PROHIBITIONISTS
TO HAVE TICKET
1924 CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The prohibition party plans to take no chances about finding a ticket to support in the 1924 campaign among those to be chosen by the other political organizations, but will nominate candidates of its own before the republican and democratic national conventions have an opportunity to name their standard bearers.

Decision to put a ticket into the field was reached here last night by the national committee of the party which selected Columbus Ohio, as the convention city and instructed its executive committee to fix a date prior to June 10.

Former Representative Charles H. Randall of California, who was the party's first successful congressional candidate, told the committee that an independent party with a platform likely to appeal to the prohibition party was sure to be formed. It will be headed, he predicted, by Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, or Henry Ford, and may advance a ticket that the prohibitionists could support.

FARM ORGANIZATION
MEETING IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 14.—Officers of state-wide marketing associations, civil clubs and farm organizations were here today for the annual meeting of the Oregon Co-operative council. The agricultural program for Oregon recently published by Paul V. Mazur of Oregon Agricultural college, was before the meeting for consideration.

President R. A. Ward will give his annual report. Other speakers will be Arthur A. Goldsmith, co-operative attorney; A. S. Goss, representative of the Washington State Grange; C. J. Hurd, specialist in marketing and Fred W. Herrin, president of the Pacific Co-operative Wool Growers.
