

AGATE AND MT. PITT BOYS WIN ESSAY CONTESTS

Howard Dietrich of Agate school has won first place in the county in the American Legion essay contest according to the report of the judging committee appointed by the county superintendent. The subject written upon is, "Why America Should Prohibit Immigration for Five Years."

George Heryford of Mt. Pitt school stands second in the contest. The subject assigned for this contest is one worthy of study and should have engaged the attention of more boys and girls of Jackson county. The number of essays presented was not at all what it should have been, the county superintendent states. The two boys mentioned will doubtless hear from the officers of the American Legion here.

WIDER EUROPEAN MARKET IS URGED BY SENATOR CAPPER

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—A wider European market for American products, developed either through the war finance corporation or through creation of a federal marketing corporation, should be one of the aims of the coming session of congress, Senator Arthur Capper said in a statement today.

He expressed the belief that the farm bloc will participate in a move to enact such legislation as agriculture is believed to need. The senator enumerated an outline of things he believed congress should do at its closing session. They include:

Reduce freight rates on farm products. Give every encouragement to co-operative marketing. Reverse tariff further downward on farmers' necessities.

RED WATSON BILLED FOR MAT BOUT

A special feature which has been secured by the American Legion committee for the smoker next Tuesday evening at the armory will be an exhibition bout featuring Red Watson, a fighter who is known along the entire coast and who comes here with quite a reputation. Of course, the Schneidau-Vance main event wrestling match will be the big attraction of the evening, but the appearance of Red Watson is a mighty good drawing card in itself. Watson has fought many well known bit artists, Gallant of Boston, Bud Anderson, Freddy Welch, Leach Cross, McFarland and Hoppe and in most instances come out on the "top side" of the bouts. He is not a "has-been" by any means and it is the hope of the local legion post to book him for a fight here later in the season. Watson is passing through Southern Oregon, stopping here for a few days' fishing in the Rogue.

Interest is growing steadily in the match between Gus Schneidau and Farmer Vanve. Although the sympathy of local fans so far is with Gus, they realize that he is going to have a stiff go with the boy from Chicago. Vance is a clever boy with plenty of class and lots of weight so his match with Schneidau will not be a tame affair by any means.

PHENOMENA OF SKY DUE TOMORROW

If the time between this and November 4th were much longer there might easily develop a feud that would take years to heal, and that would seriously handicap scientific progress.

The group of men who have looked upon the promise of spectacular stellar action on that date as worthy of attention have been so bitterly opposed by the incredulous element, such hard words, such scathing criticism has been broadcasted, that the whole topic has now assumed wide, general interest.

There will undoubtedly be an active watch set during the entire 24-hour period of November 4th, both sides being anxious to prove their own attitude and to be able to laugh at the folly of the enemy.

Mysterious and cryptic, still come the hints, repeating their promise of unsuspected phenomena to be revealed in due course. Questioning and investigation have alike failed to trace the source of these messages, though they deny an authority which few dare deny.

Patience is the only salvation for this situation. The hour will soon pass, the truth or fallacy, the meaning or absurdity of it all will soon be made apparent. It will be seen the sky will soon be past.

LONELY COWBOYS ANXIOUS TO WRITE TO LOCAL LADIES

Mayor E. C. Gaddis is in receipt of a touching letter from the Supreme Protective Cowboy of the Fraternal Order of Cow Punchers, which may be of interest to some of the lonely Rogues River old maids. The letter comes from the Cowboys' Home, 713 East Union street, Seattle, Wash., and reads in part as follows:

"This is a personal appeal. Humanity calls from the wilderness. Will you answer?"

"As the largest organization of cowboys in the world, we are taking the liberty of writing you, as we have been requested by a number of our members who live in remotely lone places.

"These boys, fearless hunters of the mountain and desert, wild riders of the plains, who spend many lonely hours on the range, have the idea that you as chief executive of your city can place them in touch with honorable girls, women and men of your community, who would be interested in outdoor life, for an exchange of correspondence, to lighten life along the long trail.

