billy Witcher of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Allen and children of Sutherlin. The Witchers are former residents of this valley and are well known here. Mrs. Witcher is a sister of Mrs. Boardman.
