MR. AND MRS. PUBLIC:

Only occasionally are we privileged to show a photo-dramatic creation of such magnificence and dramatic power as "Enemies of Women," the brilliant picturization of Vicente Blasco Ibañez's famous novel.

We sincerely advise those who seek the truly big things of the motion picture art not to miss it.

More than a million dollars was spent in bringing to the screen this thrilling narrative of Europe's gilded society life, with its magnificent painted settings, its unparalleled luxury, its great cast of prominent players.

Against the background of Paris, Petrograd, Nice and the Riviera where the drama was photographed, are staged the revels and intrigues, the tragedies of the Monte Carlo gambling tables, the red course of Russia's revolution, the echo of the battle fields combining to make one of the most absorbing narratives of screen history.
