FINE FEELING AT YESTERDAY'S GAME ASHLAND REPORTS

ASHLAND, Ore., Nov. 30.—Yes, we were defeated, but it was a glorious game and a close one. The best of feeling prevailed at all times and there is another year coming. It is a matter of gratification to everyone that the most friendly relations exist between the rival teams and the double defeat this year will only spur the Ashland high on to a double victory in 1924.

Mrs. Hubbard of McMinnville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson. This is Mrs. Hubbard's first visit to Ashland and she will remain for an indefinite period.

Miss Wheeler, teacher of English, and Miss Blumenfeld, physical training instructor of the high school faculty left Wednesday evening to spend the Thanksgiving vacation at Corvallis. The trip was made in Miss Blumenfeld's car.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Blake and two small sons motored to Grants Pass on Thanksgiving Day to help W. E. Newcombe and wife enjoy the monster turkey that Mr. Newcombe was attending the Elks' big smoker and raffle last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merrill with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Good left late Wednesday evening for Portland in Mr. Good's car. They expected to arrive at their destination in time to eat turkey with Mr. Merrill's son who lives in the state metropolis.

Mr. Thompson paused away this fall and at that time Mr. McRae rented his home to Mr. Downing and family from Cleveland, Ohio, and moved into his mother's home. The new building is to be a type rather different from any built here as yet and is known as the cottage bungalow type, copied from designs being used extensively in the east. It will be equipped with all the latest conveniences and furnace heated. One picturesque feature of the home will be the cobblestone porch and chimney. The place will be completed in the early spring.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter entertained with a large Thanksgiving dinner at noon today, having it early in order to allow all those who wished to attend the ballgame during the afternoon. The guests included the Henry Galey family, the George Carter family to Talent, the Henry Carter family, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Mills and Mrs. Ella Mills.

The Elks' annual Thanksgiving ball was a huge success judging from the glowing reports of those who attended. About one hundred couples were present including several from Medford. At midnight an elaborate turkey supper was served, after which the guests danced until early morning. A number of elaborate new evening gowns added interest to the occasion, especially to the feminine contingent. For the last few years Medford and Ashland have had these dances on different nights so that the lovers of this form of recreation can attend both affairs. A number of Ashland cars were expected to go to Medford on Thursday evening.

The reserved seats are going fast for the Lithian Minstrel Show which will be held at the Vining next Monday night. It is anticipated that not a vacant seat will be found at the Vining that night.

CITY MARSHAL AT ROGUE RIVER BURGLAR VICTIM

ROGUE RIVER, Ore., Nov. 30.—On last Wednesday at about 10 o'clock in the morning a marauder entered the home of City Marshal Phil Arnold, helped himself to what good things there were to eat, took a shot gun and some other articles and rushed from the banks of Evans Creek. The marshal, upon returning to his home about noon, took up the trail and intercepted the culprit about two miles down the railroad track. Mrs. Mesdames Smack, Lownd and Strahan entertained a large number of the members of the Women's Civic Improvement club last Friday afternoon. Little Miss Ellen Langworthy and Master Stanley Clark were dressed to represent Priscilla and John Alden and stood at the door ready to receive the guests as they came. The program was opened by the singing of America, then followed a short business session. The president, Mrs. Arthur Earhart, called on all present to tell what they were most thankful for, and everyone responded heartily. After a reading from Miles Standish by Mrs. F. W. Clark Mrs. James Martin was called upon to offer a Thanksgiving prayer. A delightful social time followed, after which the hostesses served delicious refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake.

Last Tuesday word was received by C. W. Horton that his son, Gene Horton had been in an automobile accident at Portland. Friday afternoon the high school soccer team played Central Point team, our boys losing by the score of 5 to 9. It was raining, the ground was muddy and the ball was wet, and under these conditions the Central Point boys played in much better form than the Rogue River boys. This is the only game our boys have lost this season.

Rev. William Lee Gray held his first preaching service at Wimer last Sunday. He reported a Sunday school of 66 and that he preached to an enthusiastic audience of 60. It is hoped that preaching and Sunday school services will be a regular thing at this locality.

HOME BUILDING INCREASING IN EDEN PRECINCT

By Mary O. Carey.
EDEN PRECINCT, Nov. 28.—Mr. Mason, the Talent real estate man was in Phoenix Tuesday looking for a house to move to. Mr. Mason says that real estate in this vicinity is looking up. The new residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Colver of Phoenix is about ready for occupancy. It is one of the neatest bungalows along the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Dopp, who have just commenced their new residence on their new home tract south of Phoenix went over to Eagle Point one day last week and brought home a darling little girl baby which they have adopted.

There are more new people in the valley looking for homes at the present time than there have been for many years. There is scarcely a day that there are not several out from Medford looking at the different tracts which are advertised.

Mrs. Weldon Hartley of North Talent is at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Sam March of Central Point, who is very ill. Fears are entertained that Mrs. March may not recover.

Clard Smith of Phoenix bought one hundred bushels of first-class wheat from George Hartley Tuesday for one dollar per bushel. This wheat is clean enough for seed. Mr. C. Carey also bought a ton of the wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Colver had some very fine fat turkeys which they have sold to neighbors for their Thanksgiving dinners. These birds were late spring hatch, but are unusually fat.