"These cowboys practice brotherly preservation, benignity of manner and broadness of character."

CO-OPERATION SALES OF FARM PRODUCE TOLD TO PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The government's inquiry into the advantages of co-operative marketing as a means of farm relief was carried a step further today by President Coolidge who called into conference C. S. Barrett of Georgia, president of the Farmers' union, and also conferred again with Managing Director Meyer of the war finance corporation, who made an investigation trip through the northwest.

Mr. Barrett explained the progress made in the cooperative movement under the auspices of his organization, and told the president that through cooperation in the selling of products and in the buying of farm machinery and fertilizers, the farmers of the country could throw off the present depression.

He was requested to return to the White House tomorrow for another conference at which he expects to discuss not only marketing but the program for the Farmers' union national convention this month in Omaha.

LIVESTOCK SHOW PORTLAND OPENS WITH BIG CROWD

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 3.—With 4046 official entries, the thirteenth annual International Pacific Livestock Exposition was opened today by E. A. Stuart of Seattle, president. Last year similar entries numbered 3816.

In addition to the displays of beef cattle, dairy cattle, hogs, sheep and other livestock, the ten-acre pavilion also houses grain and dry land farming exhibits, a poultry show and show of fancy and draft horses.

O. M. Plummer, general manager, said the show was better and larger than in former years. He said the management hoped the total attendance would reach 150,000 this year.

Last year's total was 101,000. With fine weather and children admitted free on the opening day, a large crowd attended today.

E. O. M'CORMICK FUNERAL IS HELD, SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—E. O. McCormick, vice president of the Southern Pacific company, in charge of promotion and development, died Thursday at his home in San Francisco of heart trouble. He had been ill for several months and his health had been impaired for the past three years. He was 65 years old and had been with the Southern Pacific company for 24 years.

Mr. McCormick was a powerful influence for development of Oregon, particularly Crater Lake and the Pacific Coast. He is credited with being instrumental in inaugurating colonization from the east in 1901. He labored since first coming with the Southern Pacific to bring the scenic beauties and the agricultural and industrial opportunities of the west to the attention of the world. He was intentionally responsible for the growth of scores of communities founded and fostered by colonization methods.

Mr. McCormick was born at Lafayette, Ind., April 3, 1858, and graduated from the high school there. He entered railway service in 1879 as a timekeeper in the construction department of the Lake Erie and Western railroad. Shortly afterward he went into the freight department of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railway, and from that time on was connected with the traffic departments of various roads, including the Great Eastern freight line, the Monon Route, the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad, the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railway until May 1, 1899, when he came to the Southern Pacific company as passenger traffic manager.

This position he held until April 1, 1904, when he was made assistant to the director of traffic of the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific systems which were operated jointly under the late E. H. Harriman.

On May 1, 1910, Mr. McCormick was named vice president of the Southern Pacific company, in charge of promotion and development. Whenever noted writers or other distinguished men came to the west, E. O. McCormick welcomed them and showed them what this country had to offer and attract. Great civic and public enterprises numbered his among their patrons and active supporters.

Mr. McCormick had a wide circle of friends and he was interested in all the affairs of life. He was equally at home in a fishing smack off Santa Cruz, where he had his summer home, or in Buckingham palace chatting with the late King Edward. He numbered among his friends a host of writers and newspapermen. He delighted in telegraphing at his own expense to some writer friend a new "line" he had just heard, an idea for a story or a bit of "local color." It is said that many a clever story of the national weeklies could be traced to Mr. McCormick's good memory and eagerness to assist his friends.

Mr. McCormick is survived by a wife, two daughters, Mary Kilaour McCormick and Margaret Duer McCormick, and two sons, Henry O. and Ernest O. McCormick, Jr. Henry McCormick is in the east attending Georgetown university, Washington, D. C., and E. O. McCormick, Jr., is a student of Santa Clara university. Funeral services, which were public, were held at St. Mary's cathedral, San Francisco, this morning at 10 o'clock. Inment was private in Holy Cross cemetery.

