

Local and Personal

On account of tonight being Halloween, Mayor E. C. Gaddis has issued a warning to the children and young folks of the city against destroying property while engaged in their pranks. Extra police will be on duty and patrol all parts of the city on foot and in autos. Offenders against property will be summarily dealt with, the mayor says.

Will trade good automobile as part payment on house or ranch. Gold Ray Realty Co., 15 N. Grape St. Phone 465-J.

Brush wool sweaters in the latest styles and shades. The Colonial, 196.

Company A of the National Guard is to drill tonight for the first time in the new armory before Adjutant General White, who is expected to arrive in Medford today.

Before you buy that piano see H. G. Launsbach. He can save you money. He knows pianos, and is reliable. Office and showroom at 400 N. Main street.

The popular Lyric orchestra, Jacksonville, Friday. Excellent acts. 192.

The rainfall of this week up to 8 a. m. today amounted to .25 of an inch, of which .12 fell last night, and .13 Monday night. Fair weather is predicted for Thursday, but today continued to be cloudy and threatening much of the time.

Vaska squirrel chokers $14, this week only. Bartlett, furrier, M. M. Store.

Get our prices on Brush wool sweaters. The Colonial, 196.

Former Mayor C. E. Gates, Mrs. Gates and their grandson George arrived home this forenoon from their two months sojourn in the east.

Buy your shingles and roofing at Wallace Woods' Lumber Yard, 711 E. Main street. Phone 198.

Lottie Howard wants you to see her new hats.

The Medford high school football team will play the first regular home game next Saturday afternoon against Klamath Falls, and this will be the first chance local fans have had of seeing Coach Callison's proteges in action against a school team.

The local team has won all of its games, not by the big scores of last year, but by consistent work, and will be at the height of its form for the games with Ashland.

Paul Shearer is leaving for San Francisco this evening.

If the man who left an overcoat and a hat with initials F. R. in it at the Armory Saturday night will return the hat and overcoat he got by mistake, to Capt. H. A. Canaday, he can have his property.

Enos Conger of this city and Frank Mingo of Jacksonville, both civil war veterans have gone to San Francisco where they will spend the winter.

For sale—Music store, Phonograph records and second-hand goods for less than cost. Easy terms. Gold Ray Realty Co., 15 N. Grape.

How do you like this instrumentation? First and second violins, cornet, clarinet, saxophone, drums, xylophone, banjo, trombone and piano. Lyric orchestra playing at Jacksonville Friday.

On account of the state Sunday school convention opening this evening at Ashland in the Baptist church, the prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church will be held Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. Every teacher and worker that can possibly go to the convention is urged to do so to hear Dr. Magill, a national Sunday school worker and a fine speaker.

Vaska squirrel chokers $14, this week only. Bartlett, furrier, M. M. Store.

Gray and tan plumed skirts. The Colonial, 196.

Mr. Brownlee of the Brownlee Lumber company will leave for a business trip to Portland this evening.

Before going elsewhere see our wonderful line of lingerie ribbon and beautiful laces reasonably priced. Handicraft Shop.

The best gift is a personal gift. Embroider an apron. On sale at 400 N. Main street.

Those from Medford who saw the Roseburg-Medford game at Roseburg last week called the game "lucky" for Medford that the final whistle blew when it did for she was endangered from her position as football mentor of southern Oregon. A score of 14-12 gave Medford something to think about and something to work for. Roseburg is said to have one of the best teams playing this winter in southern Oregon as their team is made up of several members from last year's squad who are experienced. Roseburg and Ashland will meet on the 47th of November here.—Ashland Tidings.

Gold Ray Realty Co., for a few days offers half interest in some land to good farmers free.

Bookkeeper, experienced, would like to take set of books for several hours a day. Phone 971-L.

The Eastern Star society will give a dance this evening at the Masonic hall from 9 to 12. The Imperial trio will furnish the music.

Clean cotton rags wanted at the Mail Tribune office.

At tomorrow evening's session of the Modern Woodmen of America at the American Legion hall the question of buying furniture and equipment for lodge and dining hall, and the leasing of suitable quarters will come up for final disposition and a representative turnout of the membership is requested as the matter is of considerable importance to the camp. Also final plans will be made for the meeting on the following Saturday night when a large class of new members will be initiated followed by a feed and social session. Members from all the camps in the valley are cordially invited to this meeting.

The Medford Auto Co., unloaded a carload of new 1924 Buicks Tuesday afternoon. This is one of five carloads that Mr. Dennison expects to unload this week.

Program and box social, Lone Pine school, Nov. 2, 3 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Guy Conner returned from a short business trip to Seattle last Monday evening.

