

A Message From Rin-Tin-Tin

To Medford Movie Lovers:

I want to thank you for the generous applause that has been accorded each performance of my picture, "Where the North Begins," at the Rialto theatre this week.

The manager tells me that applause is rarely given a picture in such volume. That makes me happy. There's a heap of power to the plot of this picture and I've done my "dog-gondest" to put it over.

I'll be mighty pleased to entertain you this week at the Rialto.

Signed, RIN-TIN-TIN,
Police Dog.

Medford Address: Rialto Theatre.

Local Briefs

There was six inches of snow this morning at the summit of the Siskiyou, a tourist who arrived from the south this forenoon reported to L. C. Garlock in charge of the state auto registration bureau in the chamber of commerce building. He also said it rained hard all day yesterday between Redding and Dunsmuir, making the highway slippery going. The snow gradually decreases between the summit and the foot of the Siskiyou on this side.

People are asked to not fail to hear the gifted speakers on World Wide Missions at the Presbyterian church tonight at 7:30 p. m. Thousands of people have listened to their burning messages. Dr. and Mrs. F. Howard Taylor have a story to tell which is said not only to reveal the power of faith and prayer, but also combines thrilling experiences which have been theirs in helping to evangelize the interior of that vast empire of China. Not by any means the least of these thrilling experiences was their capture and captivity in the hands of Chinese bandits for 38 days only a few months ago.

LOCAL SCOUTS TO MEET NEXT SATURDAY

The Crater Lake Council met at luncheon yesterday and steps were taken looking toward the definite program of activity for the organization. Many favorable reports were received. The committee on temporary headquarters location stated that the new gym of the Baptist church had been secured for twice a month general meetings of all the troops. The committee on encampment was authorized to proceed with plans for the construction of the first unit of the camp facilities. The work of the troops was reported well under way. A large number of tenderfoot tests are to be given soon. Mr. Coan calls all scouts of all troops to meet at the headquarters at the Baptist church Saturday evening at 7 promptly. Let each scout pass the word along.