J. M. Rader was one of the lucky men when it comes to winning the cured hams. Mr. Rader won four at a cost of twenty-five cents each.

Miss E. Prettyman, the late purchaser of the famous old Colver residence in Phoenix is having quite a lot of improvements made on the property, among other needed ones, a sewerage system.

Mrs. Fred Neathammer and her cousin, Amery Godard, were down to Mrs. Louis Colver's one day last week from Talent.

Mrs. C. Carey has purchased three fine White Leghorn roosters from the White Wing poultry farm. These birds are pure Thankeds and will be penned with fifty record laying hens of the Leghorn breed which Mrs. Carey owns.

Mrs. A. S. Purry spent the weekend in Medford with her daughter, Mrs. Niel Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Job of Fern Valley were enjoying a ride over to Phoenix where they did trading Tuesday morning.

Miss E. Prettyman of the Blue Flower lodge in Phoenix gave a big turkey dinner on Thanksgiving day. Wm. Carless returned last week from an extended trip in the north. Mr. Carless has been up on a business expedition, presumably mining. When Mr. Carless arrived in the valley at his home in Phoenix after being in that cold region he remarked that this was surely God's country.

The move to have petunias planted along the highway ought to meet with hearty approval of every property owner along the line. The plant is one that after planted will seed the park row by volunteering each succeeding season. This will make it the easiest flower to use for the purpose.

It is not generally known how easy this plant is to raise, in fact they will succeed with almost no care at all after once being planted.

Late Saturday evening at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Childers on Kings highway, the following guests gathered to help celebrate Mrs. Childers' birthday. A most bounteous supper was served and heartily enjoyed. Dancing and music were the pleasant pastime during the evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whiteside and son Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gregory and daughter Miss Helen and son Herbert, Miss Harriett Hill, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Downing.

Sometimes I think a correspondent is made to suffer more than their just due. Those turkey dinners are reported to me regularly. Last Sunday those persons in the East Eden district went down to Ashbury Bealls, old pioneer home, to partake of another one of them. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Barneburg, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. Strommire, and the host and hostess. It is needless to say that this was a never to be forgotten feast, turkey and all the trimmings, and other good things too numerous to mention, much less eat. The afternoon was spent with music and pleasant conversation.

Letters, by Beside Oden; recitation, "They Went a Fishing," by Margaret Higgins; comedy, "Divided Attention," with Helen Snook. Imogene A. rant, Verne Burness, Anna Evans and Alvin Robinson in the cast; sketch "Income Tax Return," by Helen Snook and Verne Spears; "School Loyalty," by Beside Oden; readings with living pictures, "In School Days," by Imogene Arant; "The Prayer Perfect," by Helen Snook; "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," by Beside Oden, and the "Most Beautiful Think in the World" (the flag) posed with flag and Glenn Bond. The entertainment was a great success in every way and much credit is due to the director, Mrs. Lucy T. Wedding. The freshman class took in $45.

The senior class is planning a basket social to be held Dec. 8, in Ames hall.

WILLOW SPRINGS CHRISTMAS FUND TO BE COLLECTED

WILLOW SPRINGS, Nov. 28.—The next meeting of the Willow Springs Thursday club will be on December 6th at the home of Mrs. J. W. Birkholz. This will be the last meeting before the holidays and it would add the finance committee of which Mrs. W. U. Hoyer is chairman, if all members could hand in their donations to the Christmas fund at this time. All old members who are in arrears with their dues are requested to hand them to the secretary that she may straighten out her books before the close of the year.

Mrs. Clyde Richmond and her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Wood, expect to leave here Saturday by auto for a trip thru California. Mrs. Roberts, their mother, will be a guest here at the Richmond home until her daughters get settled in Southern California, where she will stay until after the holidays but the other ladies expect to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown and children were Sunday night dinner guests at the H. H. Clarke home.

Mrs. Adrian Thompson of Weed, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. W. Nichols and other relatives in the valley, left for her home last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Salade, Jr., and children leave December 1st for a three month's visit with Mrs. Salade's parents in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Glace, friends of the Salades, will occupy the home while the family is in the east.

Here's a popular way to serve Kellogg's Bran—greatest health food!

Most every one who realizes how effective Kellogg's Bran is for the permanent relief of constipation has their own particular way of serving this wonderful cereal. Most families eat it as a cereal with milk or cream. Others sprinkle it on their favorite hot or cold cereal. Every one enjoys its nutlike flavor!

If you are cooking a hot cereal try this method—Measure off two tablespoonfuls for each member of the family. Mix it with the cereal and cook as you always cook the cereal.

Kellogg's Bran is scientifically prepared and ready to eat, but its regulatory powers are in no way impaired if you cook it with other cereals.

Kellogg's Bran has won the friendly recommendation of physicians because it does give prompt and permanent relief from mild or chronic constipation and because it can be eaten without forming a habit. Again, Kellogg's Bran will free you from drastic, dangerous cathartics.

When constipation conditions exist in your system or when you are threatened, do not take half-way measures. Foods with a partial bran content cannot free you! What you must have is Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL BRAN! Go the limit; get relief!

Every member of your family will delight in eating Bran raisin bread, muffins, pancakes, macaroons, etc. Recipes on every package.

Start eating Bran to-day! Get well—Keep well—keep disease out of your home! First-class hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers.