Aprons stamped ready to work on sale at 40 cents each. Friday and Saturday. Handicraft Shop.

Dr. C. R. Ray will be at 15 North Grape street for a few days selling out Gold Ray Realty Co. property.

An excellent program has been prepared by the children of the Roseville school to be given next Friday evening as keep the evening open and help the school as well as having a good time. Refreshments of all descriptions will be offered in the different booths.

Will pay cash for a good second hand piano. Address Box No. 1, care Mail Tribune. State make and price.

Get Launsbach's prices on pianos before you buy. He knows pianos and is reliable. Phone 227.

Among the Oregonians journeying in the city who arrived here Tuesday are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walker of Klamath Falls, S. D. Olmstead, R. W. Tripp and Kenneth Marquis of Albany, A. H. Ferguson of Roseburg, and the following from Portland: A. C. Greenwood and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Parry, Roy E. Miller and Mesdames W. B. Mercereau, G. C. Sterling, J. C. Morrison and E. H. Larsen.

Free-range peaches and clings at the Public Market Thursday and Saturday. Also plenty at ranch, Phoenix, one-half mile from depot. A. N. Wright.

You can't afford to miss our great Pay Day dance at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night.

Ralph Hand, "pride of Gold Hill," will open the 1923 wrestling season at Roseburg next Friday night in a match with Jack Reid of Utah.

Insure your own day work. Insuring you quick and satisfactory results. Pantorium Dye Works. Phone 244.

A sale of fudge aprons Friday and Saturday, Nov. 2nd and 3rd. Handicraft Shop.

Mrs. T. J. Kenney returned Sunday from a two months visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Kentner at Santa Barbara.

Dance, Jacksonville, Friday, Nov. 2. Lyric orchestra.

New decorations—a Halloween ball combined with our great Saturday night pay-day.

At the recent weekly luncheon of the Eugene chamber of commerce a straw vote on the state income tax was taken, resulting in a vote of 43 against the law and 19 in its favor.

The Economy and West Side Markets are giving a big reduction on hard. Look for their ad in this issue.

30x3 1/2 cord tires $10.50. Exchange Tire Co.

There is to be a large Halloween party at the Washington school this evening for the children of the school and the public generally.

A useful and practical gift is an apron. See them on sale at 40c, Nov. 2nd and 3rd. Handicraft Shop.

Get soft paper school tablets at this office.

Mrs. Carl McCune of Ashland who recently underwent a serious operation at a hospital in this city has sufficiently recovered to be able to return home.

Great things have been inspired by beautiful waiters. Let the colorful moonlight at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night brighten your way to fame.

Guaranteed vulcanizing and re-treading. Exchange Tire Co.

Frank Hensperger of California is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Arnold of this city for several days.

The Economy and West Side Markets are giving a big reduction on hard. Look for their ad in this issue.

We reline overcoats and suits. Pantorium Dye Works. Phone 244.

The East Side circle of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, 839 Minnesota avenue, to sew for the bazaar.

The afternoon will be spent in making different articles, so be there at 1:30 with scissors and thimble ready for a big afternoon's work.

The bright spots in the lives of people are few. Let the Oriental Gardens dance Saturday night be one of the brightest in yours.

30x3 fabric tires $7.50; 30x3 1/2 fabric tires $8.50. Exchange Tire Co.

Washington state visitors in the city who arrived yesterday include Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Tucker of Pomona, Mr. and Mrs. Grant family of Walla Walla, B. B. Odum and F. W. Ash of Seattle.

Special sale on Tuesday at the Colonial Garage.

We will loan you money to build or buy Holmes the Insurance Man.

Rev. J. R. Samet, pastor of the Methodist church is on a hunting trip this week in Klamath county with Rev. Chaney and J. W. McCoy of Ashland.

Rematching 8c per yard at Stylecraft, opposite Riotheatre.

Medford camp, Woodmen of the World will have a class initiation and feed Thursday evening. E. C. Stillman, clerk.

Many automobiles traveling the highway between Eugene and Cottage Grove a few nights ago were held up and searched by a number of khaki-clad men, who molested none of the occupants nor took anything from the machines.

Take your kodak films to Palmer's Studio. First-class work and prompt service.

Tutoring in grade and high school subjects by experienced teacher, university graduate. 116 Mistletoe, 193.

Adjutant General White was expected to arrive in the city today on business in connection with the new armory, and during his stay will see the date and make arrangements for its formal opening and dedication, to probably be held two weeks from Monday. At first it was thought that the dedication would be set for next Monday, Armistice day, but this idea was abandoned as it was deemed that the opening of the big building deserved to be made a special occasion by itself and not be sandwiched with the other big doings of Armistice day.