BICYCLE RACERS ARE ALL EVEN AT 2214 MILES

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Three teams of the eleven competing in the six day international bicycle race entered on the final grind today with the same positions they have maintained for the past two days.

Hy Koehler and Carl Stockholm, Chicago combination, at 6 a. m. today, the 129th hour of the 145 hour event, had pedaled 2214 miles and seven laps and had gained a total of 219 points in the sprints.

Brocco, Italy, and Coburn, Kearney, N. J., and Lawrence, San Francisco, and Kopsky, Bohemia, had the same mileage as the leaders, but lacked points.

McNamara, Australia, and Horan, Newark, N. J., were a lap behind but led in points with 440. Moeskops and Van Kampen, Holland team, had 419 points and were a lap behind the leading team and Hanley, San Francisco and Madden, New York, two laps in the rear, were third in points with 381.

George A. Mansfield will discuss the income tax at a meeting in the new armory tonight. All who are interested should attend. Mr. Mansfield will speak in favor of the tax.

Sports GRIDIRON CONTESTS IN MID-WEST AND EAST, IMPORTANT

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Nine big ten football teams went into action today six of them in western conference struggles, with indications that at least two of the contests will be undecided until the final whistle.

On the basis of dope, Chicago and Illinois, meeting at Urbana in a game opening the Illinois stadium and Michigan and Iowa, clashing at Iowa City, are almost evenly matched. Minnesota expects to have little trouble in disposing of Northwestern.

Ohio State figures to have little difficulty with Dennison and Indiana fans hope to see their team run away with Hanover.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Football fans of the Pacific coast and Rocky Mountain states today were confronted with a schedule of games which apparently held little promise of startling upsets in predictions, or of having a vital bearing on the outcome of races in progress for conference championships for this season.

The University of California, arrayed against Nevada in a non-conference clash and Washington, aligned against the Oregon Aggies, were conceded comparatively easy victories in advance speculation. California and Washington, both undefeated thus far this year, are considered the leading contenders for the Pacific coast conference title.

Washington State college and Oregon were to meet in the only other Pacific coast conference game today. Stanford, eliminated from the conference race by last week's severe drubbing at the hands of the University of Southern California, has as opponents the Olympic club of San Francisco this afternoon.

In the Rocky Mountain conference, the outstanding contest was between the University of Colorado and Colorado college, ancient enemies of the gridiron. The Utah Aggies-Utah Mines game and the Colorado State normal-Brightman Young clash were other contests on today's schedule.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(By Associated Press). Further incursions upon the ever-dwindling group of undefeated football teams were in order today as the grid evens of the east prepared to entertain fandom with the most attractive program thus far arranged.

Only tie scores can prevent two of the undefeated groups from dropping from the list for, at Hanover, N. H., Dartmouth is to meet Cornell and at Syracuse, N. Y., Syracuse is to encounter Penn state all of which have clean slates and that others of the yet unconquered teams may lose is the opinion of football students who have taken note of the army team which is to oppose Yale; the strength of the LaPayette team which is to play Washington and Jefferson, undefeated and the return of the Harvard eleven which is to play undefeated Tufts.

SCHAEFER FAVORITE IN CUE TOURNAY, TO MEET COCHRAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Jake Schaefer of San Francisco, former champion, today rules as favorite in the third international 15.2 ball cue billiard championship tournament with three victories to his credit; and no defeats. He rounded a perfect score against the foreign invaders last night by defeating Erich Hagenlacher of Germany, 500 to 173 in twelve innings.

Tonight Schaefer will engage in a crucial test with Welker Cochran of Los Angeles who gave Willie Moppe, the defending champion, his only defeat thus far.

If Schaefer is successful against Cochran tonight, Hoppes's only chance to retain the title will be a victory over Schaefer. This would give him only a tie and a play-off would be necessary.

