The Story of a Delightful Dumbelle.

From the famous play George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly

Her only picture since "East is West," and it's a scream from start to finish!

With JACK MULHALL, CLAUDE GILLINGWATER and JOHNNY HARRON

FOR GIRLS ONLY

Oh girls, these men. Especially husbands. I tried so hard to help mine in his business affairs. All I got was terrible abuse. Seems I muddled everything. But my heart was in the right place. And he called me a terrible name, a Duley! I was so hurt. Remembered our glorious honeymoon, and when I first met him. Oh, Girls!

FOR BOYS ONLY

You chaps never give a woman any credit for sense. Serve you right if you keep secrets from your loving wives and sweethearts. Of course she's sure to get things muddled when she doesn't know anything about your affairs and people ask her about them. You ought to be ashamed. There wouldn't be so many Duleys if you boys would confide a little more in your wives and sweethearts. Take that!
