EDEN PRECINCT

By Mary O. Carey.

Andrew Harvey of Myrtle Creek Oregon, drove up to Phoenix last Saturday to visit with his father and brother, Jim Harvey and son, also his sister, Mrs. George McClain of Phoenix.

Mrs. Will Ferns, was a business visitor in Phoenix last Saturday and while in conversation told me that her mother, Mrs. Ella Patterson and her niece Miss Mary Jacobs, were soon to go to California, where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Colver Furry was over from Fern Valley Tuesday visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. S. Furry.

Mrs. Nora Roberts Rhinehart was a guest last Sunday at the home of your correspondent. Mrs. Rhinehart expects to leave soon for Klamath Falls on a business trip.

Mr. Oden, Jr., has been plowing with a tractor for J. M. Rader this week. The ground is in fine condition for plowing and young Oden sure made her hum! There was never a hitch from morning until evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Colver of Phoenix went up to Talent Wednesday and took Mrs. Dean up to John Robinson's, for a few days visit.

E. R. Jones of the Log Cabin Service Station, on the summit of the Siskiyou, was in the valley and in Medford Tuesday after a load of hay, and other supplies for his station. He says that Mrs. Jones, who has been visiting in California for the past month, has returned home again.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. Noah Chandler, were guests on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey. A big turkey was served as the main portion of a bounteous dinner. Music was enjoyed in the afternoon.

Mrs. Ida Jones and Miss Alvina Jones of Oakland, California, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fish of North Talent one day last week, where Mrs. Jones will visit with her daughter for some time. On Thanksgiving day the following relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fish, for a reunion and Thanksgiving feast. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Beebe and daughter, Fay; Mrs. Birch, Mr. V. Ritzinger, all of Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Head and son, Glen, of Ashland; Mrs. Ida Jones and Alvina Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Fish and son, Harold, and daughter, Leona.

The pupils of the Phoenix high school will take their plays, Scourge-Sur, a Japanese play, and "When Love Was Young," to Talent Friday evening. These plays are two short ones given in one evening's entertainment. They were presented at Phoenix last week and drew a full house. After the play the ladies of the Talent Community club will hold a basket social at Ames Hall in Talent. Both of these events will afford a good evening's entertainment.

One who has lived in the valley several years ago would be surprised on returning to find how many suburban residences have been built along the highway in the past three years. If the building continues, there will be one continuous street on both sides of the highway from Medford to Talent or possibly Ashland. All the land along the highway is being cut into small tracts, and most of it is already sold, and many of the new owners are now building, or preparing to build. There is not a day that some prospective home builders are not looking over some of these beautiful home-sights.

Mr. K. Hammerbacher of Grants Pass, was up to the White Wing poultry farm last week and purchased 15 of Mr. Lockwood's finest trap-napped cockerels for his breeding farm. Mr. Hammerbacher is a breeder of the Single Comb White Leghorns, and was highly pleased with the Phoenix farm.

Another man who is doing the right thing; patronizing our home poultry industries, is Dr. Shaw of Ashland. He also bought some of Mr. Lockwood's birds. This pleases Mr. Lockwood to have these birds stay in our valley.

It is useless for us to start such industries if people do not give them their support, and all of these breeders are doing a lot for every poultry raiser in the valley.

When new people find out that it is worth while to work for the upbuilding of our poultry business, they, too, will want to work along that line.

LITTLE APPLIGATE

Miss Irene Hughey, Miss Flora Manke, Harold Crump, and Dean Saltmarsh, chaperoned by Mrs. Frank Cameron, had an enjoyable horseback ride to Dutchman peak last week-end.

A very successful pie social was given by Miss Manke at the Uniontown school last Wednesday evening. The twenty pies sold netted over forty dollars which shows that the Appligates haven't lost the appetite for pie.

Several families enjoyed a combined Thanksgiving dinner at the Crump ranch. Dinner was followed by dancing, with an old time fiddler furnishing the music. A theatre party was the finish of a perfect day.

Mrs. Cyrenus Combs returned from central Oregon with relatives last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Saltmarsh is having some improvements made upon her house.

Mrs. Crump is soon to leave for a visit to her relatives and friends in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds.

School has been resumed in the Sterling district.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zeldner have returned for the winter. They spent the summer in the employ of the Topsy Lumber Co.

APPLIGATE

John Ranall, the Appligate merchant, runs his own electric plant which furnishes light for his home and store.

Hardtime dance at the hall Saturday night following Thanksgiving. School went into holiday quarters from Wednesday until Monday following.

Near the Appligate store is a noted hill where those who know about it try their cars in low. Some climb it and some do not. It is the test of a good car. Try it some day.

Wednesday evening, the night before Thanksgiving, found the school house full. Where the people came from the writer cannot tell you.

It had been announced that the school would stage a program which would be followed by coffee and cake.

The school did put on an excellent program which was enjoyed from start to finish by the appreciative people of Appligate. After the exercises the coffee and cake appeared in abundance, and what a good social time did these good people have.

ANTIOCK ITEMS

Mr. Coleman of Central Point was cut to W. C. Chapman's on Friday on business.

Prof. Clark has returned to his sister's, Mrs. Jesse Glass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Winslow have left their ranch at Beagle after a short stay with their son in Medford, they will move to California again.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Chapman, a 9½ pound boy.

Harold Shook and family are moving to their homestead this week and have also rented Mr. Jasper Rodger's ranch to farm.

Sanford Houston of Trail was down in Antioch looking for cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas have relatives from Colorado visiting them several days.

Mr. Finis Mayfield of the Meadows was looking for stock around Beagle this week.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

Miss Muriel Mathews returns to Eugene Sunday morning after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mathews of Footh Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Elliott, Mrs. Beatrice Jones and Mrs. Chas. Champlin attended the show in Grants Pass Saturday night.

Elliott Butler who is attending the O. A. C. spent the Thanksgiving holiday with friends in Newberg.

Mrs. Hodges and daughter, Mrs. Rose Gay of Riverside spent Sunday with Mrs. Hoanier and Mrs. Farmer of Footh Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wahl were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Ella Short of Footh Creek.

The Riverside Community club held their tenth annual Thanksgiving dinner at the club house on Thursday, Nov. 29th. The auditorium and table were decorated in laurel berries, chrysanthemums and roses. Covers were laid for 35 people. All did ample justice to the bountiful dinner which consisted of turkey and all the trimmings including ice cream. After dinner was finished each one responded to roll call by giving a Thanksgiving thought. After the tables were cleared and dishes washed everyone enjoyed dancing and singing and a general good time. The guests departed for their homes all vowing this to be the best Thanksgiving ever.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Alden, Mr. and Mrs. John Butler, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Engel and son George, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wahl, Mrs. Roe and Miss Jane McQuat of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray and children, Mrs. Paul McQuat and children of Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wahl of Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Kelly and children, Miss Evelyn Carstens and Miss Irene Anderson of Rogue River, Mrs. Beatrice Jones, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mathews and children, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Champlin and children.

F. L. Champlin spent Saturday and Sunday in Medford.

The Riverside Community club will give another dance on Dec. 8th.

Mrs. M. W. Jacobs and Miss Nellie Jacobs were calling on Mrs. Chas. Wahl Monday.

The regular business meeting of the club will be on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 9th at 2 o'clock p. m. All members are requested to be present.