ZEV IS CHALLENGED BY FRENCH HORSE

PARIS, Nov. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—An offer to match Epinard against Zev in a race to be run in France next April or May will be forwarded to Harry Sinclair by the French Jockey club should Zev defeat My Own and the other cracks at Latonia this afternoon.

The assent of Pierre Wertheimer, owner of Epinard, to the holding of a match race, has been obtained, with the distance, stakes and other details to be discussed later.

The race, according to the present plan, would be run at the Longchamps course.

HAGENLACHER ILL, BUT PLAYS TODAY, HOSPITAL SUNDAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Edouard Horemans of Belgium today defeated Erich Hagenlacher of Germany 500 points to 201 in the eleventh match of the world's 15.2 ball cue billiards tournament. Hagenlacher was sick and made a poor showing while Horemans played his best game of the week, having high runs of 130 and 117 and completing his string in 16 innings.

By his victory Horemans became the European champion. He defeated Conti, the French champion yesterday.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Erich Hagenlacher of Germany met Edouard Horemans of Belgium today in the eleventh match of the world's 15.2 ball cue billiard tournament. Hagenlacher won the bank, chose the white ball and counted once. At the end of the seventh inning Horemans led 123 to 29.

Hagenlacher was ill and could hardly see the balls, missing repeatedly. Horemans played steadily and well with a run of 117 in the tenth inning increased his string to 339 while Hagenlacher in ten innings had counted only 29.

Hagenlacher will go to a hospital Monday to undergo an operation.

RENAULT WINS EASY OVER JOHNSON

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Jack Renault, hard-hitting Canadian heavyweight, lifted himself a notch higher in the title contending class last night as a result of his technical knockout of Floyd Johnson of Iowa in the fifteenth and last round of a spectacular affair in Madison Square Garden.

Johnson's gameness and aggressiveness were his only assets. He showed no effective punch whatever, while Renault, fighting cool and shooting most of his blows with terrific power and deadly accuracy, had his opponent barely hanging on in the ninth, tenth and fourteenth, as well as the last round.

EXPECT A BIG CROWD OREGON-W. S. C. GAME

PULLMAN, Wash., Nov. 3.—With incoming trains and automobiles pouring visitors into the town indications pointed to a crowd of possibly 8000 at Rogers field this afternoon when the University of Oregon and Washington State college meet in their football game.

The Cougar eleven has rounded into good shape, according to the coaches, and will present the best line that has been sent into the field this year. Switching Captain Verne Hickey from half to left end has bolstered up the front rank materially, it was said.

AGGIES OUTWEIGHED IN TODAY'S CONTEST

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 3.—Washington will start against the Oregon Aggies in today's game here with a weight advantage of 6½ pounds to the man. Washington has a big heavy team while the O. A. C. gross tonnage is lighter than for many seasons.

Figures released by the two coaches give the Washington team average 181 pounds compared to 174½ for the Aggies. Washington line averages 184 to 179 for O. A. C., and a Washington backfield averages 176½ to 166½ for O. A. C.

Where Livestock Is Shown at Its Greatest

Many have not yet come to realize the size, importance and influence the Pacific International Livestock Exposition yields for the welfare and upbuilding of livestock raising in the Northwest. Nor does every stockraiser appreciate the opportunities offered for his own development and profit.

In 13 years the Pacific International has grown to be one of the great livestock expositions of the world, the largest under one roof in America, until this year, November 3 to 10, it will exhibit about 4000 head of purebred dairy and beef cattle, hogs, sheep, goats and horses; also 25000 chickens and rabbits, offering $90,000 in premiums and showing many world's champions as well as other notable stock. The exposition combines:

- Gigantic Livestock Exposition
- Dairy Products Show
- Land Products Show
- Northwest Hay and Grain Show
- Western Winter Poultry Show
- Night Horse Show
- Industrial Exhibits
- Daily Auction of Dairy and Beef Stock

More than 100,000 people attended last year. Why don't you attend and come in contact with the breeders and purebred animals that are doing so much for livestock development in the West? Then come in and tell us of your impressions here at the First National bank.
