SKIRT AND BLOUSE REMAIN POPULAR WITH U. S. GIRLS

NEW YORK, Nov.—The separate blouse and skirt is the typical costume of the American woman and girl, according to the United Women's Wear League which recently completed a survey of the evolution of American fashions for women.

Fostered by native conditions of living, the shirtwaist has been the favorite costume in this country from the very beginning of the nation's history and now remains strongest in popular favor, the investigators found. While foreign style importations have come and gone, the vogue of the blouse and skirt has never waned permanently because American women have found that costume both practical and suited to their type—tall, slim, athletic and active.

Around the dress and gown, of French and Italian origin, have held away and modes of living have declared against the blouse and skirt. European designers every season send to this country new fashions for evening wear but none sends a costume which vies with the blouse for the practical necessities of everyday American life.

Consumption of Horse Meat in France Increases

WASHINGTON.—Consumption of horse meat as an article of daily diet is increasing in France, the department of commerce is informed, and the annual slaughter of horses is estimated at about 120,000 head. Of this number about 100,000 are of French origin, while the greater portion of the balance is imported from Great Britain.

The advantages claimed for horse meat are its comparative cheapness and nutritive qualities. Its sale is regulated by law to avoid its substitution for other meats and it is usually sold in butcher shops especially adapted for that purpose.

Paris Students to Get Beer or Wine With 15-Cent Meals

PARIS.—When Paris University students return to their studies for the winter term they will find their club-house has been overhauled and at the bar, a highly popular corner of the establishment, they will be furnished with general meals at the astounding price of two francs and a half, or somewhere around fifteen cents at the present rate of exchange.

As these meals include wine or beer, it is a mystery how the students' association can supply them at such a modest rate, with the high price of foodstuffs at the present time. The menu will comprise one hors d'oeuvre, meat, a vegetable and dessert or cheese.

ALLIES CAN'T AGREE ON CROWN PRINCE

PARIS, Nov. 15.—(By Associated Press).—The allied council of ambassadors, charged with consideration of the crown prince's return and the question of inter-allied military control in Germany, adjourned after two hours and a half of discussion this afternoon until Saturday without reaching a decision.

Jackie Coogan Scores
"Oliver Twist," the famous Charles Dickens story, is being flashed on the screen at the Page this week with one brilliant setting after another depicting the days when this lovable little character lived in London. The acting by this tiny star as well as his enviable supporting cast is superb. Jackie registers an appeal that strikes the hearts of young and old alike. The plot has been followed with unusual fidelity and will satisfy the most enthusiastic reader of Dickens. Lon Chaney, Gladys Brockwell, George Siegmann and Carl Stockdale are in the supporting case. A Century comedy; the Pathe News, and Betty Brown at the giant Wurlitzer in special offerings are other items on this week's bill.

Shooting Rapids on a Log
Shooting the rapids in a canoe or going over Niagara Falls in a barrel have heretofore held first rank as feats of daring in connection with water sports. However, for sheer boldness, dexterity and skill the spectacular feat of one of the expert lum-

Irene at Vining
The charming qualities possessed by "Irene," the musical comedy, are its clean, fine and hilarious comedy and the rattling good music arranged for it by Harry Tierney. It will be presented in Ashland by its original owners and managers, at the Vining theatre, Monday night, November 19. The part of Irene O'Hara, the vivacious little shopgirl who, Cinderella-like, becomes a Long Island society favorite, after a strange and amusing adventure, calls for a singing voice of lovely quality; an ability to act, a knowledge of dancing is played by Dale Winter. Others in the cast are Flo Irwin, Mary O'Moore, Gladys Nagle, Dorothy LaMar, Dorothy Kane, Henrietta Housen, Howard Freeman, Jere Delaney, Henry Coote, George Collins, Edward Marr and George Mantell.