The Economy and West Side Markets are giving a big reduction on hard. Look for their ad in this issue.

A message to housewives: Our family service is used by hundreds of Medford women. Are you one of the satisfied customers? If not a trial will convince you that washing at home is not worth while. Medford Domestic Laundry.

V. Beal of Central Point spent today in Medford.

Typewriters, all makes—Wholesale repairs. Easy terms. $5 monthly. Our guarantee means 20 minute repair service. Medford Book Store, agents.

Chicken and beef tamales, Gusher Cafe.

This week at the Medford high school is devoted to the tests that come at the end of every six weeks term. According to Superintendent Smith the students are to be graded as follows: forty percent of the grade for the final test and sixty percent for the daily work. Three different colored cards are sent to the parents bearing the report, white for the average grade, blue for the students above ninety, and red for those that are failing.

The Economy and West Side Markets are giving a big reduction on hard. Look for their ad in this issue.

Rags wanted at once at the Mail Tribune office.

Miss Pauline Clift of Ashland spent last week end visiting Miss Mabel Weeden of this city.

Did you get your share of the great golden egg? If not be sure and be at the Oriental Gardens Saturday night.

Our only business is insurance, but we cover every known kind of risk. R. A. Holmes, "The Insurance Man."

John Carlin will return tomorrow from a brief business trip to Salem.

We are closing out our entire piston ring stock; step cut rings at 10c each, all sizes. The Buoy Corner Motor Co.

The Economy and West Side Markets are giving a big reduction on hard. Look for their ad in this issue.

There will be a called meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Thursday afternoon at 2:30. It is hoped that every member will be present.

Highest grade Utah and Wyoming coal, absolutely free from slack and dust. Hansen Coal Co., 34 South Fir, Phone 233.

See Medford Vulcanizing Works for tire service.

The St. Ann's Altar society gave a card party in the parish hall Tuesday evening. A large crowd attended, playing bridge and Mah-jong until the refreshments were served.

The young ladies of the parish had charge of the arrangements.

Genuine Bosch Magneto parts and repairs. Electric Shop, Eighth and Bartlett.

Chile con carne, Gusher Cafe.

Mrs. Leland D. Lawton entertained at bridge and dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Paul Reming.

At Deuel's—Hemstitching 4c. You can get it at DeVoe's.

Kreumel's genuine hush bread at DeVoe's.

In line with plastering this city and vicinity with circulars containing descriptions and photos of the train bandit and murderer suspects, a circular appears on each of the front entrance doors to the federal building.

Chicken and beef tamales, Gusher Cafe.

Found! A place to get creamed waffles. Crater Lake Confectionery, Medford Bldg.

The "Cat and the Canary" company, which played here Monday night at the Page and last night at Eugene, will open its engagement for the remainder of the week at the Heile theatre in Portland tomorrow night.

Chile con carne, Gusher Cafe.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, Phone 108, 711 East Main.

Tom Fish, Harry Rosenberg and Ned Vilas will leave Friday to attend the Washington-O. A. C. football game at Corvallis Saturday afternoon.

For sale—Autos from $25 up. Gold Ray Realty Co., 15 North Grape St. Phone 465-J.

Redden & Canaday write bonds and insurance. Phone 720.

The city auto camp had 17 cars and 60 guests last night and this morning, and the Merrick Motor Inn enjoyed a similar patronage. As such rain fell during the night the life at the auto camps was rather disagreeable.

The Rotary club had their weekly luncheon at the Medford hotel at noon today.

George McVie of the John Hampshire construction company was in Medford today attending to business connected with the construction camp on the Crater Lake highway below McCloud.

Buy your screen doors at Wallace Woods' Lumber Yard, 711 E. Main. Phone 108.

Just arrived, a wonderful line of new patterns in luncheon sets, vanity cases, buffet sets and pillow cases. Handicraft Shop.

Mrs. A. B. Cunningham entertained at dinner and bridge Monday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schade, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jerome.

Duplicating sales books for sale at this office.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

LOST—Large cameo little-finger ring. Call 601-J. Reward.

FOR SALE—If you want a fine lot of Spitz to take over the mountain, see me at 317 E. Jackson St.

FOR SALE—Mammoth Bronze turkey, 15 months old, fawn and black, $7 and $13 each. J. N. Nelson, 3 1/2 mile south of 401 Orchard.

