Mrs. John E. Flurry who has been under the care of her mother, Mrs. Ada V. Carnell at 823 South Holly street, since her painful accident, has been taken by her husband to their home in Roseburg, where she underwent an X-Ray examination by Dr. Stewart. The film plainly showed the 5th and 10th ribs had been broken clear across diagonally, but were now knitting together a little crooked. It was also found that the muscles of the hip were badly caked or hardened by the bruising, but she is now getting along remarkably well under the circumstances.
