SCREEN

Irish Classics Filmed
"My Wild Irish Rose" which opens at the Page Theatre tomorrow at 12:30 sips the sweetness from both Chauncey Olcott's song and Dion Boucicault's famous stage success, "The Shaughraun."
Irish romance is always gripping, but when music, wit, a rich, Irish brogue replete with folk lore, and a wealth of scenic beauty are blended, the effect is startling. It will send many an audience whistling and humming up the aisles.

Old Rivals Renew Battle
In "Brass Commandments," which opens at the Page Sunday, William Farnum and Tom Santachi who staged such a spectacular fight in "The Spoilers" will stage another big fight.
After this scrap it was a full month before either Farnum or Santachi was able to appear at the studio.

The Stage

Bruce McRae, a Man of Parts
Supporting Ina Claire, and himself a featured player, to the Page theatre, for one performance, Monday evening, May 14 comes Bruce McRae, long an outstanding figure on the stage, and one of the foremost leading men in our native playhouse.
Of Bruce McRae, the actor, there is little to be said, for introductions, in this case, are superfluous. As leading man to the foremost women stars of our time, his name has been a household word. Ethel Barrymore, Blanche Bates, Mrs. Fiske, Ruth Chatterton, Ina Claire, and many others, have

Relieves Backache
"Have had kidney trouble and backache for many years and I tried several doctors but got only temporary relief. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief. Refuse substitutes. Insist upon Foley's. Sold everywhere. Adv.