WANTED—Persian or Angora kitten. Inquire Box K, Mail Tribune, 193.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Morris of the Rancho Val Verde in the Table Rock district, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Casey of Ojai, Calif., at their home for a few days. The latter are enroute home from a six months visit in New England, the middle west, Manitoba and the Puget Sound northwest. Mrs. Casey and Mrs. Morris are sisters and daughters of the late Henry E. Peck, for a quarter of a century county treasurer of Ventura county, California. The guests are unqualified admirers of the Rogue river valley country. They passed a three weeks vacation with the Morris family a year ago. They claim that the high living of this locality, capped with chicken, pheasant and such will have spoiled them for the hum-drum things of home.

There's a busy Business College in Medford, G.W.N.

We have good values in used cars. Patton & Robinson, Inc.

With the painting today of the walls of the National Guard drill room and a few other touches the interior of the new armory was pronounced finished. Work was also begun today on the laying of concrete sidewalks about the structure.

Fitting in all shades for the new colored handkerchiefs and lingerie. Handicraft Shop.

Daddies and mothers, forget your cares, join the "Kiddies" in the Hallows'en frolic at the Washington school, Wednesday eve, Oct. 31st. Good program, good eats, good time.

Among the many California visitors who arrived in the city yesterday are Mabel Baird Mayer of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Clark of Oakland, H. S. Peddy, Ed Harney and M. C. Hemenway of Long Beach, E. M. and Miss F. C. Simpson of San Francisco, and W. K. Hawley of Los Angeles.

Milk and cream at DeVoe's.

Violin lessons, special attention to advanced pupils. J. D. Witham, 26 Newtown.

For the southern Oregon department of the state Sunday school convention which convenes in Ashland to last until Nov. 2nd, a large attendance is expected from Medford and other towns in the county tomorrow and Friday.

For sale—$10,000 ranch adjoining town for $3900, $399 cash, balance $25 month. Gold Ray Realty Co., 15 N. Grape St. Phone 465-J-1.

Chenille and embroidery floss in all colors for all kinds of embroidery. Handicraft Shop.

In an effort to solve the car shortage situation which now exists on the Southern Pacific line in this state the public service commission has addressed an appeal to the interstate commerce commission for a distribution of the surplus cars on the Oregon Washington line to the Southern Pacific. Reports submitted to the Oregon commission this week by the Southern Pacific show a shortage of 648 closed cars and 29 open cars.

Unity literature teaches people how to be well, prosperous and efficient. Free distribution. 310 S. Riverside.

An Underwood portable typewriter will speed up the day's work. Easy terms if desired. M. T. Edwards, 406 Liberty Bldg.

George Margreiter was bound over to the grand jury from the justice court today by Glenn O. Taylor on three different charges of violating the prohibition laws. The bail for these combined charges was $650.

Brunswick phonographs, the world's most popular phonograph. Easy terms. H. G. Launsbach, Phone 227.

Capt. G. L. Hall, one time pastor of the Baptist church, passed through here on his way north today in an especially built missionary car. He is to return for the dedication of the Baptist church next Sunday.

For sale—$7500, modern 7 room furnished house near Medford hotel for $3000 on 10 years time. Pay $25 per month. Gold Ray Realty Co., 15 North Grape St. Phone 465-J.

The Rogue River Radio club was definitely formed at a meeting at the Hotel Medford Monday night. The officers and the board of directors were elected and plans for further meetings made. The officers are: W. J. Virgin, president; G. P. Brown, well of Grants Pass, vice president; and Elmer Morrison, secretary and treasurer. The purpose of the club is to work jointly against interference and to secure necessary legislation. The three divisions of the club, Medford, Grants Pass and Ashland, will meet separately every week and once a month they will all meet together. The first large monthly meeting will be in Ashland on the last Friday of November.

We carry nothing in coal but the best guaranteed Utah or Wyoming. Our prices on all fuel we handle are always the lowest, considering quality. Valley Fuel Co.

Fred Hopkins, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hopkins of Portland, former resident of this valley, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve. Hopkins was recently discharged with the rating of sergeant after serving with the marines in Hawaii. The assistant inspector of the Marine Corps, in authorizing the appointment, made the following comment in a letter to Mr. Hopkins: "Ordinarily, no appointments in the Marine Corps Reserve are made except of former officers of the corps. However, in view of your excellent service an exception may be made in your case, and your enrollment as a second lieutenant is authorized."

Your car battery charged in 8 hours at the Electric Shop.

Earl Crance was fined $15 in justice court today when he pleaded guilty to violating the speed law. The arrest was made by J. J. McMahon, deputy state motor vehicle traffic officer.

For rent on shares, irrigated ranch near town. Gold Ray Realty Co., 15 N. Grape St. Phone 465-J.

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*

191*